

Ticket Sales End Tomorrow For Forum

Tomorrow is the last day of the Community Forum season ticket drive but tickets may be purchased until the first program Nov. 9, Samuel Crabtree Jr., ticket chairman, said yesterday.

Season tickets are priced at $4.-40 for the five programs and may be purchased at the Student Union desk in Old Main and Griggs Pharmacy on E. College avenue.

Speakers for this season are Clifton Fadiman on Nov. 9, Agnes Moorehead, Dec. 6, Carlos Romulo, Jan. 13, James Hepbron, Feb. 15, and a bonus speaker to be announced later.

Fadiman will open the season with an evening of selections he calls "readaloudables," collected during his quarter of a century career as a magazine writer, author, essayist, critic, and radio and television entertainer.

Miss Moorehead will present "That Fabulous Redhead," directed by Charles Laughton, which will include her interpretations of works ranging from Bible passages to famous letters, William Shakespeare to James Thurber, and dramatic masterpieces to a radio mystery play.

Gen. Carlos Romulo, former UN General Assembly president, will present a report on interna-

The Wild One? Parolee Continues Violent Conduct

Harry Waterloo, the 18-year-old parole violator who was originally committed to jail for disorderly conduct, continued to conduct himself disorderly in the Centre County jail by attacking a fellow inmate.

Previous to this his outbreaks of rebellion had been confined to various smashings of the furniture, lights, windows, and plaster in his cell, and twisting heavy pipes to break the lock on his cell door.

In his most recent attempt at violence Waterloo jumped out of bed, grabbed the light cord, and said something about killing someone. When his cellmate attempted to quiet him, he was attacked.

A bench warrant was received today from Philadelphia County where Waterloo is wanted as a parole violator. He will be taken to Philadelphia not later than tomorrow.

tional affairs and the Western role in supporting the free peoples of the eastern world.

Hepbron, who served as consultant to the Kefauver crime investigating committee will speak from 30 years of experience in crime prevention and detection, combatting juvenile delinquency, and police administration problems

Concert Ticket Deadline Set For Tomorrow

The sale of tickets for the Community Concert series will close at noon tomorrow.

David H. McKinley, campaign chairman, said last night that some memberships are still available at the headquarters, 204 Old Main.

The quota of 1215 tickets, the seating capacity of Schwab Auditorium where the concerts are held, was sold out before noon of the third day of the campaign last year, McKinley said. Sales this year have been much slower.

The local committee for the Community Concert Association will meet at the close of the campaign to plan the program for the series this year. The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra has already been booked, but the definite date of its appearance has not been set. Other numbers and dates will be arranged by the committee.

McKinley urged student workers to report promptly to 204 Old Main on memberships sold.

ICCB Names Bell Chairman In Close Vote

Donald Bell, president of the College of Physical Education and Athletics' Student Council was elected chairman of Inter-College Council Board last night.

Bell was opposed by Richard Favro, president of the Business college Student Council. He was elected by a five-four vote.

Barbara Foss, president of the College of Chemistry and Physics' Student Council, was elected vice-chairman.

She was opposed by Andrew Stavres, president of the Home Economics' Student Council. The vote was again five-four.

Sarah Lessig, president of the College of Education's Student Council was unanimously elected secretary.

The board also adopted a new constitution. The constitution stipulates that ICCB must remain a non-political student organization with no legislative powers.

The purposes of the council are: (1) to co-ordinate joint activities of the various student councils; (2) to promote complete co-ordination and co-operation between all councils and colleges; (3) to co-ordinate ideas concerning the various college councils; (4) to establish better student-faculty relations; (5) to promote ICCB on campus through various tech-

Got a Lucky Droodle in your noodle?

SEND IT IN AND

MAKE $25

FIREPOLE FOR FALSE ALARMS

MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN TURKEY ACCOMPANIED BY VERY UGLY FRIEND

Want to pick up $25? Make up a Lucky Droodle and send it in. It's easy.

If you want to find out just how easy it is, ask Roger Price, creator of Droodles. "Very!" Price says. Better yet, do a Droodle yourself, like the ones shown here.

Droodle anything you like. And send in as many as you want. If we select yours, we'll pay $25 for the right to use it, together with your name, in our advertising. We're going to print plenty—and lots that we don't print will earn $25 awards.

Draw your Droodles any size, on any piece of paper, and send them with your descriptive titles to Lucky Droodle, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure your name, address, college and class are included.

While you're droodling, light up a Lucky—the cigarette that tastes better because it's made of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better.
