THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1734

TTTE DATLY COLLEGIAN, STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA

Modern Witch Casts Cat Spells

By ALICE GRUBB

Do you believe in witches? No? Then you haven't seen Players' production of John Van Druten's "Bell, Book, and Candle."

A sophisticated comedy about a modern, 20th century witch, it has completely revamped the old hag of yesterday and come up with a modern babe in a New York city apartment who exercises her magic powers with the aid of a very innocent looking siamese cat.

But "Pyewacket" is no ordinary Sheperd Henderson, an unsuspect-ing young man, into falling in whose in a witches' hostel where she can do her "brewing" in a communal kitchen. She dis-civity Women at 8 tonight at where she can do her "brewing" in a communal kitchen. She dis-civity Women at 8 tonight at AUW membership provides

But by this time he finds himself powerless to keep away from her. Witch Gets Involved

Witch Gers At this point Sheperd becomes thoroughly involved in an in-triguing world of witchcraft and meets Gillian's other relatives in the New York organization of witches. To familiarize both old and new members with programs of work-study groups within AAUW; chairmen of the groups will pre-sent reports on their projects for the current year.

chemical engineering major, is a "warlock" or male witch. He is the general pest of the family M. Long in receiving membership and delights in using his magical dues and enrolling new members. powers for practical jokes. However, Nicky is none too popular in the household for he has dis-graced himself by working for a living.

Complications Arise Complications Arise Complications arise when Sid-ney Redlitch, played by Leonard Tarnowski, eighth semester arts and letters major, an author on witchcraft, comes snooping into the organization and attempts to ling the organization and attempts to wreck Gillian's plot. "Bell, Book, and Candle," Center Stage production directed by Robert Reifsneider, associate pro-fessor of dramatics, will begin a six-week run at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Temporary Union Building. Tickets are $1.00 and are on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Co-Edits

Alpha Tau Omega

But "Pyewacket" is no ordinary cat, she is a "familiar," a witch's pet with the mystic powers of fulfilling its master's wishes. Trouble Begins The trouble begins when Gil-lian, the glamorous witch, played by Alice Petersen, fifth semester arts and letters major, bewitches Shenerd Henderson an unsuspect-

A reception will be held for members and prospective memlove with her. Miss Holroyd, played by Nancy bers of the State College branch the tabulous !! Never a wrinkle! Never a twisted seam! The shape that fits your leg! Sizes petite average tall SIMON'S 109 S. Allen Members of Alpha Tau Omega recently entertained the members of Alpha Chi Omega at the for-mer's chapter house.

production of "Funny Side Up," Saturday in Schwab Auditorium, White Hall. have been announced.

They are make-up: Jeannette Johnson, manager, Ruth Fitz, assistant manager, Faye Hidinger, Judith Koenig, Judith Singer. Carolyn Davis, Patricia McLaughlin, Sue Abell, Marian Labuskes, Marlene Chase, Nancy Schade, Catherine Carr, Betsy Sharpe, Joan Fry, and Constance Weitknecht.

Knecht. House Crew: Frank Cressman, manager, William Landis, assistant manager, Janet Stevenson, Mary Lou Moore, Jane Colces-ser, Lois Cobb, Carol Stehman, Elsa Gas-trich, Lillian Melko, Patricia Nesbit, Mary Pera, Nancy Norling, Maureen Mason, Joan Ziegler, Janet Easley, Glenda Rine, Ann Caton, Lynn Meyers, Vera Wingert, Mar-garet Leas, Betty Lu Bemus, and Sally Schellenbrig.

Lights: Sherman Franciso, manager, Caryl Newitt, assistant manager, William Furtney, Bruce Johnston, John Pershing, and Leo Tarkett.

and Leo Tarkett. Stage: Richard Hamer, manager, George Keller, assistant manager, Edwin Robinson, Alphonse Coune, Robert Misko, Thomas LaFerrara, Russel Remley, James Miller, Thomas McGrath, William Frame, and Locoph Hause

chairmen of the groups will pre-sent reports on their projects for the current year. Mrs. Arnold Addison, treasurer, will be assisted by Mrs. Charles M. Long in receiving membership dues and enrolling new members. National membership of AAUW represents 313 colleges and uni-versities and is divided into 1200 branches and 48 state divisions. Old Main.

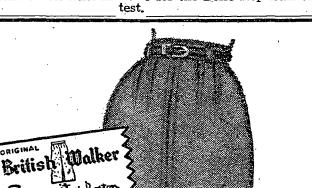

The Women's Recreation Association will play hostess to three to be presented tonight through colleges for the Northern College Sports Day at 8 a.m. Oct. 30 at

Sports Day

Ninety women from Lock Haven State Teachers' College, Bucknell University, Shippensburg State Teachers' College, and the University, will attend sports day, to be held regardless of weather conditions.

The program for the day will include games, rating of umpires for the national field hockey refereeing, and the selection of two field-hockey teams for the Cen-

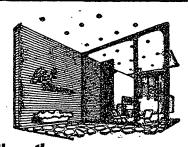

In a communal kitchen. She dis-rupts Gillian's plans by leaking to Sheperd that Gillian has be-witched him into falling in love with her just to spite his obnox-ious fiance, a former enemy of hers. Life becomes complicated for Sheperd when he discovers that the woman he loves is a witch. But by this time he finde kinet. A brief program of music of the program of music of the organiza-the woman he loves is a witch. But by this time he finde kinet. Hensel, president of the organiza-tion, said. A brief program of music will be presented by Mrs. Mildred Freiberg, pianist, who will play selections by Scarlatti, Debussy and Ravel. To familiarize both old and new members with programs of work-study g r o u p s within AAUW, chairmen of the groups will pre-sent reports on their projects for the day. Chairmen Appointed Charlotte Klippel, chairman of bara Supert, chairman of the food Committee; Shirley bara Supert, chairman of the food committee; Shirley Hartay, re-ception committee; Miriam Jones de Batricio Collegia de Colle and Patricia Olkonen, program bulletin; Janice McDonald, equip-business psychology major. He is thru the .ooking Glass

Engagements

with Gabbi

Greetings! Anybody see my one-way ticket to Whipples? Gadzooks, but this is crazy weather — no? Kinda keeps your mind off studying and more towards ideas of how to beat the heat (you old ra-tionalizer, you!) Greatest part about the temp is that cord suits are still seasonal-worst is watching football at Beaver Field and feeling like you're at the Cotton Bowl. But ETHEL'S always has cool ideas for you ...

Music to chase morning misery instead of a blaring bell to shake you out of bed at dawn, how about a tinkling music box alarm tucked away in a clock strongly resembling a miniature radio? No more will your roommate have to get a stepladder to get you off the chandelier before you reach that bothersome button. And once out of dreamland, switch the button of that neat, compact portable radio avail-able at ETHEL'S, with a great gadget to save battery blues.

Fresh as spring

