

Booters Win, 14-1, Set Record

1939 Mark Erased; Lions Net 7 4th-Quarter Goals

By ROY WILLIAMS

Penn State's soccer team kicked the dust off the record books Saturday to pen in a new scoring mark, humbling Bucknell, 14-1, in the season opener. The Lions' scoring spree—topped off by seven goals in the fourth quarter—crossed out a 15-year-old record set against Carnegie Tech when the Lions' racked the Titans, 13-1.

A quick look at the sheet registering the number of shots attempted by each squad almost explains how well the Lions dominated the play.

Penn State practically turned the game into a travesty in attempting 74 goals compared to Bucknell's nine.

Actually a Bucknell player enabled the Lions to set their scoring record. Late in the fourth quarter, with the score at 12-1, Vic Rosner—Bucknell halfback—accidentally tallied for Penn State when he tried to block a pass from Joe Mijares in front of the net.

Outstanding Line Play

The other 13 goals were scored by Penn State's veteran line which played havoc with the Bisons' defense. Captain Jack Pinezich led the Lions with four goals, and Dick Packer, a junior sensation at the center forward slot, netted three.

Tom Nute, sophomore newcomer to the Lions' roster, and Dick Matacia each scored two goals; Mert Springer and Joe Mijares also scored.

The Lions managed to hold Bucknell scoreless until the fourth quarter. Aaron Clark, a substitute lineman, finally stopped Penn State's bid to shutout Bucknell for the fourth straight year with a goal at 8:32. Clark rifled the ball past the unguarded Lion net when goalie George Geczy moved out in a futile attempt to stop the play.

First Lion Score

Packer started the parade of Lion scores midway in the first period with a ten-yard boot at 13:31. Pinezich scored two minutes later on a penalty kick.

Nearly nine minutes elapsed before Pinezich chalked up his second goal in a spectacular play. The classy lineman attempted a goal, but it was partially blocked by the Orange and Black goalie; Pinezich, however, carried by the momentum of his initial kick plastered the ball into the Bucknell goal, then slipped, and slithered under the net just missing serious injury.

With two minutes left in the first half, Packer passed to Nute who scored his first varsity goal to give the Lions a 4-0 lead.

While the Lion halfbacks continually snagged Bucknell's passing attempts in their effort to open an offensive attack, the Lions pierced the Bison's defense in the third quarter for 18 shots. Springer, Matacia, and Pinezich scored on three of those attempts to boost Penn State's lead to 7-0.

The final stanza was a tragic nightmare for Bucknell Coach Henry Peters, who suffered his fourth loss by a Penn State team.

Lions Drop To Twelfth

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Oklahoma profited by idleness over the weekend, missing a plague of upsets, and recaptured first place today in The Associated Press College football poll. Beaten Notre Dame tumbled from first to eighth.

Purdue, 27-14 conqueror of the fighting Irish in one of the season's biggest surprises, rose from 19th to fifth place. Ohio State at tenth became the only other newcomer to the top ten on the strength of its 21-13 triumph over California.

Dropping out were Maryland, last year's national champion, which fell from sixth to 13th after bowing to UCLA 12-7, and Penn State, which dropped two notches from tenth for no apparent reason. Penn State beat Syracuse 13-0 for its second victory.

Following Oklahoma in the first bracket were: UCLA, No. 2; Wisconsin, No. 3; Iowa, No. 4; Purdue, No. 5; Duke, No. 6; Mississippi, No. 7; Notre Dame, No. 8; Southern California, No. 9; Ohio State, No. 10.

The second ten in order: Rice, Penn State, Maryland, Florida, Texas, West Virginia, Stanford, Minnesota, and Navy and Virginia tied.

The entire forward wall scored for Penn State.

Pinezich tallied for the fourth time at 4:15. Four minutes later Bucknell scored its only goal to change the score to 8-1. Packer scored his second and third goals on a five-yard head shot and ten-yard boot.

Matacia and Nute then collected their second scores to push the Lions lead to 12-1. Mijares, a scrappy linesman who played a brilliant all-around game, added the final point to Penn State's ledger with 46 seconds left in the final period after Bucknell's lineman scored a goal for the Lions.

	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	Final
Penn State	2	2	3	7	14
Bucknell	0	0	0	1	1

Scoring: State—Pinezich 4, Packer 3, Matacia 2, Nute 2, Springer, Mijares. (Bucknell score one for Penn State). Bucknell—Clark.

IF

you can get your car into Jack Wimmer's Sunoco for Lube-Oil change and Anti-freeze before the "big freeze," we will knock 10% off the entire ticket, except gasoline. This way we can do a much more careful job than the night it freezes, and customers are waiting in line. And at the same time we will tighten water hoses to make sure you don't lose that precious stuff

JACK WIMMER'S SUNOCO
502 East College Avenue

THE VICTORY DINER

... is always open

PIZZA PIE

Italian and American Foods

Sam Capparelli, owner
AD 7-3646
N. Atherton St.
(Just past the Boro Line)

From This Angle...

By DICK McDOWELL
Collegian Sports Editor

SYRACUSE POST MORTEM

The 32nd football game in the long Penn State-Syracuse rivalry may not have been as colorful as many in the past, but it had its moments.

Football, whether played in the southwest or the east still evolves around the fundamentals. They still win football games.

Penn State's tackling, blocking, and defensive line play was a beautiful thing to see Saturday. The Nittanies won the game—a more important win than it actually appears—on the strength of these fundamentals. The Orange could make only 67 yards on the ground and 24 through the air ways, while the Nittanies ground out 188 and two touchdowns.

Ron Younker's 50-yard punt return in the third period produced some of the finest down field blocking we've seen in any football game. Jim Garrity, Chuck Sowers, Earl Shumaker, and Don Bailey all took a crack at Syracuse defenders while Younkers sped down the right side line.

Rip Engle appeared happier Saturday than he did following the Illinois game.

"It was a big one to win," he said, "and we're certainly happy about it."

"The boys made a lot of mistakes," he added, "but they weren't fundamental mistakes. They were mechanical errors and you can't do anything about them. Maybe we have the fumbles and missed passes out of our system now."

Engle's biggest worry about this one seemed to concern his team's mental condition. The win against Illinois was a big one and Engle knew how tough the Orange could be at bleak Archbold Stadium, scene of so many Penn State Waterloos.

But the win apparently erased all fears.

As in the Illinois game, several breaks Saturday could have given the Lions two or three more touchdowns. Don Bailey, who is fast proving himself a more than adequate replacement for Tony Rados, had some bad luck in his passing. He saw two of his passes dropped that were labeled touchdown.

And the Nittanies were well on their way to another score in the third quarter when Lenny Moore fumbled on the 13 yard line.

the ideal cloth that stands out in any company

HARRIS TWEED

made from pure virgin Scottish wool spun, hand-woven and finished in the Outer Hebrides

Discerning men on campus always choose HARRIS TWEED—the ideal cloth for outdoor and informal wear! They prefer the colorful, ruggedly-masculine patterns, the superb way it drapes and tailors. They know through years of rough wear, it will never lose its shape. The crofter-weaver creates this tweed in his own home and no two pieces are exactly alike. See the new weaves and designs in HARRIS TWEED at your local college store.

HARRIS TWEED
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Look for this certification mark on cloth and label!

The Harris Tweed mark is owned and administered by The Harris Tweed Association Ltd., London, England.

U.S. inquiries may be directed to SUITE 904, 110 E. 42nd St., New York 17

Suit on 13 Teams Continued in Court

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 (AP)—Trial of a 12 million dollar anti-trust suit against 13 major league baseball clubs has been continued in U.S. District court until Jan. 3, attorneys said today.

The case first was filed Feb. 21, 1952, by the now bankrupt Liberty Broadcasting System of Dallas, and after a series of continuances was reset for trial Oct. 13, 1954.

The suit names all major league teams except the Brooklyn Dodgers, Cincinnati Redlegs and Chicago White Sox.

Ohio State will oppose Penn State in football in 1956 for the first time since 1912.

"The Sentimental Gentleman"

TOMMY DORSEY

and his Orchestra

THOSE * FABULOUS DORSEYS *

FEATURING * JIMMY DORSEY *
"World's Greatest Saxophonist"

at the

Junior Prom

November 5

9 p.m. - 1 a.m.

Rec Hall

Semi-Formal

$5.00 Per Couple

Get Your Date Now!