

Election Proposals Will Be Presented To Cabinet Tonight

All-University Cabinet tonight will be asked to adopt a revised elections code governing student political parties and establish a committee to examine elections procedures in the various student councils by Robert Homan, All-University secretary-treasurer.

The proposed elections code includes a proposal that all-University clique chairmen be elected by their entire clique.

Fraternities Employing 40 Mothers

Forty resident or part-time housemothers are presently employed by fraternities, O. Edward Pollock, assistant dean of men for fraternity affairs, said yesterday.

Of the 40 housemothers now employed, 12 are full-time resident housemothers while 28 are part-time housemothers. All of the full-time housemothers are from outside of the State College area, Pollock stated.

In addition to the 40 already employed, three or four other houses are now negotiating with candidates for housemother positions, he said. Pollock also thought that by early next week all fraternities desiring full or part-time housemothers will have acquired them.

There will be six or seven fraternities that will not employ either a full or part-time housemother, Pollock went on. These houses will operate on the registration and chaperone provision in the new dating code, he added.

The overall housemother program is going quite well, Pollock stated, and fraternities are demonstrating good cooperation with the University in solving the problem. Pollock hoped that this cooperation would continue in other ways.

Several fraternities have had trouble in that they haven't received University recognition of their housemothers, Pollock stated. He reminded fraternities that they must turn in a letter requesting official acceptance of their housemother by the University. This letter must also be signed by the fraternity's adviser, he added.

Annual Kick-off Dance Is Tomorrow Night

The annual kick-off dance, sponsored by Campus Chest, will be held from 8 to 12 tomorrow night in Recreation Hall. The music of Jack Jenkins' orchestra will highlight the dance, which is the first major event planned for the purpose of raising money for the chest.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased for 50 cents at the Student Union Desk in Old Main. Proceeds from ticket sales will be given to Campus Chest.

Mortar Board, senior women's hat society, will operate the refreshment stand.

At present clique chairmen are elected by small groups within the parties.

The proposed code would require cliques to present to cabinet copies of existing clique constitutions. This, in effect, would be chartering the parties by cabinet. At present, it is not necessary for political parties to be registered with cabinet.

Otto Hetzel, chairman of the committee on making student government more effective, will present a resolution calling upon cabinet to appoint a committee to make a thorough analysis into

Kirk Garber, chairman of the cultural and social aspects committee, will present a resolution asking that a committee be set up by cabinet to take positive action toward including an assessment for Community Forum in the student activities fee.

Joseph Cutler, chairman of the Orientation Week committee, and Robert Smoot, chairman of the Encampment evaluation committee, will present other reports.

Riot Fails to Develop

A threatened riot against customs by freshmen failed to materialize by 10:30 last night in the West Dormitory area.

Several hatmen, alerted to the talk of the riot, kept a vigil for 45 minutes, watching groups congregate in the West Dorm courtyard. Robert Smoot, president of hat societies council, said he believed the presence of hatmen in the vicinity prevented a demonstration.

February Opening Planned for HUB

The Hetzel Union Building will probably be opened the first week in February, Samuel K. Høstetter, comptroller, said yesterday.

One of the first events to be held in the HUB will be the University's Centennial birthday party, Feb. 22.

The new governor and other dignitaries are expected to attend the celebration. A nationwide telephone hookup is also planned, so that alumni clubs may attend by proxy.

Original plans called for the HUB to be opened by the beginning of classes this fall, but labor trouble during the summer delayed construction.

Although much of the exterior work on the building has been completed, the contractors must still complete much work on the interior and furnishings and equipment must be installed.

Opening to Climax Plan

When the building finally opens, it will be the climax of planning which was begun in 1937. Actual construction of the building, which will cost approximately $2,867,000, was begun in December, 1952.

The project is being financed through a student-assessed fee of $10 a semester, together with faculty contributions and contributions to the alumni fund, designated for that purpose.

The new student union building will provide increased space for campus organizations including Central Promotions Agency, Froth, and Thespians.

Special Meeting Rooms

Special meetings rooms will be provided for Leonides, independent women's organization, the Association of Independent Men, Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, and other similar groups.

The Penn State Book Exchange will also be given expanded quarters in the HUB.

A ballroom, with one wall entirely constructed of glass is also being provided. An adjoining terrace will also be used for dancing, when weather permits.

Other Facilities

Other facilities to be included are a lecture room which will accommodate over 200 people, a banquet hall, two dining rooms, a cafeteria, two lounges, a browsing library, and a music room.

There will also be a game room with space for ping-pong tables, shuffleboard, and card tables.

The Irwin and Leighton Co., of Philadelphia, are contractors for the building.

Customs Violations Charged to Seven

By MARY BOLICH

Rigid enforcement of customs by a few members of the sophomore class brought the first group of customs violators in front of the Freshman Customs Board last night. Of the seven violators three were women and four were men.

Violations against the men were refusal to wear dress customs or participate in the customs program. The men admitted their guilt to the board.

