

Thespians' Review Will Open Tonight

The New Bavarian Schuhplattlers, a German folk dance group, and the 75-voice Penn State Glee Club, will present specialty acts in Thespians' "Funny Side Up" which opens at 8 tonight in Schwab Auditorium.

The annual original fall review will run through Saturday as part of Homecoming activities.

The Schuhplattlers, directed by Dorothea Ebert, seventh semester home economics major, follow the pattern of the old Bavarian folk dances, dressed in the authentic costumes of the country.

The idea was brought to Penn State four years ago by Warren Homas, a graduate of last year in engineering, who had been a member of the original group in Reading. Since then the Penn State Schuhplattlers have become well known in American folk dance circles.

Perform at Festivals

They perform each year at the folk festivals held in Recreation Hall and for the past two years have participated in the International Folk Dance Festival in Syracuse, N.Y.

The Penn State Glee Club, under the direction of Frank Gullo, associate professor of music, and assisted by Jim Burden, graduate student in music education, will serenade the Homecoming Queen with two numbers, "Honey" and "Hail, Oh, Hail."

Alumni Sponsor Tours

The club has become well known throughout the state and for the past few years alumni groups have sponsored concert tours to nearby cities. Last year the Glee Club toured Pittsburgh, Buffalo, N.Y., Elmira, N.Y., Greensburg, and Sharon.

"Funny Side Up" will run Thursday through Saturday nights in Schwab Auditorium. Tickets are still available at the Student Union desk in Old Main. They are priced at $1.00 for the Thursday performance and $1.25 for Friday and Saturday performances.

Discipline

Cabinet Committee Members

Cabinet will also be asked to form a committee composed of the nine Student Council presidents to interview applicants for membership on cabinet-appointed committees, excluding chairmen of such committees.

Robert Homan, All-University secretary-treasurer, will ask cabinet members to submit a list of not more than 30 seniors they feel should be the University representatives in "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities." The final list would be compiled by the Collegian editor and All-University vice president.

Simes Disapproved

Two weeks ago Homan asked cabinet to approve a committee of student and faculty members to make the selection for "Who's Who." This move was tabled, however, after Dean of Men Frank J. Simes asked that his name be stricken from the list. At that time he also expressed his strong personal dislike for the publication.

Homan states in his report, however, that he feels the problem lies not so much with the principles of the publication, but in the method of selection of candidates.

Plans for the use of the classroom building have not been definitely made, but it is expected to be used by all schools.

Walter H. Wiegand, director of the physical plant, said last fall that GS approval would not be long in coming. He stated that the organization had recently increased its borrowing capacity and would easily be able to finance the project.

The GSA is a corporation set up by the state of Pennsylvania as a borrowing agent.

What makes a Lucky taste better?

"IT'S TOASTED" to taste better!

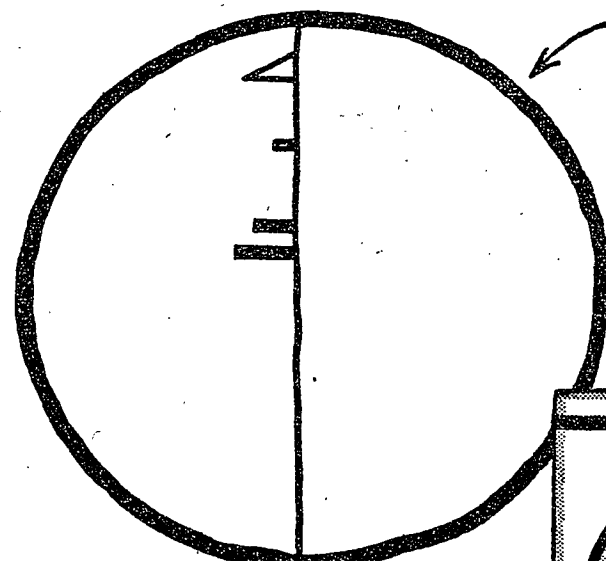

Doubtless, you've guessed that the Doodle at the right is: Careless two-gun cowboy enjoying better-tasting Lucky while waiting in ambush. Lots of other two-gun cowboys—and many millions of no-gun folks—agree that Luckies taste better. Students, for example, prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the latest, biggest coast-to-coast college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason is that Luckies taste better. They taste better because Lucky Strike is the cigarette of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.
