

Virginia, Cornell to Test Lion Teams Tomorrow

By DICK McDOWELL

Penn State and Virginia will dig up a 61-year-old rivalry, dormant since 1893, when the two teams meet tomorrow at Beaver Field. The Lions and the Cavaliers met for their one and only game at Virginia in October of 1893 and the Lions won it 6-0.

However, tomorrow's contest will be the first complete game played. The first one was stopped after ten minutes of the second half when a riot broke out on the field.

Cavalier coach Ned McDonald, won't be looking for any riots tomorrow but he and his southern squad promise to make a good bid to knock off the high stepping Lions, seeking their third straight win of the season.

Lions Favored

The Nittanies, favored heavily in this one, will make their home debut in the wake of two big wins against Illinois and Syracuse. Warm weather has been predicted and a crowd of about 20,000 is expected for the opener.

The Lions were hampered by rainy weather all week and got in their heavy workout yesterday. Coach Rip Engle will put the squad through a light workout this afternoon and then it will embark for the now famous mountain highway, "Hate-to-Leave-it," until tomorrow morning.

Engle said yesterday that one or two changes may be made in his lineup this week. Chuck Sowers will move into the left guard spot in place of Pete Petroff, still nursing a leg injury. Three other positions are undecided. Either Don Balthaser or Frank Reich will be at center and Jim Garrity or Jack Sherry will handle the left end duties, and either Bill Straub or Chuck Blockson will be at fullback.

Garrity and Balthaser, co-captains, have seen extensive action in both games, but both players are still under wraps from early training injuries. Straub and Blockson have both seen heavy work at fullback.

Rest Unchanged

The rest of the Penn State lineup remains unchanged from last week. Jesse Arnelle will be at right end, Otto Kneidinger at right tackle, Earl Shumaker at right guard, and Rosey Grier at left tackle.

Lenny Moore and Ron Younker get the nod at the halfbacks and Don Bailey will be at quarterback.

The Virginia squad is scheduled to arrive in State College at 3 p.m. by bus and will work out at Beaver Field at 4 p.m. The Virginia party will set up headquarters at the Penn Belle Hotel in Bellefonte.

The game marks the first of four home contests scheduled for the Lions. Next week they meet West Virginia in the homecoming game, and later return home to play Rutgers and Holy Cross.

Radio Station WMAJ will broadcast the game with Bob Prince doing the play-by-play. Game time is 2 p.m.

Fisherman Captures Realization Stakes

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—Fisherman, C. V. Whitney's game little brown horse, ran away from his rivals down the stretch to win the 62nd running of the historic Lawrence Realization Stakes at Belmont Park today.

Fisherman, who first took the lead on the back stretch, then fell behind, came on again over the last quarter mile and was three lengths ahead of the Wheatley Stable's Full Flight as he swept under the wire.

DANCING & FLOOR SHOW
Saturday, Oct. 9
 Featuring the
3 Ds
HOLIDAY INN
 Route 350 4 Mi. So. Philipsburg
 Philipsburg 957151

By HERM WEISKOPF

A veteran Cornell cross-country team will be on hand to battle the Lions at Ithaca, N.Y., tomorrow when the Nittany harriers try to rebound from a loss in their opening meet of the season.

Cornell trampled Colgate 15-44 Saturday on the Big Red's new course. Seven veterans from last year's meet with Penn State will be gunning to give the Lions their second straight loss of the campaign. Penn State lost to Navy and Villanova Saturday in the season's opener.

Don Farley and John Rosenbaum, Cornell's two mainstays last year, are back again this season. This duo finished in a fourth place tie in last year's meet with the Lions when Penn State swamped the Big Red last season, 19-39. Farley came in first in the Colgate meet with a 28:08 for Cornell's new 4.7 mile course. Rosenbaum crossed the finish in second place at 28:47.

Cornell Sweeps

Cornell made a sweep of the top five positions in the Colgate encounter, with Loberg and Browne tying Rosenbaum for the number two spot and Trayford finishing fifth. Taft and Secor were ninth and tenth for the Big Red. These runners competed against Penn State last year.

Jim McKelvey will captain the Nittany harriers tomorrow. He finished 14th in last year's meet with Cornell. Doug Moorhead, who came in first at Annapolis on Saturday, is the Lions' top runner so far. The Nittany speedster was in a three way tie for first against Cornell last season.

Pastorius Sixth at Navy

Jim Pastorius, Ted Garret, Don Mowry, and Jim McKelvey, the other Lions to finish in the scoring in the Navy-Villanova triangular meet, will also be running at Ithaca. Sixth place in that race went to Pastorius with a clocking of 21:52 for Navy's four-mile layout.

