

Robbie to Talk In Career Day 'Trade' Panel

J. Gollin Robbie, president of the Lancaster Transportation Co., will take part in a trade and transportation panel during Career Day Nov. 4.

The panel will be held at 2 p.m. in 216 Willard. It is one of several sponsored by the College of Business Administration for its annual Career Day.

An address by Ralph J. Bunche, director of the Department of Trusteeship, United Nations, at 8 p.m. in Schwab Auditorium is also included on the program.

Robbie, a 1940 graduate of the University, worked for Sears, Roebuck and Co. for two years and served four years with the U.S. Army. He then joined the Lancaster Transportation Co.

Other panels to be held at 2 p.m. Career Day include management, marketing, accounting, finance and insurance, labor management, and economics.

Approximately 500 business administration students will be able to receive tickets tomorrow in 106 Sparks. About 530 tickets also will be available to students from other colleges at the Student Union Desk in Old Main starting tomorrow.

Auto Wrecks Near Irvin Hall

A 1948 sedan ended up on the front lawn of Irvin Hall Saturday morning at 1:30 a.m. after wildly careening around the turn in front of McKee Hall.

After making the turn too wide and scraping the rear of a parked car owned by Dean Rossi, first semester hotel administration major, the driver turned sharply into a tree on the right side of the road.

The driver was Paul McGovern, of 219 1/2 W. High street, Bellefonte. A man and woman from Bellefonte were passengers in McGovern's car.

Although no one was injured, the radiator, front right wheel and fender were demolished.

Pledge Forms Due Tomorrow For Blood Drive

Pledge forms for the blood drive to be held Nov. 10 and 11 must be turned in by 5 p.m. tomorrow.

Containers for the completed forms have been placed at the Student Union desks in Old Main and Waring Hall, in the Temporary Union Building, and in women's residence halls.

The forms should list the free hours of the person wishing to donate blood. A two-hour period is necessary to allow time for proper processing. Students under 21 wishing to donate blood must also have a release form signed by their parents.

Kay Dillon, publicity chairman of the drive, explained last night

Chemistry Group To Hear Oakwood

T. S. Oakwood, professor of chemistry, will speak to the members of Phi Lambda Upsilon, national chemistry honorary, at 8 tonight in 117 Osmond. Oakwood's subject is "Louis Pasteur."

Before the talk a business session will be held to vote on new members, Conrad Trombore, president, said.

that the contributions made by students and townspeople give them the privilege of drawing blood from any Red Cross unit in the United States if there is a need. Local headquarters are in Johnstown.

The Johnstown Bloodmobile will be at the TUB between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. during the drive. The quota for the two-day drive is 300 pints.

McGeary to Talk On Name Change

Changing the name of State College will be the subject of brief talks to be given at the annual meeting of the community development committee in the high school library at 7:30 tonight.

Nelson McGeary, representing the Committee of 50, will speak for the name change. The Friends of State College will select a person to speak against the name change.

The talks, informative only, will be of 10-minute duration and no recommendations will be made following their presentation, the chairman said.

LA Council--

Watson Leese, LA Council president, appointed Rudolph Lutter chairman of the group. Other council members taking part are George Buckhout, Nancy Seiler, Beverly Marcus, and Robert Co-han.

Euwema also asked for another group of council members to evaluate faculty presentation of LA subjects and any other general problems of the LA College. Rhoda Resnick was appointed chairman of this group. Other members are Maurine Leonard, Jerry Donovan, and Mary Lee Lauffer.

The first Liberal Arts coffee hour will be held tomorrow at Beta Theta Pi.

Success Story... and how it started

CEDRIC ADAMS says: "When I was at the University of Minnesota, learning to be a reporter for the Daily, I lived on peanut butter sandwiches. It took me nine years to graduate (with time out to earn tuition!) When I married and went to work as a cub for the Star, I lived on love and macaroni. I worked like a horse writing about everything on earth, before I made the grade as a columnist. Now I'm eating better — even better than a horse!"
