Grand Slam Highlights 7-Run Ninth

By HERM WEISKOPF The game is never over until the last man is out.

These are the words that will echo in the minds of the Nittany nine after Penn scored seven runs yesterday in the ninth—four on a grand slam homer—to trip the Lions, 8-6, in Philadelphia.

Going into that fatal frame the Lions led 6-1 and seemingly had their tenth victory wrapped up. But, with one down in the ninth, the Quakers began their come-back climaxing it with a 450-foot home run with the bases full by Mike Dalton.

Garland Gingerich had just entered the game in time to pitch to Dalton. The Quakers' shortstop ran the count to two balls and one strike and then wrote an abrupt finish to the struggle.

Keith Vesling, starting and los-ing hurler for Penn State, pitched 81/2 innings and was tagged with his second defeat.

Dalton's big smash overshad-owed earlier Nittany batting per-formances by Pat Kennedy, who got four hits including a double, and Dick Surovchak, who cracked a 425-foot homer with one on in the Lions' four-run outburst in the third. The Blue and White outhit Penn, 13-8.

Golfers Drop Pitt, 4-3, Cop 7th Is Medalist ictory; Mayes

A repeat performance was pulled by Penn State's golf team yesterday against Pittsburgh. In closing their 1954 season, the Lions won their seventh victory edging the Panther's 4-3 to snap a 21-match victory streak held by

The Panthers started their long winning string last year after the Lions clipped their seven-man squad on the Penn State course, 6-1. The win was the start of a two-season victory streak for the Lions that was snapped at 12.

Both seniors—playing their last matches for Penn State—lost. Captain Rod Eaken lost his third match of the season from the lead-off slot to Phil Hubacker, two-and-one. Hubacher was Pitt's medalist with 72. Number three man for the Lions, Joe Webb, lost threeand-one to Dick Ryabik.

The Lions' strength came from the lower half of the lineup as two sophomores and three juniors copped victories.

Jim Mayes took his second straight win with an impressive four-and-three victory over Jim Zocala. Mayes also turned in a medalist performance with a four-over-par 75.

Jim Boyanowski and Jim Sim Boyanowski and Jim Ginsberg both won. Boyanowski won his fifth match in six tries smothering Bob Wise, five-and-four. Ginsberg, in the cleanup slot, easily defeated Don Garber, six-and-five. It was Ginsberg's third win in four matches.

Warren Gittlen—a junior— pushed his record to a 5-2 score after defeating the Panther's number two man Bill Stockdale. George Kreidler lost to Pitt's wrestler, Chuck Uram, three-and-two.

Scores for the Lions were high as four Nittany linksmen shot 77's on Shannopin Country Club course. Par is 72 on the hilly course with tight, short fairways.
