

A Good Day's Work...

LENNY MOORE, and Lion Coach Rip Engle are a pretty happy pair here after the Penn State halfback set a new Penn State rushing mark against Holy Cross Saturday. Moore brought his season total to 843 yards. Moore and the rest of the Penn State regulars played only 25 minutes as the Lions easily defeated the Crusaders, 39-7.

More Grid Records Could Fall Saturday

Three more long-standing records will go to the firing line again this week when Penn State meets spirited Rutgers University Saturday at Beaver Field.

Lenny (The Ghost) Moore, who shattered Shorty Miller's Penn State rushing mark against Holy Cross Saturday, will be going after two more himself and the Scarlet will be out to keep an 85-game scoring streak intact.

Moore, with 843 rushing yards behind him, is just 188 yards behind the Penn State total offense record, also owned by Miller. The Reading Flash also needs just two more touchdowns to tie the touchdown record set in 1938.

Has 2-5 Record
Rutgers, which has risen for two consecutive victories after losing its first five games, hasn't been shut out in 85 games now. Coach Harvey Harman's club has become a fixture on the Penn State schedule in the last few years, and has been a traditional toughy, even when the Lion clubs have been heavy favorites.

Penn State has won four of five games played with the Scarlet, but only one game in the modern series has been a runaway. Last year Penn State trailed for a quarter but finally walked away with a 54-13 verdict. However, the other three games played since 1950 were won by margins of one, four, and six points. The Scarlet won its lone game in a contest played in 1918.

Came 'A Long Way'
Lion coach Sevor (Tor) Toretti, who scouted Harman's team, credits the Scarlet coach with bringing the team "a long way" in recent weeks.

"It's not easy to keep kids scrapping after five straight losses, yet this team never lost its spirit," Toretti said.

Rutgers came to life two weeks ago after it had lost to Princeton, Fordham, Colgate, William and Mary, and Lehigh in succession. The Scarlets whipped Temple 25-0 and last Saturday edged Lafayette, 7-0.

The Lions meanwhile have also been a rising ball club. Rip Engle's team has scored 72 points in two weeks since losing two games at mid-season to West Virginia, and Texas Christian.

Engle, who is proud of the way his team has taken to the ground after two seasons of air-mindedness, feels that the Lion offensive forces have reached their peak in the last two weeks.

"That goal line stand and Penn and the minus yardage (minus 36) against Holy Cross would indicate that our line is pretty solid, too," he added.

The team is averaging over 346 yards per game and 278.5 on the ground to keep the Lions among the top ten rushing teams in the nation.

4 IM Teams Gain Grid Semi-Finals
Werner Names Six For IC4A Title Run

By EARL KOHNFELDER

Four intramural football teams entered the semi-final bracket of the IM league as a result of victories gained last night at Beaver Field. Pollock 4 used a three-man pass play to defeat the Geechee Birds, 6-0, while Dorm 27 capitalized on a poor punt to nip the Comets, 7-0. In fraternity quarter-final play, Delta Sigma Phi topped Alpha Sigma Phi, 7-0 and Sigma Pi nipped Pi Kappa Alpha, 1-0, in overtime.

John Wagner had a hand in both the set-up and the score itself in the Pollock 4 triumph. Wagner gave the winners possession on their own 30 with an interception and on the next play was the receiver of a sleeper pass thrown by Bob Grefe. The play carried to the Birds' 24. Seconds later Dick Kinsman lobbed a flat pass to Grefe who in turn rifled a scoring pass to Wagner in the end zone.

Dorm 27 was caught deep in its own territory late in the first half following a 60-yard punt by the Comets' Bill Haley. Dorm 27 punted out to its own 40. The Comets completed a pass to the 20 and appeared on the move when time ran out. Ironically, it was a poor punt that led to Dorm 27's touchdown.

Haley, kicking from his own end zone, angled the ball out of bounds on his own 20. Down-the-middle aerials from Chuck Rine to Red Bone and Ron Harris netted Dorm 27 its winning tally.

A 70-yard punt return involving three players gave Alpha Sigma Phi its 7-0 victory. The score came early in the first period when Joe Murphy gathered in a Delta Sig punt on his own 30 and started the TD-producing relay. Murphy tossed a short pass to Paul Mastrococo who immediately forwarded to Tom Furbee. The latter took the pass on Alpha Sig's 40, eluded one man, then cut to the right sideline to cross the goal-line unmolested.

