

Election Aftermath . . .

New Presidents' Installment Set

Arthur Schravasande and Samuel Wolcott will be installed as freshman and sophomore class presidents sometime after Thanksgiving vacation, All-University President Jesse Arnelle said yesterday.

Arnelle said the installation would probably take place at the Dec. 2 All-University Cabinet meeting.

Schravasande and Wolcott will take the cabinet seats now occupied by James Musser, retiring freshman president, and Hugh Cline, retiring sophomore president.

In Past Years . . .

	FROSH	SOPH
1950	62%	44.8%
1951	27.5%	30.9%
1952	44%	32.7%
1953	35%	27%
1954	41.9%	24.7%

Discussion of the poor turnout of voters in Thursday's election was a major topic of conversation on campus yesterday. Both Lion party chairman Gordon Pogal and State party chairman Rae DelleDonne again expressed disappointment over the number of students who voted.

Poor Voting Discussed

Discussion of the poor turnout of voters in Thursday's election was a major topic of conversation on campus yesterday. Both Lion party chairman Gordon Pogal and State party chairman Rae DelleDonne again expressed disappointment over the number of students who voted.

Sophomore Percentage

Less than one-quarter of the eligible sophomores voted. The freshman turnout was 41.9 per cent.

The percentage of sophomores voting in fall elections over the past five years shows a steady decline, with one exception, the 1951 election.

The percentages have fallen from 44.6 per cent in 1950 to 24.7 per cent this year.

Freshman Voting

Freshman voting has been erratic. In 1950 62 per cent voted, but in 1951 the percentage fell to 27.5 per cent. This climbed to 44 per cent in 1952, fell to 35 per cent in 1953, and then rose again this year.

Monday Scheduled For First Sale Of LA Lantern

The year's first issue of The Lantern, published by the College of Liberal Arts, will be on sale Monday, according to Margaret McClain, editor.

The magazine will include an article on student encampment, review of campus politics, and an article on outstanding seniors.

Patricia Dickinson, fifth semester journalism major, will be cover girl-of-the-month. This issue will also feature three liberal arts beauties. They are Jane White, third semester arts and letters major; Cecilia Johns, eighth semester journalism major; and Estelle Caplan, fifth semester journalism major.

The magazine will be on sale for ten cents a copy at the bulletin board near Carnegie Hall, near Grange dormitory, and at the Corner Room.

Trustee Will Visit Alumni Executives

A representative of the Board of Trustees of the University will attend meetings of the executive board of the Alumni Association to increase liaison between the Board of Trustees and the executive board.

William K. Ulerich, a member of the Board of Trustees from Clearfield, has been appointed as the representative to the executive board.

Miller Set As Speaker For Chapel

Col. Francis P. Miller, a member of the commission of twenty-five and of the central committee of the World Council of Churches, will speak at Chapel services at 10:55 a.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

His subject will be "The Christian International." Colonel Miller graduated from Washington and Lee University and Oxford University and served during World War I. During World War II he was on the intelligence staff of the Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Forces.

He has served as secretary of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian Association and as secretary and president of the World's Student Christian Federation in Geneva, Switzerland. He helped to organize the public affairs committee and national policy committee and was organization director for the Council of Foreign Relations.

Colonel Miller was a candidate for governor of Virginia in 1949 and for the U.S. Senate in 1952. He is the author of "The Giant of the Western World" and "The Blessings of Liberty."

The Chapel Choir, directed by Willa C. Taylor, professor of music education, will sing the anthem "O Thou Central Orb of Righteous Love" (Gibbons). George E. Ceiga, Chapel organist, will play as prelude "Vision" (Rheinberger), and as postlude "Cathedral Fugue" (Bach).

WD Council Is Protesting Field Ban

By TOM SMITH

The West Dorm Council is protesting the recent ruling which bans students from using the field immediately east of Hamilton Hall and fronting on Pollock road as an athletic and recreation area.