The board sentenced one freshman to wear a sandwich sign stating that he is a customs violator. The other three were instructed to write essays on the value of the customs program to freshmen entering a university. They must also appear before the board at 1 p.m. Saturday in 204 Old Main and explain what they got out of the program.

The three freshman women were reported for dating after 5:30 p.m. and not wearing their customs. It was the opinion of the board, based on the defense of two of the girls, that they were not dating. The board instructed them to write essays on the meaning and purpose of the customs program.

The other girl, who was guilty of the charge, was sentenced to wear a 8-by-11-inch card stating she is a customs violator.

Hugh Kline, co-chairman of the board, reminded the violators that the customs program is designed to orient and acquaint the freshmen with Penn State and that freshmen, therefore should participate fully in the program.

Greater enforcement of customs was evidenced yesterday as frosh were seen in large groups on the steps of Schwab Auditorium singing the Penn State songs.

The spirit will expand today when joint customs day goes into effect at 8 a.m. Upperclass men will be allowed to ask freshman women to curtsy and upperclass women will be able to make freshman, men button.

WD Council Elections Rescheduled

West Dorm Council elections, previously scheduled for Oct. 26, will be held on or before Sunday, Oct. 4.

A constitutional change in units has been necessitated because of two fire walls which were constructed on the first and second floors. The changes are as follows: unit I is now level A; unit II, level B; unit III, south wing of the first floor; unit IV, north wing of first floor; unit V, south wing of second and third floors; unit VI, north wing of second floor; unit VII, fourth floor and north wing of third floor.

In Watts Hall, unit I is the first and second floors, and unit II is the second and third floors. In Jordan Hall, unit I is the ground, first and second floors, and unit II is the third and fourth floors.

Nominations for council officers must be made by means of a petition signed by ten or more district electors. The petitions must be submitted to the district resident counselor within two weeks after the beginning of the fall semester. There must be at least two nominees for each office. A candidate may run for only one office.

Attlee Wants Ouster Of Chiang Kai-shek

LONDON, Sept. 22 (AP)—Back from Moscow and Peiping, Labor Leader Clement Attlee called on the West today to get rid of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek at once.

Simultaneously, Attlee's lieutenants supported the principle of West German rearmament in the face of determined opposition from left wing and pacifist groups at a meeting of the Labor party's National Executive Committee.

Both developments will influence the course of events at the party's annual conference next week at Scarborough, a Yorkshire seaside resort.

Arriving home after talks with top Russian and Chinese Communist leaders, Attlee stepped from a plane at London airport, greeted his two daughters and a grandchild, and said: "Personally speaking, I think the sooner we get rid of Chiang Kai-shek and his troops the better."

Long ago Attlee went on record in favor of giving Peiping representatives the United Nations' seat held by Nationalist China, a wartime ally of the Western powers.

The man who was Prime Minister when Britain recognized Mao Tze-tung's Red regime in 1950 described Formosa— island stronghold of Chiang's Chinese Nationalist troops—as "the biggest difficulty of all" in the Orient.

Further, Attlee told reporters he had the impression there has been a relaxation of tension in the Far East following the Indochina truce agreement at Geneva.

Attlee led a Laborite delegation that visited the Soviet Union and Red China in August. He was the last member of the party to return, making a trip around the world and coming back via Australia, New Zealand and the North American continent.

He got back a little too late to take part in the executive committee's row over German rearmament. Instead of hurrying to a committee room in London he drove to his country home, Cherry Tree Cottage, at Great Missenden.

DelleDonne Elected State Party Head

By ANN LEH

Rae DelleDonne, seventh semester home economics major, last night was elected chairman of the State Party clique. She was elected at a 90-minute session of the party's Student Representative Council during which:

1. There was a 40-minute discussion as to whether a quorum was present.
2. Miss DelleDonne remained unopposed in nomination after other candidates declined.

3. Heated debate arose over the propriety of the election since a permanent election code is to be brought before All-University Cabinet tonight.

After her election at the meeting in Simmons Lounge, Miss DelleDonne thanked the group for naming her the first woman All-University clique chairman in the history of political parties on campus.

Third Chairman

"I am sure this will be an incentive for women to get into politics," she said as she accepted the chair, making her the party's third clique chairman in 12 hours.

John McMeekin, who had been named temporary clique chairman earlier this week, announced early yesterday that he was not chairman.

McMeekin was named chairman by John Fink, last year's clique chairman, who resigned Monday. However, McMeekin said he learned that legally he could not hold the post and that John Lyon, clique vice chairman, should assume the post.

Lyon called the council meeting and presided. McMeekin was named clique vice chairman.

A question arose over whether unfilled post on the council should be counted in the number necessary for a quorum. Some posts had been vacated through graduation or through persons being promoted to other positions.

19 Present

The group decided only filled posts would be considered. This meant the 19 persons present constituted a quorum, although full council membership would be 42.

After the first round of nominations, the names of Miss DelleDonne, John Lyon, and Rudolph
