

Fraternities Plan Weekend Parties

By MARGIE BLANK

Junior Prom Weekend has finally arrived. Women have received special hours, formals are being pressed, corsages have been ordered, and costumes have been made for the big parties.

The following fraternities have made plans for Saturday night houseparties:

Acacia is having a hayride from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Afterwards an informal party is being held at the house.

A Suppressed Desire party is being held by Alpha Chi Rho. Music will be supplied by Frank Reynolds' Combo. The open party will last from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Bathing suits and sand will highlight Alpha Epsilon Pi's Miami Beach party. Fran Scartino's Quintet will play for the party, which is open after 10:30 p.m.

Ed McGuire's Quartet will play lullaby music for Alpha Chi Sigma's Dreamland party. Pajamas are the order of the day. The party is closed until 11 p.m.

Alpha Gamma Rho will hold a Cool Cat party. Costumes—anything unusual. Jack Baker will supply the music for the open party.

Blue jeans, plaid shirts, and jugs will highlight Alpha Rho Chi's Moonshiner's party.

Anything from six irons to ten gallon hats will be seen when Alpha Sigma Phi revives an old Ghost Town.

The year will end early when Alpha Tau Omega holds its annual New Year's Eve Party. Johnny Hale will play for the party, which is open after 10:30 p.m.

Blossom Intrigue will be the theme of Beta Sigma Rho's open party. Music will be provided by the Seranaders.

A jazz session will be held at Beta Theta Pi when the Romans invade from Philadelphia. The party will be closed.

Wear your best grass skirt to Delta Chi's Hootchie Hut party. Palms, rafts, and a waterfall will highlight the south sea island decorations. Andy Analuci's Orchestra will play for the party, which is closed until 11:45 p.m.

Come as your Suppressed Desire to Delta Tau Delta. Danny Grove will play for the party open to friends.

Bring your pipes to Chi Phi's Opium Den. Music will be provided by the Hot Shot Four. The party is open after 10 p.m.

Suppressed Desire will be the theme of Delta Upsilon's party. It will be open after 11 p.m.

Bill Schull and his orchestra will provide the music for Kappa Delta Rho's Suppressed Desire party. The house will be open after 11 p.m.

A pow-wow will be held at Kappa Sigma's annual Indian party. Teepees, feathers, and war paint will highlight the open party.

There will be big doings at

Lambda Chi Alpha's Country Fair. Ross Lytle will play for the closed party.

Phi Epsilon Pi will hold its annual Shipwreck party. Bob Schreck and his orchestra will play for the open party.

Kilt skirts and Scotch plaids will be seen at Phi Gamma Delta's Brigadoon party. Music will be provided by Duke Morris. The party will be open after 10 p.m.

Les Michner will play for Phi Kappa's Suppressed Desire party. The house will be open after 11:30 p.m.

On the Waterfront will be the theme of Phi Kappa Sigma's annual party. Frances Stolarick will play for the party, which will be closed until 10 p.m.

Coolie outfits and queues will be seen at Phi Sigma Delta's Chinese party. Norm Magruder will play for the open party.

Stan Parrish will play for Phi Sigma Kappa's Hillbilly Hop. The party is open by invitation.

Dick Tracy, Joe Palooka, and cartoon people will be seen at the Pi Kappa Alpha Comic Strip Character party. The party will be open after 10 p.m.

Toulouse-Lautrec and his girls from the Moulin Rouge will characterize Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Parisian party. The party will be open.

Childhood days return as Sigma Alpha Mu holds its annual Nursery Nite party. The Rhythm Five will play for the party, which is open after 9 p.m.

Sigma Chi will hold its annual pledge dance. The dance will be closed until 11 p.m.

Palachi and his Merry Three will play for Sigma Phi Alpha's Hobo Hop. The party will be open after 10 p.m.

Foreign clothes will be the costumes for Sigma Phi Epsilon's United Nations party. Steve Parker will play for the party, which will be closed until 11 p.m.

Johnny Nicolose will play for Theta Delta Chi's annual pledge formal. The dance will be closed until 11 p.m. The queen of the pledge class will be crowned during the intermission.

French costumes will highlight Sigma Pi's Beaux Arts Ball. Chuck Springman and his Blue Notes will play for the party, which will be closed until 11 p.m.

The Three Pages will play for Tau Kappa Epsilon's Masquerade Ball. The party will be open at 10 p.m.

French Cabaret will be the

20 to Vie for King Of 'Mardi' Weekend

Twenty candidates have been entered to vie for the title of Mardi Gras King on the basis of money votes at the Mardi Gras Carnival Nov. 12 in Recreation Hall. The king will be selected from three finalists at the Mardi Gras Ball, Nov. 13, in the Temporary Union Building.

Deadline for groups to enter candidates has been extended until noon today. Pictures should be turned in at the Student Union desk in Old Main, be 5 by 7 inches, and include the names of the candidate and the sponsoring group.

The candidates and their sponsoring groups are Warren Gittlen, Alpha Epsilon Phi; Ellsworth Smith, Delta Delta Delta; Dennis Springer, Freshman Council; Francis Taylor, Alpha Gamma Delta; James Greiner, Gamma Phi Beta; Earl Shumaker, Zeta Tau Alpha; Michael Rosenfeld, Sigma Delta Tau; Steve Maybaum, Phi Sigma Sigma; Kaye Vinson, Theta Phi Alpha; Charles Stachel, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Herbert Hollowell, Kappa Alpha Theta.

John Speer, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Marshall Dawsey, Delta Gamma; Robert Allen, Delta Zeta; Jesse Arnette, Phi Mu; Hugh

Cline, Chi Omega; Earl Seely, Alpha Omicron Pi; David Carvey, Pi Beta Phi; Roosevelt Grier, Alpha Kappa Alpha; and James Garrity, Kappa Delta.

The three finalists will be selected by a penny-a-vote system. Containers for the votes will be on tables at the carnival.

The king will be chosen at the Mardi Gras Ball, sponsored by Chimes, junior women's hat society. Audience applause will determine the winner.

The carnival, sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's hat society, will be from 8 to 11 p.m. in Recreation Hall. The third event of the weekend, the all-University sing, will begin at 2 p.m., Nov. 14 in Schwab Auditorium. The sing is being sponsored by Scrolls, senior women's hat society, and Cwens, sophomore women's hat society.

Hillel to Open Town Meetings

Hillel Foundation will open its 15th annual Town Meeting series with a discussion on "What Do the Results of the Election Mean?" at 8 p.m. Sunday at the Foundation, 224 Locust Lane.

Who knows what evil weather lurks in the shadows of Mt. Nittany?

Blossom Knows!

Blossom, the Snow woman, often referred to as the Sam Spade of the weather bureau, knows that this weekend hails the Junior Prom. Blossom also knows that on that happy occasion, in keeping with true P.S.U. tradition, it ALWAYS SNOWS! (Too bad imports).

However, being smarter than most, Blossom has rushed down to Simon's and purchased the correct rubber footwear for said weather. Prices are right also, ranging from $2.00 to $12.95.

So why make your date carry you when all you have to do is catch the act at Simon's snow weather footwear for you!
