

Hatwomen Crown Mardi King Tonight

Ball, Sing Will End 'Weekend'

By ALICE GRUBB

The Mardi Gras king will be selected at the Mardi Gras Ball in the Temporary Union Building from 9 to midnight tonight. As of 11 p.m. yesterday, results in the coin-balloting for king were not known.

The king will be chosen by audience applause at the ball, sponsored by Chimes, junior women's hat society.

BULLETIN

Warren Gittlin, Jack Greiner, and Bill Wismer were named the three finalists for Mardi Gras King title. The king will be selected at the Mardi Ball tonight.

He will be crowned at 10:30 by Joyce Shusman, president of Mortar Board and Patricia Dickinson, president of Chimes. Tickets for the informal ball, featuring Danny Grove's orchestra, are $1.50.

The king will receive a $15 gift certificate from Jack Harper's Men's Shop. The other two finalists will each receive a $5 gift certificate.

All-University Sing

All-University Sing, final event of the Mardi Gras weekend, sponsored by Scrolls, senior women's hat society, and Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Frank Gullo, associate professor of music, will sing several selections. Gullo and Hummel Fishburn, professor of music, will lead the audience in group singing.

Paddy-wagon--

(Continued from page four)

connected to the tower so the bell could be heard. Suggested the campus paper: "Perhaps it would have been better and less costly to have bought a record." Like Penn State.

No Bird Dogs

The dean's office at Lehigh issued an edict that stag affairs during house party weekend would not be approved and the admission of stag guests would not be sanctioned.

An editorial in the Lehigh Brown and White complained: "Is the dean trying to force women on us? It reminds us of prohibition, only then water was being forced upon us. . . . Might we not say that this edict is one last desperate attempt of the University to send us home with not only a diploma, but with a wife also?"

Members will wear costumes depicting advertisements. After refreshments and entertainment representatives will report on the Cwens national convention held this fall.

Hillel Will Sponsor Bible Course Monday

The cultural committee of Hillel Foundation will sponsor a course in the Old Testament beginning at 8 p.m. Monday. The class will be held each Monday.

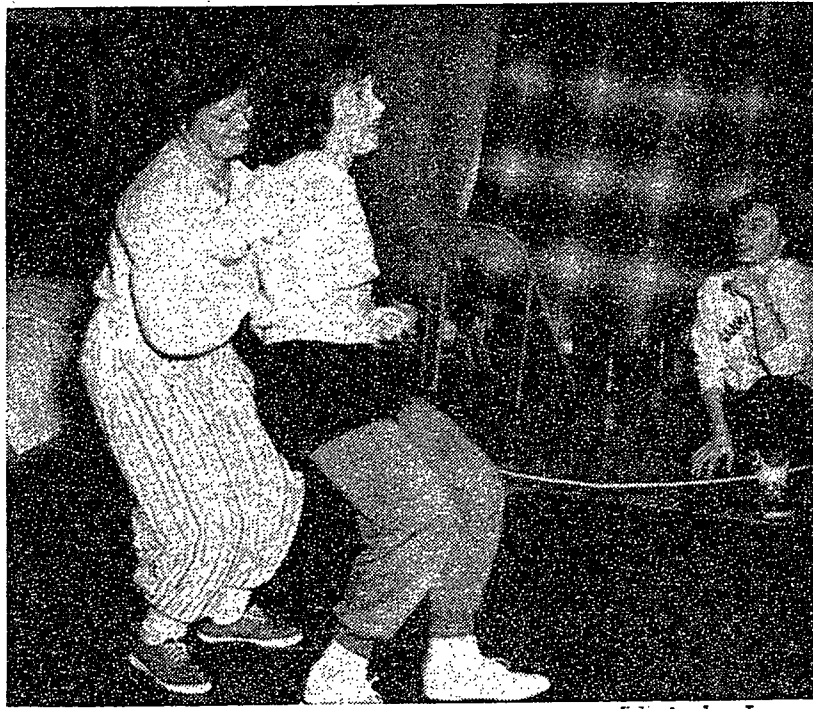

Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn will lead the classes. The course is open to the public, and will be a discussion course on the authorship of the Bible, its structure, the question of miracles in the Bible, and other questions members of the class may raise.

The class will be held at the Foundation, 224 Locust Lane.

New Research Club To Hear Silva Monday

Dr. Ruth C. Silva, assistant professor of political science, will address the first meeting of the newly formed University Research Club at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 105 Pattee Library. Her topic will be "Predictions on the Unpredictable Voter in the Current Elections."

Rec Hall Wrestlers

"GAMMA PHI GRAPPLERS," "Magnificent Milly" McCowan and "Raunchy Randy" Cobb battle it out at the Gamma Phi Beta booth at the Mardi Gras in Recreation Hall last night.

