

Colleges Announce Results of Elections

By CAROL GIBSON

Twenty-six students were named to seven college student councils in fall elections which ended yesterday. Engineering Student Council balloting will continue today.

In the College of Business Administration, Stephanie Sills, Dorothea Darlington, Ronald Ross, William Kelly, and William Bush were elected by freshmen to represent their class on the student council.

Two Discuss Name Change Pro and Con

Harold D. Albright, member of the Friends of State College, last night stressed tradition, sentiment, inconvenience, confusion, and the "undemocratic manner" in which he said the proposed name Mt. Nittany was chosen, as the reasons the name change should be defeated at the polls Tuesday.

M. Nelson McGeary, member of the Committee of '50, said the name Mt. Nittany should be adopted because of the great worry the problem is causing the University administration and the confusion elsewhere as to whether the University is a college or university.

The men spoke at a meeting of the community development committee at the high school library. Approximately 35 people attended the meeting.

McGeary said the University administration and public relations officials feel the confusion surrounding the status of the University is growing worse instead of better. If the University establishes its own post office the borough will lose much publicity, he said.

Albright said that changing the name of the town would create even more confusion. The name change is not vital to the University, he said.

The University will eventually be accepted as such through recognition of its activities, Albright said.

Game Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the Penn State-Pennsylvania game on Saturday and the Nov. 6 game with Holy Cross may be purchased at the athletic office in Recreation Hall between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. today.

Ike to Make Final Bid in 4-City Tour

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—President Eisenhower tonight decided to make an eleventh-hour, flying campaign foray aimed at stirring voters out of what he called apathy and winning a Republican victory in next Tuesday's contest for control of Congress.

The White House announced that he would fly on Friday to Cleveland, Detroit, Louisville, Ky., and Wilmington, Del., addressing airport crowds at each of the cities. He will leave here early Friday morning and return Friday night.

The cities will be visited in the order named, but the exact time of the President's arrival will not be announced until tomorrow.

However, Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.), said at Detroit that the President would reach there about noon.

Each of the four states the President will visit has a Senate race that could hold the key to control of the next Senate. Two of them, Ohio and Michigan, also elect governors. A total of 50 House seats are at stake in the four states.

In Ohio, Rep. George H. Bender (R) is in a hot battle with Sen. Thomas A. Burke (D) for the remainder of the late Sen. Robert Sixty-five per cent of the students eligible voted in the three classes of the College of Chemistry and Physics which had candidates running for student council.

Elected are Nancy Free and Ellen Milfin, freshman; Donald Himmeler, sophomore; and David Hutchinson and Charles Stone, seniors. Freshman representatives to the Education Student Council are Carol Jones and John Mellish. Of the 308 freshman students eligible to vote, 65 took part in the elections.

The five freshman students elected to the Home Economics Student Council are Suzanne Aiken, Avis Dunkleberger, Barbara Grest, Charles Linton and Leslie Schultz. One hundred and eighteen of the eligible 206 freshman students voted.

In the College of Liberal Arts, Robert Steele, Joan Mackenzie, Cynthia Geber, and Judy Goldman were the freshmen chosen to represent their class on the student council.

Two classes voted for representatives to the Mineral Industries Student Council. Elected are James Stratton and Robert Kowalczyk, freshman; and Robert Grof and Donald Fleck, juniors.

Doreen O'Bryan and John Rusnak are freshman representatives elected to the Physical Education Student Council. The Physical Education college had the highest participation in college elections with 32 out of 33 eligible men voting and 22 out of 26 eligible women voting.

Voting for freshman and sophomore representatives to the Engineering Student Council, which takes place in the lobby of Main Engineering, will end at 5 p.m. today.

Elections Committee

The All-University elections committee will meet at 6:45 tonight in the Student Government room, 204 Old Main.

A. Taft's term. In Michigan's Senate contest, Sen. Ferguson, Republican Policy Committee chairman in the Senate, is being pushed by Democrat Patrick V. McNamara.

Kentucky features a battle of stalwarts with most observers giving former Vice President Alben W. Barkley (D) the edge to beat Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R). In little Delaware, Sen. J. Allen Frear (D) is challenged by Rep. Herbert B. Warburton (R).

At his news conference today, Eisenhower expressed himself as somewhat puzzled over what he called voter apathy. With a flash of anger, he rejected any idea that "disenchantment" with his administration is responsible. On the contrary, he said, his advisers tell him one cause is too much satisfaction—the people have got what they wanted under the GOP.

Cabinet to Vote On Amendment

All-University Cabinet tonight will hear for the third time and vote on an amendment to its constitution proposed by Benjamin Sinclair, chairman of the Board of Dramatics and Forensics.

Sinclair's amendment was altered last week by John Speer, All-University vice president, but the chair ruled that the change did not change the essential meaning of the amendment and an additional reading was unnecessary.

The amendment now reads that the vice president of an organization shall replace the president in case he is unable to attend a cabinet meeting and that the hierarchy as established by the constitution of the organization shall determine further succession.

Speer's amendment states that in case of a vacancy in the All-University offices, the chairman of Tribunal or Judicial in that order shall sit on cabinet. Sinclair's original amendment stated that three-fourths vote of cabinet to be the chairs should be left vacant. The amendment will need a incorporated into the constitution.

