

Lion Seek 5th Win

The rest of Engle's backfield will remain unchanged from last week. Don Bailey will be at quarterback and Frank Della Penna will be at fullback. Regular starter Bill Straub is still fighting a leg injury and Chuck Blockson is still out of commission. Straub, however, will see some action today.

On the line, Jesse Arnelle and Jim Garrity will be at the ends and either Dan De Falco or Rosey Grier will team up with Danser at the tackles. Dick DeLuca and Keith Horn will be at the guards, and Frank Reich at center.

Anderson's biggest threat comes in a package deal. Three quarterbacks loom as the biggest hurdle for the Lions. John Stephans, Billy Smithers, and Tom Roberts will probably all take a hand in Anderson's passing attack. The trio has kept the Crusaders in the 11th spot in the nation. And Penn State will probably see plenty of captain Lou Hettinger, the right halfback. Hettinger is currently the Crusaders' leading ground gainer, scorer, and pass receiver.

Holy Cross will be after its second win of the season against five losses. Despite its dismal worst record, however, the Crusaders are actually a pretty formidable outfit. Only one team—Colgate—has beaten them by more than one touchdown, and their one victory was a 14-13 win over highly rated Boston University.

Twice-Defeated Navy to Meet Unbeaten Soccermen Today

Navy's soccer team arrived on the Nittany campus last night with a squad of 26 Midshipmen awaiting their clash with Penn State's undefeated soccer team today at 10 a.m. The Swabbies, led by Coach F. Warner, will be seeking their fifth win in eight games. Navy has lost two games and tied one this fall.

But Coach Ken Hosterman and his victory-crazed booters will be gunning for their sixth straight victory of the campaign when they close their 1954 home season.

Although the Penn State-Navy match was snowed out at Annapolis, Md., last year, the Midshipmen played nine other games to finally post a 3-5-1 record.

In nine games the Middies scored 27 goals and allowed their opponents 16. All but one of Navy's losses during 1953 were dropped by the margin of only one point. Two of the Middies' victories were routs of 7-1 and 7-0.

Navy, like Army, usually plays a tight defensive game. But Hosterman's squad had little trouble with Army's defense, which often is one of the best in the East.

Penn State's offense has been running through the opposition like a well-greased pig, and Navy will have to figure out a way to bottle up Penn State's offensive power if it expects to bring home the bacon.

Hosterman will stick with the same lineup for today's game that has paced the Lions to their last five wins. The Nittany lineup is almost completely dominated by ten lettermen, with Steve Flammporis, a sophomore, playing at right halfback, the only non-letterman on the squad.

Jim Garrity, Penn State co-captain and end, last year gathered in 30 passes good for 349 yards and three touchdowns.

Intramural Boxing

Entrants in the intramural boxing tournament are asked to file their entries as soon as possible at Rec Hall. The deadline for entries is 4:30 p.m., Nov. 12.

Organizations may enter one man in each weight class. Independents may enter as individuals and need not be members of a team.

Each individual must enter for himself. The entry fee is 25 cents a man.
