

Frosh Counsels To End Tonight

Hat societies will conclude their counseling talks with new students tonight, with final meetings in assigned campus buildings.

Tonight's discussions will include the customs program, general student conduct, activities, social life, honorary and professional societies, and religious opportunities on campus.

Cheerleaders To Hold Rally For Freshmen

Freshman men will attend a prep pep rally at 6:45 p.m. Friday, in Schwab Auditorium.

Cheers and songs will be led by the 15-man cheerleading squad. Bruce Coble, head cheerleader, will explain, among others, two new cheers from last year, the "Blue and White" and "Victory."

Frank Gullo, associate professor of music, and Hummel Fishburn, professor of music and music education, will be on hand to lead the men in songs.

Members of the squad besides Coble are Jay Schultz, senior; Ronald Lynch, Joan Carter, Joan Myers, Patricia Dickinson, Harry Albert, Sandra Dahlinger and Hugh Cline, juniors; and Kay Buterbaugh, Elizabeth Morrill, Marilyn Seltzer, Jack Dimler, Frederick Page, and Samuel Wolcott, sophomores.

Men's and women's hat societies will sponsor a pep rally at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 22, in front of Recreation Hall.

Radio Operators Sought by Stations

New and returning students holding an amateur radio operators license and who wish to affiliate with the University radio station staff as assistant operators of the University radio station W3YA and the MARS station A3YA, should send a letter of application to Gilbert L. Crossley, assistant professor of electrical engineering.

The letter of application should contain personal experience, the station call letters of the student's own amateur station, the grade of amateur license which the applicant holds, and any other pertinent facts.

Joining the staff is not limited to students in the College of Engineering. Any student, faculty member, or employee of the University holding an amateur license is eligible.

Also tonight the function of the Women's Recreation Association will be explained to women students. Tomorrow night, the purposes of Panhellenic Council and Leonides, independent women's organization, will be explained to new coeds. Both meetings are scheduled for 6:45 p.m. in Schwab Auditorium.

Members of Parmi Nous and Skull and Bones, senior men's hat societies; Blue Key and Androcles, junior men's hat societies; and Druids, sophomore men's hat society, are serving as counselors for men.

Members of two senior women's hat societies, Mortar Board and Scrolls, are serving on a stand-by basis with Chimes, junior women's hat society, and Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, to counsel women.

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will continue to operate the information booth at the Mall and Pollock Road tonight.

The general orientation program for new students will continue through Saturday with dormitory meetings and meetings with resident counselors.

Two social events on Saturday, the Dink Debut at 2 p.m. in the Temporary Union Building, and Fun Night at 7 p.m. in Recreation Hall, will conclude orientation week activities.

GOP Candidates To Attend Picnic

State Republican officials and candidates will attend a picnic given by members of the Penn State Young Republican Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bond White at Axeman Friday afternoon.

Lloyd Wood, lieutenant governor and candidate for governor, Frank Truscott, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Gaynelle Dixon, candidate for secretary of internal affairs, will attend the picnic.

Students wishing to attend should contact Benjamin Sinclair, at AD 7-4283. Transportation will be provided, and will leave at 4:15 p.m. Friday.

Frosh, Transfers To Be Entertained At Starlight Ball

New students on campus will be entertained by Jack Jenkins and his band at the Starlight Dance from 8:30 until 10 tonight in front of Old Main.

In case of rain, the annual event, sponsored by the Panhellenic and Interfraternity councils, will be held in the Temporary Union Building.

The dance is primarily a get-together for the new students, but all students may attend.

The Dink Debut, the first big party for frosh, will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday in the TUB.

The event, sponsored by Leonides and the Association of Independent Men, is free to freshmen. Lynn Christy and his Campeers will provide the music. Baby orchids will be given to women attending.

1800 Enrolled In LA College

The College of the Liberal Arts, with an enrollment of approximately 1800, offers over 30 major fields of study under three general curriculums—arts and letters, journalism, and labor-management relations.

When it was opened in 1909, the College offered five main curriculum—the practical courses, history and political science, mathematics, modern languages, and philosophy and education.

Today the major fields vary in languages, literature, mathematics, political science, history, speech, and many others. Library training is also offered in cooperation with the University librarian. Art is given in co-operation with the Department of Architecture in the College of Engineering.

The Journalism and Music departments are located in Carnegie Hall. The Dramatics department has its office in Schwab Auditorium. Other offices in the College, including those of the dean, are located in Sparks Building.

Students Asked to Note New Phone Numbers

Students at the University are advised by the telephone officials to make a note of the new telephone number at their fraternity or residence. Numbers in the State College area have been changed during the summer.

Extension numbers in campus residence halls have not been changed although the residence hall number has been changed from 8-5051 to ADams 8-5051.

Today Is Deadline For Choir Tryouts

Today is the last day freshmen may try out for Chapel Choir, Mrs. Willa C. Taylor, professor of music education, has announced. Auditions will be held in 208 Carnegie.

The schedule for tryouts is as follows: baritones and basses, 10 to 10:30 a.m. and 8 to 8:30 p.m.; tenors, 10:30 to 11 a.m. and 8:30

University Boasts Symphony Group

The University Symphony Orchestra, a full-size symphony orchestra of 60 members, can be compared to any professional orchestra.

The group uses complete instrumentation, according to Theodore K. Karhan, director of the orchestra.

Each year tryouts are held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Orientation Week. Old and new members must tryout at this time. Freshmen may try out then.

The orchestra presents two concerts each year—one in the fall and a second in spring. It also gives a performance with the Chapel Choir. Several out-of-town concerts are also presented.

to 9 p.m.; altos, 11 to 11:30 a.m. and 7:15 to 8 p.m.; and sopranos, 11:30 a.m. to noon and 6:45 to 7:15 p.m.