Pi Kappa Alpha found itself 20 yards from Sigma Pi territory with one overtime play remaining and failed to make the necessary yardage.

Intramural Boxing

Entrants in the intramural boxing tournament are asked to file their entries as soon as possible at Rec Hall. The deadline for entries is 4:30 p.m., Friday.

Organizations may enter one man in each weight class. Independents may enter as individuals and need not be members of a team.

Each individual must enter for himself. The entry fee is 25 cents a round.

Frank Patrick, representing the Nittany grid coaching staff, tied Williams' Saturday output of 9-6, but failed in an effort to get the mentors out of the cellar, a position they've held for six consecutive weeks. Their over-all record now stands at 63-42, accounting for an even .600 percentage.

Cross-country Coach Chick Werner yesterday named six runners to compete in Monday's Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletics of America championship race at Van Cortlandt Park, N.Y. Don Mowry, John Chillrud, Don Woodrow, Jim Pastorius, Ted Garrett, and Doug Moorhead are the six harriers Werner has definitely decided to take to the 46th IC4A title run.

Werner was uncertain about his team's chances in this year's run for the roses. This season the squad finished with a record of one win and four losses—the first losing campaign since 1943.

Impressive in Practice
"The team," Werner said, "has done wonders in practice, but against competition it has fallen apart. I don't know how to feel about the team. On Mondays they have looked fine. On Saturdays the boys are just not the same."

Werner pointed out that on Monday the harriers ran two separate mile laps with a rest in between. The results were amazing.

"In the first mile run," Werner said, "the first runner finished at 4:24 and the last at 4:35. But the second mile was even better; all the boys finished together at 4:32."

Time Trial Sensational
Norm Gordon, assistant cross-country coach, said he was not able to find any better times for trial runs in the Nittany records. "This goes for some of the best teams we've ever had; even when the Ashenfelter brothers (Bill and Horace) were running," Gordon pointed out.

Despite the fact that the Lions did not turn in their usual spotless record in regular-season competition, Werner has high hopes for the team in the IC4A title race.

"We refuse to give up on the team," the Nittany mentor said, "and we are certainly not going to the IC's with a defeatist attitude. This team is good, not by the coaches' estimation but by the hands of the clock."

And, as in many other things, it is time that tells the tale.

3 Fraternities Splash Way To IM Wins

Theta Xi won the final event of its swimming meet last night at Glennland Pool against Chi Phi—the 120-yard relay—and won the match, 24-17. Chi Phi salvaged some consolation when Bill Johnston and Phil Steel won the free style and backstroke events. Ed Huston, Theta Xi, won the breaststroke.

Sigma Chi had little trouble in trouncing Triangle, 32-5. The winners took first place in each of the four events.

Andrew Smith won the free style in 33.6 seconds. Teammate Bennie Baymiller copped the backstroke in 51.6 seconds, and Bob Vanner had no competition as he placed first in the breaststroke in 45.5 seconds.

Sigma Phi Epsilon scored five points in winning the 120-yard relay from Alpha Zeta but failed to overcome their opponents' lead. Alpha Zeta won 21-16.

The winners won three individual first place honors. Ken Sacks won the free style in 34.2 seconds and came back later to win the breaststroke in 49.7. Walt Edelen won the third first place for Alpha Zeta as he splashed his way ahead of the field in the backstroke. His winning time was 45 seconds flat.

Honoraries May Hold Reception for Gymnasts

The Physical Education student council Monday night discussed the possibility of two honorary societies, Lakon 'es and Phi Epsilon Kappa, holding a reception for the Swedish gymnastic team when it returns next year.

Sports Editor Gains in 'Picks'

For the second week in a row, Daily Collegian sports editor, Dick McDowell, has been top man in the Collegian's weekly grid prediction poll, "Out on a Limb."

McDowell posted a 10-5 log in Saturday's football guessing classic, to boost his over-all percentage for the first seven weeks of the contest to .619 on 65 correct picks and 40 miscues.

But staff writer Roy Williams' nine positive selections was good enough to keep him in first place for the fifth straight week. His average now stands at .676 on a 71-34 slate.

Assistant scribe Herm Weiskopf came out on top on only eight contests, low for the day to drop to third place after pacing McDowell for three weeks.

He now owns a 34-41 record
