Today's Weather: Cloudy and Warmer

Attend Clique Meetings See Page 4

FOR A BETTER PENN STATE

VOL. 55, No. 18

STATE COLLEGE, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 9, 1954

FIVE CENTS

Today Gridders Meet Virginia

Clique Conferences Set for Tomorrow By Campus Parties

State and Lion Parties will hold their first clique meetings of the year at 7 p.m. tomorrow. The State Party will meet in 10 Sparks and the Lion Party in 121 Sparks.

Both meetings are open to all students. Preliminary nomi Both meetings are open to an students. I remain nations for class clique officers will be held at the meetings. Will Speak In order to become a member

30 Freshmen Will Parade Before Game

Approximately 30 freshman customs violators will entertain fotoball fans with pots, pans, and cow bells in pre-game activities today. The "band," organized by Freshman Customs Board, will march up to Beaver Field at 1:15 p.m. today.

About 20 metrics to membership lists provided by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the Oct. 25 meetings.

Students Can Switch Party

Students Who attend a party meeting tomorrow and later dependence on the program at 7 p.m. on Wednesday in 105 Agriculture. His talk will deal with parliamentary procedure. Emory J. Brown, assistant professor of rural sociology, recently spoke on "How to Plan Interesting Programs" at the first meeting of the program series. Brown will speak to the program series are provided by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on this list will be admitted to the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on the organized by the elections committee. Only those whose names appear on the organized by the organi p.m. today.

About 20 violators will march behind the band wearing customs

Custom violators who will march in the parade are to meet at Nittany 20 at 1 p.m. today to assemble for the parade to the stadium, Hugh Cline, co-chairman of the Freshman Cus-toms Board, said last night.

violations signs. Violators were charged with not wearing dress customs or not participating in the two-week customs program.

Alfred Klimcke, third semester journalism major, will give his for men, vice-clique chairman for WDFM to Audition first performance in the Penn women, secretary, and treasurer. State Nittany Lion suit when he Freshmen must wear their dinks to the game in order to be admit-ted to Beaver Field. Names of frosh who have lost their dinks will be checked on a master list at the gates. eVterans must have their draft cards with them to be admitted to the game.

Forum Tickets to Be On Sale Until Nov. 9

Although the Community Forum ticket sale drive ends today, tickets may be purchased until the first performance Nov. 9 at the Student Union desk or at Nittany Lion shrine during at the gates. Veterans must have

Tickets are $4.40 for the five programs which will include Clifton Fadiman, Agnes Moorehead, Carlos Romulo, James Hepbron, and a bonus speaker to be announced later.

Traffic Changes Enacted for Game

Traffic regulations in State College and on campus will be enforced this afternoon by police and the campus patrol because of the anticipated crowd for the Penn State-Virginia football game.

After the game only one way traffic going west will be per-mitted on College avenue between Atherion and McAllister streets.

Students and townspeople have been requested to refrain from parking their cars around Recreation Hall, Beaver Field, and on the east side of North Allen sireet from Park avenue to Hillcrest avenue. Limited parking only will be allowed on Burrowes street.

Nobel Peace Prize Omitted This Year

OSLO, Norway, Oct. 8 (P)-The Nobel Peace Prize is going begging this year-in one of the most peaceful periods the world has had in the last two decades.

The Norwegian Nobel Committee announced today the prize will not be awarded in 1954. It offered no reason. The committee years, goes after its third Dickerson of a clique a student must attend one of tomorrow's meetings or subsequent meetings next Sunday.

Russell B. Dickerson, associate dean of the Agriculture College and director of resident instruc-Oct. 25 when candidates for the freshman and sophomore class of-fices will be chosen.

Students attending the meet-ings tomorrow will sign their on Wednesday in 105 Agriculture.

fessor of rural sociology, recently spoke on "How to Plan Interest-

Final nominations for class clique officers will be held next Sunday night.

The leadership training program is sponsored by the Agricultural Student Council for the benefit of the officers of the agricultural clubs, club advisers, and persons interested in agricultural leadership.

women, secretary, and treasurer. The State Party will accept nominations for class clique posiStudents who wish to au appears in the parade.

The parade will assemble at Pollock road and Nittany dorm more classes. The positions are classes. The positions are classes. The positions are pus radio station, should apply at 306 Sparks before Oct. 20.

Auditions will be held Sunday as announcers for WDFM, cam-chairman, secretary, treasurer, and (Continued on page eight)

tice of issuing a list of nominees. Governments and individual organizations can make nominations

Others who have won the honor in recent years include Cordell Hull, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche and the American Friends Service Committee.

