

Dubois to Explain Error in Ribboning

An explanation of the error that occurred Friday in the release by the Dean of Women's office of sorority pledge lists to two sororities will be given to Panhellenic tonight by Mrs. Jean H. Dubois, assistant to the dean of women in charge of Panhel, Louise Moreman, council president said last night.

Council will meet at 6:30 tonight in the Alpha Xi Delta chapter room, 213 Simmons Hall.

According to the dean of women's office, the error occurred when two rushees, who had designated Kappa Alpha Theta as their first sorority choice and who were listed on Kappa Alpha Theta's preferential list, were placed on Kappa Kappa Gamma's list of fall semester pledges.

According to Miss Moreman, national Panhellenic Council will have to be notified of the matter for verification. No report had been received from the national council last night.

Mrs. Dubois declined to comment on the situation yesterday. In further action slated for tonight, the council will be given statistics on the formal fall rushing program and read the rules for informal rushing, to begin sometime this month.

Somewhere in between is the humanist theory which believes not in indoctrination but in discovery. The student is allowed to discover by himself through discussion what is right and wrong. This theory is followed in most colleges.

What should be Penn State's course of action will be discussed by the Senate Thursday when it hears the report of a committee on general education, Gwynn said.
