

Clique Races Start In Campus Parties

Campus political parties officially began work toward fall class elections Sunday night with organizational clique meetings. Nominations were opened for freshman and sophomore class officers in the State Party and for all class clique officers in the Lion Party. Clique officer's election and preliminary freshman and sophomore class candidates nomination will be held Sunday.

Lion Party

Six men were nominated for class clique chairmen positions at the Lion Party clique meeting Sunday night. Approximately 200 students attended the meeting.

Sunday's nominations are not final. The final nominations and elections of class clique officers will be held next Sunday.

Four men were nominated for freshman class clique chairman. They are Milton Kaffs, Craig Kaufman, Edward Long, and Charles Rusk.

Robert Howe and Robert Kurtz were nominated for sophomore class clique chairman and junior class clique chairman.

No Senior Nominations

There were no nominations for senior class clique chairman or the other class clique positions. These positions are vice-clique chairman for men, vice-clique chairman for women, secretary, and treasurer of all the classes.

Gordon Pogal, clique chairman, urged the group to consider possible candidates and nominate them at the clique's meeting Sunday.

Pogal also expressed dissatisfaction with the registration system employed by the elections committee. He said it was very disorganized and slowed the start of the meeting. The meeting began 15 minutes behind schedule.

Famous Disagrees

Ernest Famous, chairman of the elections committee, said he thought the system worked smoothly.

The registration system was used for the first time Sunday. Students were asked to show their matriculation cards at the entrance and sign a membership list.

This list will be kept by the elections committee. Anyone whose name does not appear on the list will not be admitted to the meeting Oct. 24 when nominations for freshman and sophomore class offices will be made.

Students who did not attend Sunday's meeting may become clique members and vote at the final nominations meeting by attending next week's meeting.

May Change Parties

Those who desire to switch their party affiliation may do so Sunday by having their names stricken from their present party's list and attending the other party's meeting.

The purpose of the registration system is to eliminate any possibility of fraud, Famous said. Votes of persons whose names do not appear on the elections committee's membership list will be discounted.

Dairy Team Wins 3d Place Award

The Penn State Dairy Cattle Judging Team placed third out of fifteen teams in the International Collegiate Dairy Cattle Contest of the International Dairy Show at Chicago Saturday.

The University of Illinois placed first and Washington State College second. Penn State defeated Kansas State College and Iowa State College who had placed ahead of them at the Dairy Congress at Waterloo, Iowa.

John Harris received a model of an Ayrshire cow for placing second in the Ayrshire breed contest. Harris placed second high in the entire contest at Iowa.

Members of the team are Jacob Guffey, John Harris, Walter Wurster, and Fred Seipt.

Ed Student Council

Education Student Council will meet at 7:30 tonight in 204 Burrows Building and committee reports will be made.

Homecoming Crown Sought By 5 Finalists

Five homecoming Queen finalists have been announced by Phillip Lang, chairman of the Homecoming Queen contest committee.

Finalists are Anne Cain, Roberta Lerch, Jeanne McCloskey, Joan MacKenzie, and Glenda Rine.

The five finalists were selected by Ray Fortunato, director of Thespians; Ridge Riley, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Alumni Association; and F. F. Morris, director of personnel service. The contest is sponsored by Thespians.

The Homecoming Queen will be crowned at the Thespian show, "Funny Side Up," after selection by members of the football team.

The winner will be honored at a banquet sponsored by the alumni and will appear during half-time at the Penn State-West Virginia football game.

Miss Cain, a third semester applied arts major, is sponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta.

Phi Kappa Psi is sponsoring Miss Lerch, a third semester Home Economics major.

Miss Mackenzie, first semester arts and letters major is sponsored by Theta Xi.

Miss McCloskey, first semester education major, is sponsored by Chi Phi.

Theta Chi is sponsor of Miss Rine, fifth semester education major.

The winner's picture will be sent to the National Homecoming Queen Contest, Lang said.

