Students Participate In Church Groups

Students' participation in religious activities while at the University is furthered by 14 student organizations sponsored by the State College churches.

In addition to these student groups, the University Christian Association, formed last spring from the Penn State Christian Association, represents the Protestant students.

The Roger Williams Fellowship of the University Baptist Church holds a Sunday student class at 9:40 a.m. before the 10:45 a.m. morning worship. The group holds a Sunday evening meeting which includes supper, evening worship, and a fellowship program. The fellowship has a choir which meets at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays at the student center, Nittany avenue and Burrowes street.

Divine Liturgy is held three times each semester by the Eastern Orthodox Greek Catholic Society at the St. Andrews Church, 316 S. Frazier street.

The Newman Club of Our Lady of Victory Church, 215 W. Fairmount avenue, holds Sunday masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30, and 11:30 a.m. at the Church. The Catholic Students' Center is located next to the Church. Activities and meetings are held each week.

The Canterbury Club of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 316 S. Frazier street, holds programs of activities, discussion, and study. The schedule of services for Sundays is 7:45 a.m., Holy Communion; 9:30 and 10:45 a.m., Morning Prayer and Sermon; 5:30 p.m., Canterbury Group supper; and 6:30 p.m., Canterbury Group meeting.

The United Student Fellowship of the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church, and the Congregational Christian Church holds a regular Sunday program at 9:15 a.m., coffee hour for students; 9:30 a.m., student church school class; 10:45 a.m., morning worship in which students sing in the choir and serve as ushers; and 6:30 p.m., student fellowship meeting.

The Evangelical United Brethren Fellowship of St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Church, W. Beaver avenue and S. Burrowes street, holds a weekly student Sunday School class. The program of the fellowship includes monthly dinners and parties, cabin parties, Bible study, deputation teams, and Social Service projects.

The Young Friends Group of the State College Friends Meeting 318 S. Atherton street, holds regular Sunday meetings: 9:30 a.m. discussion group; 10:45 a.m. meeting for worship; and 7:00 p.m., Young Friends Group. The social activities of the group include square dances, picnics, hikes, and overnight cabin parties.

The Penn State Bible Fellowship, chapter of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, is an interdenominational and evangelical student organization. A program of Bible studies, prayer meetings, and Bible conferences is conducted throughout the school year. Regular meetings are held at 7:30 p.m. on Fridays in 405 Old Main. A Sunday Bible study is held at 3 p.m. in 418 Old Main.

The 3'Nai B'rith Hillel Foundation, 224 Locust lane, holds social, religious, cultural, athletic, dramatic, and musical activities of interest to the Jewish student on campus. A newspaper is published monthly. Regular Friday night services are held at 8 p.m. at the foundation. Hillel has a radio program once a week and a Sunday afternoon program.

The Lutheran Student Association of the Grace Lutheran Church, 400-412 W. College avenue, holds a weekly social program on Sundays and some Fridays. Sunday worship hours include Matins, 8:30 a.m.; Church School college class, 9:30 a.m.; Divine Worship, 10:45 a.m.; and vespers, 7:30 p.m. Activities include choir, discussion groups, interclass competition in seasonal sports, and outdoor events.

The Wesley Foundation of the St. Paul's Methodist Church holds an annual banquet, picnics, and cabin parties. The choir and drama groups are two important activities. The group has a Sunday program including Sanctuary services, 8:30 a.m., 10:45 a.m., and 7:30 p.m.; Studies in Christian Living, 9:30 a.m.; Fellowship supper, 5:15 p.m.; and Student Forum, 6:30 p.m.

The Westminster Student Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church, Beaver avenue at Frazier street, is the Presbyterian student group on campus. A breakfast is held on Sunday at 8:50 a.m. followed by a worship service. Four seminars are held after worship until 10:30. A regular Sunday evening program is held at 6:20. Matin is held at 7 a.m. Thursdays, and at 7 p.m. Thursday, Bible Study.

The Emerson Society of the Unitarian Church holds regular Sunday evening meetings at 6:15 p.m. in 304 Old Main. The meetings are usually in the form of discussions. Suppers and other social events are also sponsored by the society.

Church Groups Plan Activities

Student church groups plan the following weekend activities:

Wesley Foundation—a party for all students at 7:30 tonight at the Foundation. Open house will be held tomorrow. A coffee hour will be held at 9:15 a.m. Sunday followed by the student church school meeting. Supper, followed by a worship service, will begin at 5:15 p.m. Sunday at the Foundation.

Lutheran Student Association—Open house at 7:30 tonight at the student center. The student church school class will meet at 9:30 a.m. Sunday in the Grace Lutheran Church. Arthur H. Reede, professor of economics, will speak at the worship service at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, which will be followed by a coffee hour.

Hillel Foundation—A lox and bagel brunch will be held at the Foundation at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. The price for members is 25 cents; for non-members, 65 cents.

Faith Evangelical and Reformed Student Fellowship—A get-acquainted supper will be held at the church at 5:30 p.m. Sunday for all Evangelical and Reformed and Congregational students.

Westminster Foundation—The Westminster Council will hold a retreat near Warriors' Mark today and tomorrow to plan the year's activities. Seventy-five freshman women, who have received personal invitations from town women, will be guests at a breakfast at 9:15 a.m. Sunday in the church.

Roger Williams Fellowship—An open house and musical production for all students will be held at 5 p.m. Sunday. The student church school class will meet at 9:30 a.m. Sunday in the church.