Liberal Arts Student Council voted against Sinclair's amendment Monday night.

A second amendment to the constitution will be read by Richard Favro, president of the Business Administration College Student Council. The second reading of Favro's amendment, which deals

5 Finalists Chosen For Prom Queen

One of five junior women—Ann Lederman, Patricia Dickinson, Lois Cowden, Ruth Grigoletti, and Jean Yemm—will be crowned Junior Prom Queen at the Junior Prom Nov. 5.

The five finalists were picked from 30 contestants by a committee of 15 juniors. Contestants were interviewed and judged on a ten-point basis in four categories: personality, poise, beauty, and posture. A possible three points each were awarded on beauty and personality and two possible points apiece were awarded on poise and posture.

Finalist's Sponsors

Miss Lederman, a journalism major, and member of Kappa Alpha Theta, is sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon. Miss Dickinson, also a journalism major, is sponsored by Phi Gamma Delta. She is a member of Chi Omega. Miss Cowden, a psychology major and member of Alpha Gamma Delta, is sponsored by Delta Chi. Miss Grigoletti, a home economics major and member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, is sponsored by Kappa Kappa Gamma. Members of the junior class will vote for their choice for queen Monday through next Thursday at the Student Union desk in Old Main. Voting will be conducted from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Dorsey to Crown Queen

The queen will be crowned at the prom by one of the Dorsey brothers. John Thalmer, junior class president, will introduce the queen and the other four finalists who will form the queen's court. The queen and her court will walk to the bandstand through a cordon of members of Androcles, junior men's hat society; Blue Key, junior men's hat society; and Chimes, junior women's hat society.

The queen will be presented with flowers and several gifts from downtown merchants. Beginning Monday, pictures of the five finalists and the gifts to be given the winner will be displayed in the window of the Athletic store.

The finalists will tour the campus before the Holy Cross game. They will ride in convertibles and be dressed in formal gowns.

Training Forms Available at SU

Applications for the leadership training committee which will be headed by Robert Smoot will be available at the Student Union desk in Old Main, until next Thursday, Donald Bell, head of the Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee, has announced.

Students wishing to be considered for the committee are asked to fill out applications and return them to the desk as soon as possible. The applications will be used in the student's interview.

Application forms for other Cabinet committees will be available soon, Bell said.

3 Ag Research Endowments Are Renewed

Three research and fellowship agreements in the College of Agriculture were renewed Tuesday, has announced.

The National Grape Cooperative Association, Inc., has provided $3500 for studies to be conducted by Harold K. Fleming, professor of pomology, and Russell E. Larson, professor of horticulture.

Research on corn syrup solids under the direction of Chester D. Dahle, professor of dairy manufacture, has been endowed by a $2000 grant by the Hubinger Co.

A grant of $2000 from the New York and Pennsylvania Co., Inc., will continue work on Clarion Extract, under the supervision of Louis T. Kardos, professor of soil technology, and Howard B. Sprague, head of the agronomy department.

Research on fine turf will be conducted by H. Burton Musser, professor of agronomy, from a $500 gift of the Merion Bluegrass Association.

Grievance Panel Meeting Scheduled for Weekend

The three man grievance panel set up in August to arbitrate grievances between University employees and the University will meet here tomorrow and Saturday.

However, there seems to be some question as to which of the two employees unions will be the representative at the sessions.

George Dixon, president of Local 417, Building Service Employees International, said yesterday that he had sent a letter Tuesday to President Milton S. Eisenhower, asking that the panel be continued under the name of Local 417.

The original request for the panel came from Local 67, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees. However, three weeks ago, over 300 members of Local 67 voted to disaffiliate with the group and join the building service employees group.

Dixon said he felt that since the same people are represented by Local 417 as were represented by Local 67 before the split, the panel should be continued under the sponsorship of Local 417.

He added the letter stated that in the event the University saw fit to continue with the panel un-

AGENDA

- Roll call
- Minutes of the previous meeting
- Reports of officers
- Adoption of agenda
- Reports of committees:
  1. Campus Chest—Ellsworth Smith
  2. Junior Prom progress report—Earl Seely
  3. Cabinet secretarial committee—Carol Schwing
- Old business:
  - Constitutional amendments—Richard Favro and Benjamin Sinclair
- New business:
  - Constitutions of political parties—Gordon Pugal and Rae DelleDonne
  - Recommendations on registration—Sally Lessig
  - Appointments
  - Announcements
  - Adjournment

with the approval of committee chairmen and compensated positions, was postponed at last week's meeting when his amendment was altered.

Since the original meaning of the amendment was changed, the amendment must be read at tomorrow's meeting.

(Continued on page eight)

der Local 67, his group would apply for a new panel.

He said he had not as yet received a reply to the letter and added that he did not expect to. "I think the University realizes that the same people are represented under our group as were represented under Local 67, and I don't expect a reply," he said.

Meanwhile, George Fink, president of Local 67, said he felt Local 417 had no jurisdiction in the panel.

"We asked for the panel originally and we still exist," he said.

Plans To Attend
He added that he planned to attend the sessions along with the other officers of the group. The panel was requested because of the University's "lack of consideration for discussions and a general attitude of not recognizing" (Continued on page eight)