Duplicate letters have been sent to Walter H. Wiegand, director of the physical plant, and to James W. Dean, assistant to the dean of men, requesting that the field remain available to West Dorm students for recreational purposes.

The reason given for the ruling was that the playing was destructive to the field. The council felt that there was a lack of consistency in the enforcement of this ruling, since some R.O.T.C. units still use the area as a drill field, and cars are permitted to park on the field on weekends.

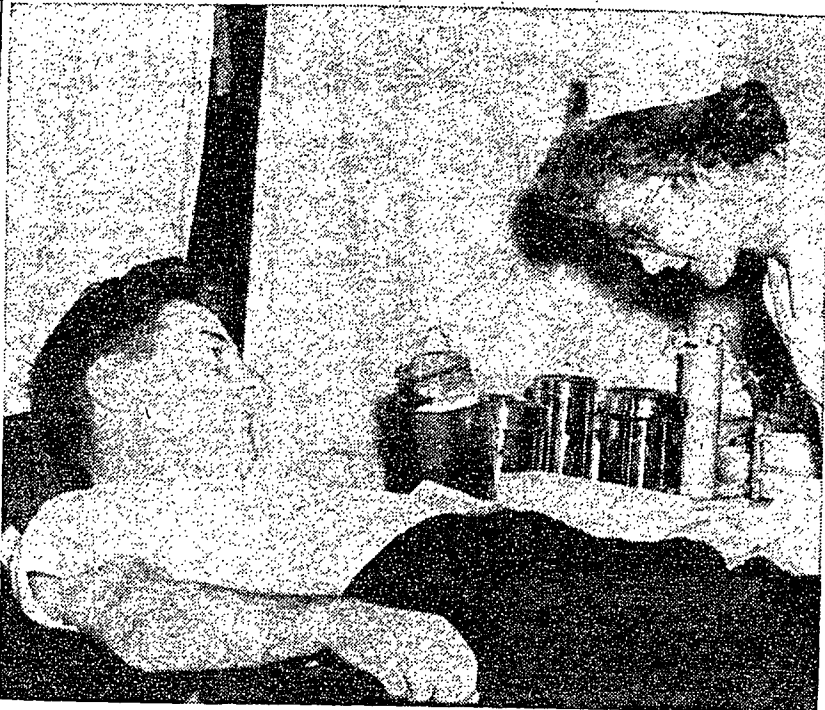

In other action taken by the council at the meeting Monday night, a correspondent was appointed to draft a letter requesting that Parking Areas 11 and 70 be available for use by West Dorm residents on weekends.

Mixed dinners with coeds from Thompson Hall are being arranged by the council. Four members volunteered to act as ushers at the first dinner, tentatively scheduled for Wednesday.

Another issue brought before the council was the shortage of laundry facilities in the West Dorms. A committee was set up to request installation of additional washers and dryers.

Council representatives reported that the proposed amendment to the constitution is now being read to individual dormitory units. If approved, the amendment would require the Council to meet at least twice each month, and would stipulate who has the authority to call special meetings.

His 18th Pint

—Photo by Walker
THAT'S RIGHT. Daniel Adams, seventh semester electrical engineering major, donates his 18th pint of blood over a period of 14 years yesterday at the Temporary Union Building. On the right is Ann Palko, of the Johnstown Bloodmobile Unit.

1500 Will Attend Ag Party Tonight

By SUE CONKLIN

Approximately 1500 students will be served dinner cafeteria style at the annual Ag Hill Party to be held by the College of Agriculture from 5:30 p.m. today until midnight in Recreation Hall.

This is an increase of 300 over last year's total. Ticket sales have been better than expected so far. At noon yesterday 1000 tickets had been sold.

Dinner will be served from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Following this, group singing will be led by William Durborow, fifth semester dairy science major. Next on the program will be free games with about 300 prizes to be handed out. Callers are William Bender, first semester horticulture major, and David Webber, seventh semester horticulture major.

