

ROTC Will Attend Chapel En Masse

Approximately 400 Reserve Officers' Training Corps men are expected to attend Chapel service in uniform Sunday, Maj. Herbert A. Johnson, assistant professor of military science and tactics, said yesterday.

The ROTC students planning to attend Chapel service are expected to wear their uniforms and sit in a section reserved for ROTC, Major Johnson said. Guests who accompany these students may sit in the reserved section.

G. Bromley Oxnam, Methodist bishop who has appeared before the House committee on un-American activities, will be the Chapel speaker at 10:55 a.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium. He will discuss "The Mission of the Church."

California Native

Bishop Oxnam, a native of Sonoma, Calif., is a graduate of the University of Southern California and Boston University. He is bishop of the Methodist Church in the Washington area.

Bishop Oxnam has served as pastor of the Poplar Church in California and was founder, pastor, and director of the Church of All Nations in Los Angeles from 1916 to 1927. He was elected bishop in 1936 and served in the Omaha area, Boston area, and New York area, prior to going to the Washington area, which includes the District of Columbia, Delaware, and parts of Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia, in 1952.

Communist Accusations

In March, 1953, Oxnam was accused of "serving God on Sunday and the Communist front the rest of the week." He asked for a hearing to defend himself before the House Committee on un-American activities. The hearing was held July 21, 1953.

Oxnam said he was not a Communist and had always opposed Communism. He asserted that some Communist fronts had used his name without his knowledge and authority.

Evidence was demolished, and the committee unanimously reported that Oxnam had no record of any Communist party membership or affiliation.

Rushing Pre-registration Begins Today

Pre-registration for sorority rushing will be held today through Monday for women who will be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in the fall and are eligible to rush.

Boxes will be placed in McAllister Hall, Atherton Hall, Woman's Building, and Thompson Hall where pre-registration blanks are available.

Women who pre-register will receive the rushing booklet by mail during the summer. Pre-registration will give the sororities a tentative list of the number expected for rushing.

According to Panhellenic Council rules, pre-registered rushees must register again in the regular registration Friday and Saturday, Sept. 17 and 18, if they still intend to go through rushing. Women who do not pre-register this semester may also register on those dates.

Pre-registration does not obligate women to go through rushing.

Norma Reck, Panhellenic rushing chairman, said coeds should pre-register even if they are not sure they will go through rushing so that they will receive the rushing booklet.

A meeting for rushees will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 18. Louise Moreman, Panhellenic Council president, and Mary E. Brewer, assistant dean of women will speak.

The Intramural cup will be presented to the group having the most points at the WRA banquet Sunday at the State College Hotel. Also to be presented at that time will be the participation award, honoring the group which had the highest percentage of women participating in the most hours in the sporting events.

Individual sports recognition will be given to Mary Hudcovich who defeated Patricia Farrell in badminton; Miss Farrell defeated Anne Webber in bowling; and Annette Bortman won the table tennis contest over Carolyn Spengler.

Those invited to attend the banquet are members of the Intramural board, composed of one representative from each sorority; the WRA executive board; and the Club Activities Board, made up of all the WRA club presidents.

Student Gets 20-Foot Letter

A 20-foot letter written by hand on a roll of shelf paper received by Ricardo Jackson, first semester business administration major, should make most students ashamed of any of their own lax letter writing habits.

Jackson received the letter yesterday from Petra Siaga, a senior at West Catholic High School in Philadelphia. The letter was begun on March 17. Petra wrote about events that have happened in her school, Philadelphia, and Washington since that date.

She wrote about Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, the movie "New Faces"—with comments about Eartha Kitt—a new jazz workshop in Philadelphia, and the academy award winners. Jackson said he has not had time to read all the letter yet.

Jackson quoted a bit of advice from his "Penpal" who said that if he "doesn't get good marks, we will have to turn the letter over and use it for shelf paper when we get married."

MISS "I.B." LAZARUS

Okay Joe?

For your heroic efforts . . .

in braving the glaring light, the blasting music, and the occasional corn, we offer you members of the sororities and fraternities whose composites we have done, the following earth shattering (said modestly) deal. As of today and tomorrow and maybe Monday, you may order 12 miniatures of the portrait used in your composite for the staggering sum of $1.95. This would usually cost you $7.50. It's amazing what you can do with these miniatures. You can force them on people who've done you dirty or even give them to friends you hope to never see again. Or better yet, you can send a few to prospective employers to show them how pretty you can be with just a little retouching. For your sadistic ones, send them to your relatives as a small retaliation for the graduation gift you didn't receive.

If gold bars . . .

be on your shoulders in a few days, you could well do your folks a time honored favor and present them with a portrait of a uniformed you. It's about time you gave them a lasting gift.

Will you be sporting black . . .

on June 7th? Then for Pete's sake, if it's a graduation portrait you'd like, make arrangements now for your sitting before the crowd gets here. We invariably have to turn away sittings because of the last minute rush. Make your appointment now.

Oh, yes . . .

This will be the last time to pick up extra party pictures taken throughout the year, up to and including the last big weekend. Only two or three extra prints per house. If you didn't get one this is the last opportunity.

Sincerely,
b.c.
