'Clean-up Meeting'---

No matter what they say in attacking Lion's Paw, they are attacking the integrity of each and every member of the organization, Gibbs said. They do this even though Lion's Paw includes the men who have been voted by the students to be their leaders and representatives to the University.

Presents Facts 'Straight'
Concerning the 'clean-up campus politics' meeting, Gibbs said, "Let's get the facts straight. I respectfully submit that Lyon misrepresented the facts, told half truths, and suggested false conclusions."

"Here are the facts:
"1. The meeting was initiated by Dunlap, Herbein, and myself.

"2. The purpose was to give the students certain facts concerning the manner in which political parties are run on campus. Also to make a good campaign possible by accomplishing the nomination of Smoot as State Party candidate. It was felt by the committee that a good campaign draws more student interest and that the only way in which a good campaign can be carried on is to have two strong men opposing each other.

"3. The fact that All-University elections committee was to meet on Thursday, at which time final nominations were to be made by the clique chairmen for that committee's approval, was what determined the date of the meeting, not whether some of the principals involved were out of town.

"4. Upon our request, certain facts were supplied to us.

"5. Dunlap and I contacted John Fink, State Party clique chairman, and asked him if he would accept Smoot as the State Party's candidate for All-University president if Lewis Wade, State Party's nominee for All-University president, would resign.

Wade Writes Letter
"6. Lew Wade wrote a letter stating his desire to resign.

"7. This letter was given to Lyon, the same man who is now attacking the meeting and the backers.

"8. Lyon gave the letter to Kenneth White, former State Party clique chairman.

"9. Ken White called a member of Lion's Paw and tried to bribe him with the letter.

"10. When White found he could not get what he wanted, White and Rae Delle Donne, clique secretary of the State Party, went to see Wade and more or less forced him to refute his earlier letter and thus remain as a candidate.

"1. At the meeting certain facts were made public concerning the padding of the Lion Party membership rules, the way in which Arnelle was nominated, the tie-up between Richard Kirschner, former Lion Party clique chairman, and Benjamin Sinclair, then Lion Party clique chairman, with the qualified charge being made that Kirschner was the real head of the Lion Party.

"These are the facts as I very well know them," Gibbs stated. "It was unfortunate that Arnelle was the candidate of the Lion Party since he was inadvertently caught in the middle during some of the heated arguments at the meeting. It is true that those who were against the action of the committee were those who brought up Arnelle's name, not us."

In conclusion Gibbs stated, "This is our side of the story. This is the way it happened.

"Don't be stampeded into a hasty decision on this subject by men with glib tongues or debating trophies."

"It's small," Carruthers admitted, "but at least its a start."
Hugh Cline, president of the sophomore class, will announce the list of ten freshmen compiled for outstanding contributions to campus activities.

The selection of names was the sophomore class project to present an honor roll to attribute credit to outstanding freshman men. Cabinet allotted $16 to the class to buy shingles for the selected men.

No question about it, Luckies taste better to thousands of college smokers.

No question about the reasons why Luckies taste better, either. Today, nearly everybody knows L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And that fine tobacco is toasted to taste better.

"It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—brings Luckies' tobacco to its peak of flavor... tones up this light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better.

So enjoy better taste in your cigarette. Be Happy—Go Lucky!