Fall From Auto Injures Student

Delroy Heiser, seventh semester dairy husbandry major, is a patient at the University hospital suffering from brush burns received when he fell out of a car Saturday night. Mrs. Carol H. Burt, superintendent of the University health service, said yesterday. He is reported to have slipped on plastic seat covers against the door which was not closed tightly.

Three football players were also reported as patients at the hospital yesterday. They are James Garrity, Peter Petroff, and Earl Schumaker. These men sleep, eat breakfast, and receive heat treatments at the hospital, but they may attend classes, watch scrimmage, and eat at the "training table."

Most of the remaining 16 patients are suffering from upset stomachs due to a virus, Mrs. Burt said.

Ed Newspaper Staff

Education majors interested in working on the education newspaper may meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 128 Sparks.

Especially needed are psychology and special education majors, Barbara Scholes, editor, said. The first issue of the newspaper will be published the end of this month.

State Party

State Party freshman and sophomore class clique officers were nominated at the party's first clique meeting of the semester Sunday night. About 180 students attended.

Nominated for freshman clique chairman were David Faust, Denie McArber, Frank Jaxheimer, David Tressler, and Daniel Revie.

Other freshman nominees were vice chairman, James Robson, Richard Dose, and Robert Guy; secretary, Joan Balsanki, Beverly Dunbar, and Phyllis Hodges; and treasurer, Leslie Phillabrun and William Ault. There were no nominations for freshman secretariat.

Sophomore Nominees

The three nominees for sophomore class clique chairman were Robert Heck, Steven Jordan, and Robert Whitmore. The other sophomore nominees are vice chairman, Richard Moller and Robert Klingensmith; secretary, Barbara Shipman, Suzanne Capper, Frances Cox, and Jane Wickizer; secretariat, Patricia Jones; and treasurer, Lois Korona and Millis Mershon.

Clique chairman Rae DelleDonno announced that final class clique officers nominations and elections will be Sunday night.

Nominating Speeches

Nominating speeches for persons proposed Sunday and for those nominated next week will be given at that time, Miss DelleDonno said. She announced that these speeches and candidates' acceptance speeches will be limited to from one and a half to two minutes.

Persons need not have attended Sunday's meeting to be able to vote for clique officers.

Preliminary nominations for freshman and sophomore class candidates will take place at next week's meeting. Elections of candidates will be Oct. 24. In order to vote at the final nomination meeting, students must have attended either Sunday's meeting or the meeting next week.

Miss DelleDonno announced the appointment of Jane Foyt as senior class clique secretary and Rosemarie Mariana as senior secretariat.

Eng Student Council To Hold Discussion

The Engineering Student Council will hold a council-faculty discussion at 7:30 tonight at Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Faculty members of the College of Engineering and Architecture, members of the student council, and anyone interested in discussing the Spring Open House may attend.

Reber, Smith To Represent Nittany Council

Paul Reber, fifth semester horticulture major, and Thomas James Smith, third semester division of intermediate registration student, were nominated last night by William Johnson, president of Nittany Council, to act as council representatives-at-large to the Association of Independent Men's Board of Governors.

Council decided a council social chairman will be chosen by social chairmen, or suitable representatives, of each Nittany dormitory at 6:45 p.m. Monday in Nittany 20. The position is open to any Nittany area student.

A council recreation chairman will be chosen by Nittany dormitory athletic chairmen at 6:45 p.m. Oct. 19 in Nittany 20. This position, too, is open to all area students.

George Wills, first semester dairy husbandry major, was nominated council parliamentarian.

Council decided to have dormitory presidents, at their next dormitory meetings, discuss dormitory residents buying pencil sharpeners for use in the dormitories.

Young Demos Meeting Set for Tomorrow

A panel of three will discuss the topic "What Now?" at a meeting of the Young Democrats Club at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 217 Willard.

Participating in the discussion will be Arthur H. Reede, professor of economics; Duane V. Ramsey, instructor of sociology, and Mrs. Richard P. Barthol, executive secretary of a local democratic organization, "Volunteers for Leader."
