Wanted: Photos For Centennial

Do you have any old photographs stored away in your attic or in picture albums that represent any phase of the University's 100-year history?

If so, get in touch with Louis H. Bell, director of public information, who is seeking these photographs in preparation for the University's Centennial next year.

Photographs should be of good quality so that they can be reproduced. Upon selection, they will be copied and the originals promptly returned to the owner.

Bowes, 1916 Graduate Dies in Miami, Florida

Cmdr. Richard Harvey Bowes, a graduate from the University in 1916, died Oct. 29 in a Miami, Fla., hospital. Commander Bowes retired from the Navy in 1946.

A graduate in horticulture, the 60-year-old officer made his home in Miami. He is survived by his wife, Alma, who lives at 5600 S. W. 2nd street, Miami.

Program Renewed By Foundry Group

The Foundry Educational Foundation has renewed its scholarship program for the current academic year.

Scholarships totaling $5000 annually are awarded at the opening of the fall and spring semesters.

Graduate and undergraduate students in engineering, metallurgy, or chemical engineering, who are specializing in foundry engineering work, are eligible.

AKD Information May Be Secured

Undergraduate students who are eligible for membership in Alpha Kappa Delta, national sociology honorary fraternity, may call Dr. Robert E. Clark, associate professor of sociology and acting head of the department, at ext. 674 for further information.

To be eligible a student must have an All-University average of 2.0 and a 2.2 average in sociology courses.

rate a committee to set up an activities rating scale, and support a more even split of student government appointments among all fraternities as well as independents.

Law, who was absent from the last two days of campaigning because of a broken wrist, is expected to be released from the University Hospital today. He broke his wrist during varsity football practice Tuesday.

According to the Registrar's office, there are 2952 freshmen and 2818 sophomores who will be eligible to vote.

tory verbalizations, Lion party lowered itself to these diversionary tactics... because it is necessary for them to blur and discredit State's concrete platform and supplement. The written and spoken words of State's campaign are so piercing that smear is Lion's only defense."

She did not elaborate on the statement.

Scribes Pick Valentine 'Lineman of the Week'

Sam Valentine, hard-charging Penn State guard, has been chosen "lineman of the week" by the Daily Collegian sports staff.

The sophomore griddler gained the title with outstanding play on both offense and defense in the Lions' 39-7 conquest of Holy Cross Saturday.

Valentine, a standout on last year's freshman squad, has gradually become one of Rip Engle's best guards this season.