Garrett was eighth with a 22:07 time. Mowry and McKelvey finished 13th and 15th. Only the first five men to finish for each team are counted in the scoring, with one point going to the first place man, two to the second place runner, and so on.

After tomorrow's meet the Lions will return home for their first encounter on the local front. Michigan State, last year's Big Ten and IC4A titlists, will provide the opposition. Werner's team edged the Spartans last season, 25-30, and finished third in the IC4A championship race.

Like his predecessor, Elmer Gross, Penn State basketball coach John Egli is a Purple Heart veteran.

Booters Change Game Time To See Football

The Nittany Lion soccermen are evidently ardent football fans. At the request of the Penn State players, officials of both Army and Penn State teams have agreed to move up the starting time of their regularly scheduled contest on Oct. 30, to noon. The contest was originally scheduled for 2 p.m., but the Lion players requested the change so that they would be able to watch the Penn State-Penn football game on television.

Giant Players Get $11,000 For Series Win

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—Twenty-eight players on the New York Giants plus their trainer and their clubhouse attendant received a record $11,147.90 each for winning the World Series.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick announced the breakdown today for 327 players and club personnel on eight teams who participated in the all-time high in World Series money.

A full Giants' share was $2867.22 more than the previous record payoff to the New York Yankees in 1953.

The Cleveland share was $6712.50 each, a record for a loser. The Indians cut their melon into 35½ shares—34 full shares, 1 half share and 4 quarter shares—and also gave out $8600 in cash. The Giants divided 32 1/6 shares—30 full shares, 3 half shares and 2 one-third shares—and doled out $11,750 in gifts.

In all the players' share of the total World Series receipts was a record $881,763.72, including $83,000 for a pre-game television program.

The players get 60 per cent of the receipts of the first four games. Of this 70 per cent goes to the participating teams, 15 per cent to the teams which finished second, 10 per cent to the third place teams, and 5 per cent to the fourth place finishers.

For the first time since 1912, Penn State and Ohio State will collide on the gridiron at Columbus, O., in 1955.

Lions First in East For Second Week

Penn State's unbeaten football team holds down first place in the Lambert Trophy Committee's second weekly ratings. The Lions, tops in the east for the second straight week, according to the committee, were given 987 out of a possible 1000 points.

The Nittanies gained the top position last week with their smashing upset over Illinois. The past weekend's 13-0 shutout victory over Syracuse was enough to keep them number one in the east.

Colgate owns a two-point margin over Navy for second place honors with 985 points.

Boston College, in second place, two points shy of the Lions' 986 total of last week, dropped to fourth place, followed by Army. The remainder of the top ten includes Boston University, Yale, Princeton, Pitt, and Syracuse.

WRA Results

BADMINTON

League 1

Delta Delta Delta over Thompson 1 and 2

Alpha Omicron Pi over Alpha Xi Delta

League 2

Alpha Chi Omega over Pi Beta Phi

Delta Gamma over Chi Omega

League 3

Sigma Sigma Sigma over Zeta Tau Alpha

Alpha Gamma Delta over Phi Mu

League 4

Beta Sigma Omicron over Delta Zeta

Sigma Delta Tau over Alpha Kappa Alpha

Bell Directs NFL to Check Rough Tactics

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7 (AP)—National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell today sent a directive to referees and coaches in the pro league "reemphasizing" the rules governing rough play.

The directive, which Bell ordered read by referees to their crew of officials and by coaches to players said:

"Any use of the forearm, elbows or knees shall be penalized under the unnecessary roughness rule and any striking of an opponent or malicious unnecessary roughness shall be penalized under the same rule and the player disqualified.

The move is an outgrowth of last Sunday's 24-24 tie game between the San Francisco 49ers and the Los Angeles Rams. Forty-Niners' supporters charged that dirty play by the Rams resulted in injuries to two of their players.

Bob Hicks, newly-appointed Juniata College football coach, co-captained the 1949 Penn State football team.

FOOTBALL

FRIDAY, OCT. 8, 1954

7:30 P.M.

LEWISTOWN HIGH

versus

STATE COLLEGE HIGH

Student Admission 50c

Show Matriculation Card

AIM and Leonides present

THE AUTUMN BALL

featuring

Herbie Green and Orchestra

on

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

at

Recreation Hall

Dancing Eight-thirty to Midnite

$2.00 per couple

Semi-Formal

TICKETS FOR SALE AT STUDENT UNION

GRAHAM & SONS

The Old Reliable
 Friendly Store For 58 Years

The First National Bank

of State College

Member of

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Federal Reserve System