House To Investigate Meal Ticket Situation

A committee to investigate the meal ticket situation in the women's dormitories, was appointed by Kaye Kingsley, speaker of the House of Representatives of the Women's Student Government Association, last night.

Several members of the House said there was much general dissatisfaction concerning the handling of meal tickets. It is a policy of the dining hall service that women who have lost their meal ticket must purchase a new ticket immediately.

Miss Kingsley suggested this matter be taken before the WSGA Senate and appointed Anne Beebe, Sue Conway, and Joan Clark to the committee to investigate the matter pending approval of Senate.

Clothing Drive

Miss Kingsley suggested the annual clothing drive conducted by the House be carried out in a manner similar to last year's. Boxes last year were put in each living unit, and later the clothes were turned over to the Friends Church to be distributed to a worthy charity.

House discussed black marks given to women who are unable to get into the dormitory unit offices in time to sign in on weekend nights, even though they are in the dormitory on time. It was decided that each member of House who felt it necessary should discuss this with her dormitory hostess.

Should Sign In Early

Miss Kingsley said women should make an effort to sign in a few minutes early in order to alleviate the congestion caused when everyone tries to sign in at the same time.

The next meeting of House will be held Nov. 4 in the Grange playroom.

his girlfriend in his sweater for a football game, in which case he also submerges her head in his black hat so that all observers will know the letter couldn't possibly be hers. Another ensign of the Letterman Type is the small blue and white "S" pin worn over the heart.

A small minority of Penn State men belong to the Cat Type. Be it sufficient to say that coeds react to cats in much the same way as they do to caterpillars. But for the sake of scientific identification, let us go further. There are lots of different kinds of cats, but they all have long hair. Some kinds wear an entire outfit in the same color—coldfire orange, for instance. Others wear an entire outfit of clashing colors. The objective is to be outstanding.

It's a big field we coeds have to choose from. There are plenty of them to go around. It's just too bad one cannot always be in a position to choose.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

Mrs. Robertson Page, national president of Sigma Sigma Sigma, visited the sorority recently to conduct the triennial inspection.

While on campus she was guest of honor at a coffee hour at which she met Dean of Women Pearl O. Weston and her assistants.

The story of Brunhilda, typical college coed. (everyone in an ad is typical)

One day Brunhilda and her friend were discussing the coming Penn-Penn State game.

Our heroine was complaining that she lacked a date for said game.

Her companion said, and I quote, "Brundie, I hate to tell you this but I'm afraid you've been out in left field for quite a while. What you need is something to make the men take Notice (and she didn't mean a pipe).

What you need is the new "Bare Look" Italian Cling Sling by Mademoiselle. Of course you'll find it at Simon's. (Where else?)

P.S. Brunhilda followed the advice and now has not one, mind you, but three dates for the game.