Under the will of Alfred Nobel the prize is assigned to the candi-date "who has worked the most and best for promoting brotherthe Oct. 25 meetings.

Students Can Switch Party
Students who attend a party meeting tomorrow and later decide to switch their affiliation may do so by attending the other party's meeting next Sunday.
Such students must have their names stricken from the
the first meeting Programs' at the first meeting Programs at the first meeting Oblition of reduction of reduction of reduction and spread of peace congresses.

The will of the inventor of dynamit also establishment and spread of peace congresses.

The will of the inventor of the will speak of the w named by the Norwegian Parliament. Its members are Gunnar Jahn, former director of the national bank; Martin Tranmael, socialist editor; G. Natvig Pedersen, former president of Parliament; Carl J. Hambro, Conservative par-ty leader; and Mrs. Aase Lionaes, an editor.

Cabinet Reports Ready

Members of All-University Cab-Inet may pick up reports for next Remain on Sale Auditions will be held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 24.

Auditions will be held Sunday bers should bring the reports with them to the cabinet market. Student Union desk in Old Main

Lions Are

By DICK McDOWELL

Penn State's football team, off to its best start in five has discontinued its former prac-|straight win today against the University of Virginia at Beaver Field.

ganizations can make nominations for the $35,000 prize.

The prize was omitted also in 1948. While there was no award in 1952 itself, the committee last year designated Dr. Albert Schweitzer to receive the 1952 prize and Gen. George C. Marshall for the award for 1953.

Hull Recent Winner
Others who have won the honor.

Game time is 2 p.m.

The rampaging Nittanies, vicors over Illinois and Syracuse in their first two games—are three touchdown favorites in this one. Virginia is a surprise itself here

Radio station WMAJ will broadcast the game with air time at 1:45 p.m. Bob Prince and Bob Davis will do the play-by-in the early stages of the season, boasting an unblemished record boasting an unblemished record in two starts, with wins against Lehigh and George Washington. But coach Ned McDonald's team doesn't figure ot stack up too well against the Lions, although he does own a pair of dangerous backs in fullback Herman Gatling and halfback Henry Strempek. Both were instrumental in the Cayaliers' upset victory over Cavaliers' upset victory over George Washington last week.

(Continued on page six)

Concert Tickets

A few tickets for the Community Concert series will be available until 9:30 a.m. today in 304 Old Main, William F. Christoffer, treasurer of the Community Concert Association, said last

The sale has been very successful, a spokesman at sales head-quarters in Old Main said yester-

The local committee for the association will meet at 9:30 a.m. today to plan the schedule of performances for the season. At least four concerts will be scheduled.

The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra has already been booked, since a year's notice is necessary to obtain a symphony orchestra. The date of its appearance as well as names and dates of the other concerts will be announced next

$9200 Given To University

Shares of stock, valued at more than $9200, have been presented to the University by John P. Kerrick, Olean, N.Y., for use of the Edwin L. Drake Memorial scholarships.

Herrick, an oil producer and author, established the scholar-ship fund two years ago with a gift of $27,500.

Income from the fund supports two scholarships awarded annually to students in the College of Mineral Industries who are interested in the study of geology, mineralogy, or petroleum engi-neering and who need financial

Protect

By PHYL PROPERT

Lion Party Nominations

The Lion Party will hold nomi-nations for class clique positions in all the classes at their meeting. The positions are class clique chairman, v i c e - clique chairman

Only clique members will be admitted to nomination meetings

Fifty tired Pershing Riflemen were relieved of an unusual tour of duty this morn-two six hour shifts last night.

The men guarded the shrine to prevent vandalism by fans of the Cavaliers from Virginia who will be State's opponents on Beaver Field this afternoon. The group of men who so valiantly defended their Nittany Lion are not as well known as they should be, considering their sacrifice of six hours of sleep.

The Pershing Rifles drill team was founded by Gen. John J. Pershing in 1894. In 1892, Pershing was an ambitious lieutenant at the University of Nebraska, then a small college on the prair-ies which was struggling for academic recognition against odds of lack of funds and cramped quar-

Lieutenant Pershing was strugg-ling with a small drill unit rather haphazardly organized. In order to have a model for the quality of drilling he wanted, he selected from the regiment the men he be-

-Photo by Smith

PERSHING RIFLE MEMBERS guarded the Lion Shrine last night and early this morning against would-be attackers from the University of Virginia. In the past the shrine has been subjected to many abuses from visiting fans prior to the game.

from the regiment the men he believed to most proficient in drill and asked them to form a crack drill organization that would be an example to the rest of the drill unit.

In 1895, when Lieutenant Pershing Rifles in recognishing was transferred from the grew to national proportions com-