

2 All Americans To Pace Cadets

By ROY WILLIAMS

Army's Coach Joe Palone will bring his undefeated squad to Penn State tomorrow, bolstered by two All-Americans and the bulk of the same team that handed the Lions their first loss last fall, 4-3.

The Black Knights from the Hudson will have All-Americans Scotty Adams and Ira Black pacing their front line attack against Penn State which commands a 4-0 slate.

Adams has again combined his talents with teammate Black to total a solid one-two punch for the Cadets.

Black, who was chosen All-American last year at the outside left slot, and two-time All-American Adams, inside left, who was honored in 1952 and 1953, will be out to crack the Lions' defense.

In past years the Penn State-Army soccer rivalry has produced frequent upsets, highlighted by plenty of rough-and-tumble contact play.

But the fact that Army is always "up" for its Penn State encounter is nothing new. When Bill Jeffrey was coaching the Nittany booters, the famous Scot commanded a win streak extending for eight years from 1934 to 1942. Jeffrey's phenomenal win streak which exceeded 60 straight wins was snapped finally by Army—1-0—in 1942.

Last year Army posted one of the best records in the east with a 8-1-1 slate. Its only loss was to Temple, 5-2—the team which eventually was crowned the national champions. The loss to the highly-perched Owls was only the second defeat in 39 games during four seasons for the West Pointers.

Tomorrow the Black Knights will go after their sixth win in seven starts. Army has posted a 5-0-1 record thus far, with the only blemish on its ledger a 2-2 tie with West Chester State Teachers College. One of the Cadet wins was a 3-1 victory over Penn.

Penn State's defense has been effective this season—allowing only four goals—but with such talent as Black and Adams on the front line for Army, one goal may be all the Cadets need to knock the Lions off the crest of their wave of victory.

3 Win Easily In IM Swim

Beta Theta Pi, Tau Phi Delta, and Phi Kappa Sigma, all scored lopsided victories Monday night at Glennland pool as the 1954 intramural swimming season got under way.

Beta Theta Pi drowned Theta Chi, 34-6, as Jerry Bijur led the way, copping the backstroke and breaststroke events in 40.2 and 43.7 seconds respectively. Other Beta Theta Pi winners were Pete Lang who took freestyle honors in 36.6 and Karl Schwenzler who won the diving event. All second place positions went to the winners with the exception of the freestyle runner-up spot which went to Theta Chi.

Sigma Alpha Mu, in absorbing a 34-3 pasting at the hands of Tau Phi Delta, managed to gain just three third place points. The winners were paced by Bob Zellej who placed first in the freestyle and diving events.

Bill Rother led Phi Kappa Sigma to a 36-5 rout of Alpha Gamma Rho in the final meet. Rother collected 10 points by taking the backstroke and diving events. One "second" and two "thirds" were all that AGR could amass.

3 Shutouts Highlight IM Football Action

Despite the cold, intramural footballers turned in some very exciting football action on Beaver Field last night. In the first game, Dorm 27 scored a 12-0 victory over the Eagles; in the second, the Comets beat the Buccaneers 14-0; in the third, Phi Kappa established themselves as a title threat by trouncing Sigma Alpha Epsilon 24-7; and in the final, Alpha Sigma Phi beat Beta Theta Pi, 12-0.

The first game was a hard fought battle all the way, and with the exception of the two scoring plays, the Eagles were in the thick of it until the finish. Dorm 27 started its first rally when Ron Digman intercepted a pass on the 10 yard line. They moved upfield steadily with Digman and Chuck Rine spearheading the attack. The drive culminated with a scoring pass from Rine to Don Harris. Dorm 27 scored the second TD on a pass from Rine to Glenn Spaid.

In the second game the Comets took an early 14-0 lead in the first period on the passing of Tom Haley, and then fought off two spirited second half rallies to cop the win from the Buccaneers. Haley passed to teammate Bill Capozzoli for both scores.

Phi Kappa scored very early on an intercepted pass by Jack Skoczlas, but SAE fought back to take the lead on a 20 yard run by Skip Gerdes. However, the lead was short-lived for Phi Kappa took advantage of every break that came its way and turned them into scores. They scored their second TD on a pass from Dick McCann to Jim Ross, the third on a beautiful 60 yard pass from Bob Misko to McCann, and the fourth another pass from Misko to McCann.

In the evening's last game, Alpha Sigma Phi used the fine receiving of George Kitts and the passing of Tom O'Hearn and Dave Murphy to gain their win. Kitts scored both TDs on passes from O'Hearn and Murphy.

Frosh Booters Play Frostburg At Maryland

Penn State's freshman soccer team will go after its second win of the season tomorrow when it opposes the Frostburg State Teachers eleven in Frostburg, Md. Coaches Paul Burdan and Jack Carrier have been pleased with the yearlings' performance since the season's inaugural encounter with the Lock Haven State Teachers team. The frosh dropped that one, 3-2.

With Jim Hedberg and Terry Reber bearing the brunt of the scoring attack, the frosh recently plastered the Cosmopolitan eleven, 6-3. Hedberg leads the club in scoring with a total of three goals collected in two games.

Burdan and Carrier are planning to carry a 20-man squad with them to Frostburg. The group will leave State College at 8 a.m. Saturday.

With frosh standouts, Terry Reber, Frank Walls and Glen Spaid forming a nucleus, the yearlings' play has been causing consternation among the varsity ranks during recent practice sessions.

Frostburg is the last scheduled game on the freshman booters' card.

Speed Trap Nets Four Violators

Four violators from the University were among those caught in a speed trap operated by the State College police department in the 400 and 500 blocks of E. College avenue Tuesday from 7 to 9 a.m.

Sam Valentine, all-State at DuBois High School in 1952, is slowly emerging as the No. 1 man in the left guard position on Penn State's 1954 football team.

Solid Foursome

THESE FOUR Nittany Lion tackles are one of the big reasons why enemy ball carriers have had tough going trying to pick up yardage through Penn State's line this season. From top to bottom are Otto Keidinger, Dan De Falco, Gene Danser, and Rosey Grier, all of whom will be playing a major role in the Nittanies' quest for win number four against Penn tomorrow.

Groggy A's --

"As far as the American League is concerned the situation is status quo," said Will Harridge, league president. "The Macks have the ball club, they own the stock. They are going to operate the club. That's as far as we know for now."

The eight-man syndicate, which was ready to put up about $4 million for the A's, was baffled at the rejection.
