

Hazel Puts 'Home' in Homecoming

Few alumni arriving on campus over the weekend knew that Interfraternity Council's weekend theme for Alumni Homecoming was "There's Been Some Changes Made," at least from the weather. Probably Hurricane Hazel made them feel right at home.

Hazel, although not an alumnae of the University, will probably be long remembered for her own theme, which seemed to place the campus on Lake Cayuga or Jones Beach.

Walter H. Wiegand, director of the physical plant, said yesterday that no serious damage was reported, and that minor roof leaks and tree limb damage constituted most of the destruction.

The meteorology department recorded a total of 3.42 inches rain on Friday, and wind gusts of 57 miles an hour were felt at 4:30 p.m.

800 Alumni

Eight hundred alumni attended the buffet luncheon held in Recreation Hall Saturday noon. Alumni registration for the weekend was voluntary, and the Alumni Association office felt that the 700 who registered did not constitute an accurate figure of the actual number of alumni on campus over the weekend.

Over 32,000 tickets were sold to the Penn State-West Virginia game, breaking the figure set when Michigan State played the Nittany Lions at Beaver Field in 1951.

Phi Kappa Tau's stork never delivered Hazel to the campus, but managed to remain upright throughout the storm, copping first place in the Homecoming Lawn Display contest, sponsored by Interfraternity Council. Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Pi were second and third.

Theatrical Tickets

Theatricals presented "Funny Side Up" to audiences filling Schwab's seating capacity on both Friday and Saturday nights.

Although the Nittany Lions came out on the short end of a 19-14 score in football, both the soccer and cross-country teams were successful in defeating Syracuse and Michigan State.

The Lion soccer team turned back the Syracuse Orange 9-2, and the Spartans of Michigan State 23-26. The low score wins in cross-country meets.

Two former football coaches, Bob Higgins and the late Hugo Bezdek, were officially inducted into the National Football Hall of Fame at half-time ceremonies on Saturday.

class clique officers will stand despite the discrepancies in the balloting. These candidates were unopposed and were automatically elected.

They are Peter Bond, junior class clique treasurer; David Friedenburg, junior class clique chairman; Joetta Hall, senior class clique treasurer; Jeanne Maxwell, junior class clique secretary; Em-malyn Schwing, senior class vice-clique chairman for women; Kaye Vinson, senior class vice-clique chairman for men; Michael Walker, freshman class clique treasurer, and Barbara Will, freshman class clique chairman for women.

The remaining candidates will be re-nominated and voted on Sunday.

Nominees for junior class vice-clique chairman for men are John Albrecht, Robert Kurtz, and Irvin Liebman; sophomore vice-clique chairman for men, Richard Jamieson, and Samuel Kahn; freshman vice-clique chairman for men, Joseph Rosenfeld and Jacob Shook.

Junior class vice-clique chairman for women, Nancy Marsh, Martha Heim, and Peggy Davis; sophomore vice-clique chairmen for women, Beatrice MacDonald and Marleen Bishoff; sophomore clique secretary, Barbara Hendel officers were also elected, but they are not official since the elections were declared void. Sophomore ballots were not counted.

Those who received a majority of the votes for freshman clique officers were chairman, Donald Tressler; vice chairman, James Robson; secretary, Beverly Dunbar; and treasurer, Lester Phillibaum. There were no nominations for secretariat. Miss DelleDonne announced that the post would be filled by appointment at a later date.
