PAGE EIGHT

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN. STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1954

Simes--

(Continued from page one) serving on cabinet, and questioned the ability of one so new on campus to judge candidates effectively. Booklet Cited received a booklet from the pub-lishers of the directory, listing and work in crime and crime pre-schools included in it and methods vention.

He proposed that Homan's com-mittee examine this booklet and decide if the University wishes to continue to subscribe before the issue is voted upon by cabinet. The motion was tabled pending further investigation

Reappraisal Asked

Cabinet was also asked to re-appraise both itself and the basic structure of the body by Byron Fielding, fifth semester arts and letters major, at last night's meeting.

Benjamin Sinclair, Board of Dramatics and Forensics representative, yielded the floor to Field-ing. Fielding said that after at-tending cabinet last week, and having followed many cabinet meetings in the Daily Collegian, he wield to present his personal he wished to present his personal observations on the group.

He spoke of "paradoxes" at last week's meeting.

"Cabinet last week passed a motion whereby all bills should be mimeographed so that mem-bers could study them in ad-vance," he said. "Then, cabinet passed all bills presented after seeing them only about three min-utes" - utes.'

Fielding proposed that cabinet officers, once named to their posts, should resign all other activities, making their only activity student government.

He also said "All-University Cabinet should be revised along-more democratic lines."

Donovan Answers

George Donovan took issue with Fielding's criticisms, saying he felt Fielding had come to too hasty conclusions.

Sinclair said he understood Fielding's feelings that there was much to be done. However, he pointed out, "cabinet has made much progress in this past year." Listing incidents such as Field-ing's speech, the formation of a third political party, and heated debate during cabinet sessions debate during cabinet sessions, Sinclair said "I think these are a symptom of the fact that Univer-sity Cabinet is coming to life."

John Carpenter, Interfraternity Council president, concurred with one statement Fielding made: "What Penn State needs is ma-ture individuals." Behave Dennis president of the Robert Dennis, president of the Association of Independent Men, said any changes made to cabinet would have to be made slowly.

CLASSIFIEDS FOR SALE FREE PICKUP and Delivery Service for photo developing printing, copying and enlarging. For service call AD 8-6750. EBONITE SELMER Clarinet. Reasonable

Forum--

(Continued from page one) and managing director of two ra-dio stations. He was on the cabi-nets of two Philippine presidents and was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in journalism in 1942.

Hepbron was administrative assistant and consultant to the Sen-Donovan said he had recently ate Kefauver crime committee eceived a booklet from the pub- and has had 30 years of research will have to be voted on once more according to Cabinet by-

(Continued from page one)

The student encampment re-

Strong Addresses Club Carl P. Strong, newly appoint-ed director of the Bureau of Business Research, addressed the Marketing Club Wednesday. Strong spoke about the opera-tions of the Trade Association.

was

port on academic honesty canceled until a later date.

motion passed unanimously, but

Spring Week--

laws.

Football Players Rest in Infirmary "Football boarders" is the term Times.

that Carol H. Burt, Superintendent of the University health service, has given to the three football players, Jesse Arnelle, Roose-

day. The players sleep, eat breakfast, from bad colds, sore throats, or infected toes.

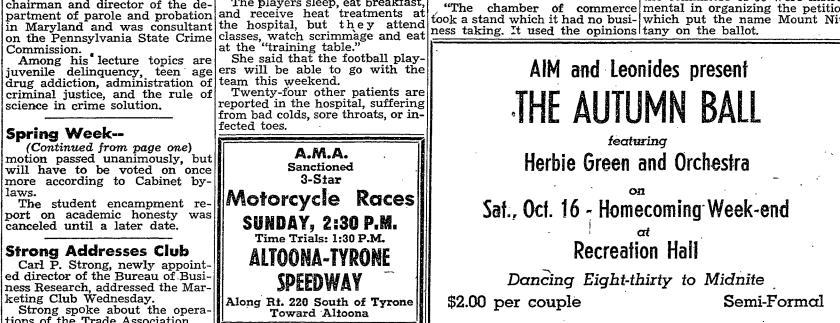

(Continued from page one) be published in the Centre Daily

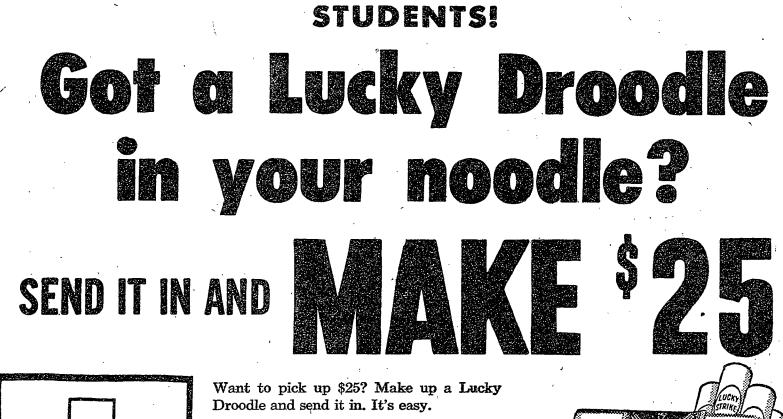

took a stand which it had no busi- which put the name Mount Nit-of a few members to represent the opinion of the group. It should have taken an impartial stand,"

he said. Gilbert L. Crossley, associate professor of electrical engineer-ing, said the chamber was out of During the remainder of the 55-minute session, residents ex-pressed their opinions as to why the name should not be changed. George Graham, retired presi-dent of the State College Area Chamber of Commerce oritizing

he chamber for its stand in the matter. "The chamber of commerce and the committee of 50 were instru-mental in organizing the petition

If you want to find out just how easy it is, ask Roger Price, creator of Droodles. "Very!" Price says. Better yet, do a Droodle yourself, like the ones shown here.

Droodle anything you like. And send in as many as you want. If we select yours, we'll pay $25 for the right to use it, together with your name, in our advertising. We're going to print plenty-and lots that we don't print will earn $25 awards.

velt Grier, and William Straub, who have been patients at the University Hospital since Monmatter.

Name Change--

Draw your Droodles any size, on any piece of paper, and send them with your descriptive titles to Lucky Droodle, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure your name, address, college and class are included.

While you're droodling, light up a Lucky -the cigarette that tastes better because it's made of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better.

DROODLES, Copyright, 1953, by Roger Price

TOASTED" S to taste better!

V

OA. T. CO. PRODUCT OF The American Tobacco Company AMERICA'S LEADING MANUFACTURER OF CHARETTER

Newest, biggest survey of smokers in colleges from coast to coast, based on 34,440 actual student interviews, shows that students prefer Luckies to all other brands. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

੶Ů੶੶Q੶੶Q੶ੑ₽⋰₽⋰₽⋰₽⋨⋬⋈⋬⋶⋶⋑⋽⋐⋐₽₽⋺⋽⋺⋳⋺⋰⋳⋍⋳⋺∊⋳⋗⋳⋺⋳⋺⋹⋺⋵⋧⋺∊⋳⋋⋳⋋⋳⋋⋳⋋⋳⋋⋳⋋⋳⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺⋺