

Sunday Dress Rule Approved By WD Council

West Dorm Council last night approved dress rule for Sunday dinner meals, stating that coats and ties are required dress for the Sunday noon meal. The ruling will be enforced starting this Sunday.

Nomination for council offices will be made at the council's next meeting on Monday. On Oct. 14 final elections for vice president, secretary, and treasurer are scheduled. Each officer will need a majority vote and will remain in office for one year.

Committee chairmen appointed are: Diel Moon, elections; John Carlson, food and menu; and Bill Robb, publicity.

President Stanley Juris emphasized to the council that women are not allowed in the West Dorm units, except during Mother's Day. Women are allowed to enter the lounges.

Quiet hours will be enforced. The council members were asked by Juris to cooperate in the ruling. Food complaint forms are to be given out within a few weeks.

Metals Society to Meet

The local chapter of the American Society for Metals will meet at 7:30 tonight at Delta Sigma Phi.

After the showing of a football movie, refreshments will be served.

MI Elections Will Choose 4

Two freshmen and two junior representatives will be elected to the Mineral Industries Student Council the latter part of October. MI students wishing to run for council may nominate themselves.

Appointed to the elections committee were Bruce Leiske, Lewis Wade, and Arthur Miller. James Hartsock, Wade, and Miller were chosen for the finance committee. Edwin Tocker will have charge of the shingles and key committees.

The scholarship committee is made up of Richard Taglang and Lyle Barnard. Hartsock and James Varshay were selected to the coffee hour committee.

Frakes to Speak To Belles Lettres

James R. Frakes, instructor in English composition, will speak on the general appeal of the works of Edgar Allan Poe at a meeting of the Belles Lettres club at 7 tonight in N.E. Atherton hall.

Besides the talk and discussion, a dramatic reading of "The Tell-Tale Heart" and two poems will be given by Morton Slakoff, sixth semester arts and letters major.

This program is part of the opening meeting of the club, which is sponsored by the Department of English Literature. The meeting is open to the public.

Election Date Set For Town Council

Election of representatives to the Association of Independent Men Town Council will be held at 7 tonight in 107 Willard. Donald Weidner, president, said yesterday.

Nominations from only seven of the 19 wards were made at a meeting last Tuesday. However, additional nominations may be made preceding the elections tonight, Weidner announced. In very few wards has more than one student been nominated.

LA Elections For Freshmen Are Announced

Elections for freshmen to Liberal Arts Student Council will be held the fourth week in October. Watson Leese, president, announced last night at the first meeting of the council.

Self-nominations will be held the week prior to elections. Freshmen desiring to be nominated for council will be required to obtain petitions signed by 25 members of the Liberal Arts College.

Co-chairmen of the elections committee are Elizabeth Engel and Richard Schriger. Council members decided to send post cards to LA freshmen to notify them of the time for nominations and elections.

Larry Adler, chairman of the coffee hours committee, reported that no dormitory facilities are available for coffee hours at the present time. Several suggestions were made for possible locations. A report will be given at the next meeting on Monday as to securing one of the suggested locations.

Nancy Seiler was appointed by Leese to be the council representative to the University Christian Association.

Margaret McClain, editor of the LA magazine, requested that the name of the magazine be changed from the "LA Lantern" to the "Lantern" with "published by the College of Liberal Arts" also stated on the cover.

The council discussed the possibility of providing a scholarship award for a deserving Liberal Arts student. The discussion was tabled until the council knows definitely the amount of money available for this project.

Speech Society to Hold Mixer in Grange Hall

Sigma Alpha Eta, national speech and hearing honorary society, will hold a mixer at 7 tonight in the Grange Dormitory playroom to acquaint students with the opportunities in the field of speech correction.

Eugene T. MacDonald, director of the speech and hearing clinic, will speak.

Members of the speech clinic staff will demonstrate some of the different types of speech defects.

Prof to Speak on Spain

E. Willard Miller, professor of geography, will speak on present day Spain to the Penn State Geographical Society at 7:30 tonight in 218 Mineral Science.

Slides of Spain will also be shown. Anyone may attend the meeting.

Debate Candidates To Tryout Tonight

Candidates for the men's debate squad who cannot be present at tryouts tomorrow because of the Jewish holidays may try out at 7 tonight in 316 Sparks.

Candidates must give a five-minute talk on either side of the intercollegiate debate topic, "Resolved: That the U.S. should extend diplomatic recognition to the communist government of China."

Two Football Players Are Hospitalized

Two football players, end Jesse Arnette and guard Pete Petroff, are hospitalized at the University hospital from injuries suffered in the Syracuse game.

Arnette, a night patient, is suffering from minor sprained wrist, while Petroff is confined with a sprained ankle.

Both are able to attend classes and sit in on practice sessions.