Entertainment for the evening will include singing by the Collegians, a quartet composed of William R. Davey, instructor in dairy husbandry; Jerome Kapit-anoff, sixth semester industrial engineering major; and James Hess and John Leasure of State College. George E. Ceiga, assistant professor of music, will play the organ during dinner. Ross Lytle of State College will play the dance music.

Short speeches will be made by Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the College of Agriculture, and Russell B. Dickerson, associate dean and director of resident instruction.

Approximately ten door prizes will be awarded later in the evening. Almost three hours of square dancing will be included in the evening's activities.

Visiting donors or their representatives will give $7535 in scholarships ranging from $25 to $560 to 60 students.

Committees for the party are trucking, Block and Bridle Club; tickets, Penn State Grange and Liebig Chemical Society; decorations, 4-H Club; clean up, Future Farmers of America; games, Hort Club; entertainment, American Society of Agricultural Engineers; food service, Forestry Society, Poultry Husbandry Club, and Pre-Vet Club; dining room, Clover Club, and Agricultural Economics Club; reception, Coaly Society; check room, Dairy Science; name cards, Zoology and Entomology Club, Botany Club; publicity, Rod and Coccus Club.

Club to Hear Bernard

Dr. Jessie R. Bernard, professor of sociology, recently returned from Europe, will speak on "Europe Looks at the 20th Century" before the Faculty Luncheon Club at noon Monday at the Hotel State College.

9 Interviewed For Positions On Committee

Nine applicants were interviewed this week by the Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee for positions on the Leadership Training Committee.

Interviewed were: Kaye Vinson, Daniel Land, Martha Heim, Roberta Sanky, Robert Spadaro, Stuart Horn, Sergio Torgo, Helen Sidman, and David Moskowitz. These applicants were submitted to All-University President Jesse Arnelle who may select some or all of them to submit to All-University Cabinet for final approval.

Donald Bell, CPIC chairman, said applications for four Spring Week committees must be submitted to the Student Union desk no later than noon today. Committees are: Coronation, Parade, Carnival, and Mad Hatter. These are the only committees to be considered for interviewing on Wednesday.

CPIC is a special Cabinet committee composed of the nine college student council presidents for the purpose of interviewing applicants for positions on Cabinet committees.

Applications for the other committees named may be picked up at the Student Union desk in Old Main.

Outing Club Plans Work on Shelter

The cabin and trail division of the Penn State Outing Club will work on the Adirondack shelter at Beaver Dam tomorrow afternoon. The group will meet at 2 p.m. in back of Old Main.

The other divisions of the club will hold an outing at the Stone Valley Forestry Camp. Included on the program for the afternoon will be a square dance. Supper will be served at the camp. This group will also meet at 2 p.m. in back of Old Main.

Members of the club who have cameras are urged by Bruce Lieske, president, to take as many pictures as possible to be used in a display on the Waring Hall bulletin board next week.

FOR A QUICK SNACK AFTER THE GAME,
J&L BAR-B-QUE

North on Route 322

STATE NOW
"THE BLACK KNIGHT"
Alan Ladd Patricia Medina

WARNER theatres
Catharam
"SABRINA"
Humphrey Bogart
Aubrey Hepburn
William Holden

Nittany Doors Open 1 p.m.
Rod Cameron
"SAN ANTONE"
Katy Jurado

We want men for Technical Sales
Can You Qualify?

- 28 years old or younger
- Married or single
- Available for training February 7, 1955

If you have a degree in Engineering, Mathematics or Science (Physics or Chemistry) . . . if you have imagination . . . if you have an analytical approach, we want to talk to you about a sales career with our Company. You will be given an outstanding training program, then assigned to our nation-wide sales organization. Our Company has doubled in size every eight years, offering unlimited opportunities for you.

For further information see your college placement officer, or write to:
ARMSTRONG CORK CO.
Lincoln Street
Lancaster, Pennsylvania