

Fraternities Begin Rushing Programs

Fraternity rushing programs went into full swing this week as houses began rushing transfer students coming from Penn State Centers and other upperclassmen who have not yet affiliated with a fraternity.

Houses may rush these men all this week, but both houses and rushees should be aware of the penalties accompanying any violation of the Interfraternity Council rushing code, John Carpenter, IFC president, said yesterday. Carpenter also emphasized the Upperclassmen who are interested in becoming affiliated with a fraternity can sign up at a special Interfraternity Council registration booth in Recreation Hall during registration, according to John Russell, IFC rushing chairman. The list of upperclassmen who register at the booth will be available to fraternities at the Student Union Desk in Old Main, Russell said.

A detailed rushing program is being planned for freshmen by IFC rushing chairman John Russell. This program includes a movie, an explanation of the fraternity system at Penn State and the workings of IFC, and an opportunity to have questions answered.

fact that fraternities may not pledge men who do not have a 1.0 All-University average, or a 1.0 average for the previous semester.

The IFC rushing code also states that no man may be pledged 48 hours prior to the beginning of classes (Saturday).

Any known violations of these or any section of the code should be reported immediately to any IFC officer or member of the IFC Board of Control.

The deadline for dormitory-fraternity exchanges this year for men who have already signed dormitory contracts has been extended to Sept. 24.

Advise Visiting Houses
Carpenter also advised upperclassmen who are now rushing, to attempt to visit as many houses as possible with an open mind before reaching a decision. Carpenter said a man can't take too much time when choosing the men with whom he will live for the remainder of his University career. "I wish to encourage fresh-

Phys Ed Council Aims to Create Better Relations

The Physical Education Council represents students enrolled in physical education, health education, and recreation curriculums. It aims to establish better student-faculty relations.

Among the projects that it sponsored last year, for students enrolled in the College of Physical Education and Athletics were the first convocation in the history of the College, Sports Day, and awarding of the Paul Smith memorial trophy.

The trophy honors a former physical education major who died in 1946, three months before he was to graduate. It is awarded annually by the council to an outstanding senior male physical education major.

The Descobalus, the only campus paper dealing with physical education interests, is published by the council. The open house held in the Spring also is the responsibility of the council.

Membership on the council is limited to 17. This includes four officers, two representatives for

Schedule Announced For Test Readings

New students who have had skin reaction tests at the University Hospital are to report for readings according to the following schedule, Dr. Herbert R. Glenn announced yesterday.

Monday's injections—return Wednesday.

Tuesday's injections—return Thursday.

Wednesday's injections—return Friday.

Thursday's injections—return Saturday morning.

Friday's and Saturday's injections—return Monday.

each class, president of the recreation and representative of the health education organizations, two faculty members and the Descobalus editor.

Anyone may nominate himself for council election by submitting to the council a petition signed by 15 physical education majors. He

Men's Glee Club To Hold Auditions

The Penn State Glee Club will hold auditions from 7 to 9 p.m. tonight and tomorrow in 200 Carnegie.

Rehearsals will be open to men students. Returning members of the Glee Club must audition, according to David Hubert, publicity director. Auditions will be conducted by Frank Gullo, associate professor of music and Glee Club director.

Observatories to Open

Members of Alpha Nu, astronomical society, will operate the telescopes at the University observatories for the public from 7:30 to 9:30 tonight and Thursday. Three planets, Venus, Mars, and Saturn are now visible through the telescopes in the southern and southwest skies.

Some experts think Turkish resources are capable of supporting twice its 21 million people.

U. S. farmers produced 5,300,000,000 eggs in June, 1954.

Saccharin is 300 to 500 times as sweet as sugar.

Welcome Back
To PENN STATE
And to Fine Eating
Enjoyment at . . .
The Nittany Lion Inn

WELCOME
To Your
LAUNDERETTE
and
Sunway Cleaners
210 W. College Ave.
•Washing, Drying Service (9-lbs.)
•Dry Cleaning - Alterations
•Quick Pressing - Dyeing
•Shirts Beautifully Finished
FREE PARKING IN REAR
Call & Delivery Service Phone AD 7-4785

THE ATHLETIC STORE

Text Books

New & Used

Engineering
Materials

Sporting Goods

Student
Supplies

TUNE IN WMAJ
PENN STATE PLAYS

Sept. 25	Illinois	2:30 EDST
Oct. 2	Syracuse	2:00 EST
9	Virginia	2:00 EST
16	West Virginia	2:00 EST
23	Texas Christian	3:00 EST
30	Pennsylvania	2:00 EST
Nov. 6	Holy Cross	1:30 EST
13	Rutgers	1:30 EST
20	Pitt	1:30 EST

Opposite Main Gate