Theta Sig To Hold Tea Tomorrow

Theta Sigma Phi, women's national professional journalism fraternity, will entertain women in news, advertising and home economics journalism, and women active in campus publications at its annual tea from 2 to 4 p.m. tomorrow in the Northeast lounge of Atherton Hall.

Kitty Campbell, women's editor for the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and noted fashion columnist, will be guest speaker. Miss Campbell will also speak to the Journalism 1 and 2 classes at 11 a.m. Monday. Students interested may attend.

This will be the first year that women active in campus publications will attend the tea, Mary Lee Lauffer, president of Theta Sigma Phi, has announced.

Miss Campbell, known to many of her readers by her pen name of Cynthia Cabot, when she worked for the Philadelphia Inquirer, was recently featured with Christian Dior, noted Paris fashion designer, in the October issue of Life magazine.

Before turning to column writing, Miss Campbell wrote radio script. She was graduated from the University and is a former resident of State College.

Cwens to Hold Party For Alumnae Tomorrow

Cwens, sophomore women's hat society, will hold an alumnae party for women who were members of Cwens last year at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Grange playroom.

Members will wear costumes depicting advertisements. After refreshments and entertainment representatives will report on the Cwens national convention held this fall.

Rifle Club to Organize

Women's Recreation Association will organize the Women's Rifle Club at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 2 White Hall. All women interested may attend.

Social Gazette

Mardi Ball, 9 to midnight tonight, Temporary Union Building.

Chapel, 10:55 a.m. tomorrow, Schwab Auditorium.

All-University Sing, 2 p.m. tomorrow, Schwab Auditorium.

Mixer Monday Features Wein

Phillip Wein and his dummy, Elmer Elm, will be on hand to entertain chemistry and physics students at a mixer at 8 p.m. Monday in the Temporary Union Building.

Barbara Foss, president of the Chemistry-Physics Student Council, said that all students are invited to the mixer, although it is primarily for those in the College of Chemistry and Physics.

Freshman women will be granted 10 o'clock permissions, Miss Foss said.

Other entertainment will include skits by Edwin Eckl, members of the faculty, and the American Chemical Society. Refreshments will be served.

Engagements

Held-Fitz

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Fitz of Lancaster announce the engagement of their daughter Ruth to Carl Held, son of Charles J. Held of Neshanic, N.J.

Miss Fitz is a member of Kappa Delta. Mr. Held is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Bleznec-Brooks

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brooks of Philadelphia announce the engagement of their daughter Edithe to Howard Bleznec, son of Mrs. Joseph Axelrod and the late Aaron Bleznec.

Miss Brooks is a seventh semester education major and a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi. Mr. Bleznec is a seventh semester pre-law major and a member of Phi Epsilon Pi.

Schneider-Selbst

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Selbst of Philadelphia announce the engagement of their daughter Sandra to Harvey Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schneider of Long Island, N.Y.

Miss Selbst is a fifth semester education major and a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Mr. Schneider is a seventh semester business major and a member of Phi Epsilon Pi.

Sigma Xi Lecture

Dr. Eugene Ayres, of the Gulf Research and Development Co., will address the members of Sigma Xi, national honorary science society, at 8 p.m. Monday in 110 Electrical Engineering Building.

The lecture is one of the four Dr. Ayres will present this month at Eastern colleges and universities.

Church Groups Set Worship Programs

Sunday evening worship programs will be held by student church organizations tomorrow.

The Rev. Arthur L. Ruths, Lutheran student pastor, will speak at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow to the Lutheran Student Association.

The United Student Fellowship of the Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church will hold a supper meeting followed by a worship service at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow. Cost of the supper will be 35 cents.

A panel discussion on race prejudices, entitled "Are We Color-blind?" will be held at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at Wesley Foundation of the Methodist Church. Members of the panel are Myrtle Brown, Prodipto Roy, Ann Sternier, Kim Yamamoto, and Carl Newton.

Barbara Voysey, third semester medical technology major, will lead a discussion on "Governing a World Community" at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Student Fellowship of St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Westminster Foundation of the Presbyterian Church will hear a panel discussion on "The Unitarian Approach" at 6:20 p.m. tomorrow. Members of the panel are Conrad Trumbore, John Tomlinson, and George Rapp.

Paul Johnson of the American Friends Service Committee will discuss his work with a cooperative village in Israel at a supper meeting of the Young Friends at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

The Newman Club will hold a Jack Frost party at 8 tonight at the student center. Refreshments will be served.

A lox and bagel brunch will be held from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. tomorrow at Hillel Foundation. The cost will be 25 cents for members, 65 cents for non-members. The Hillel Upperclass Independents Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The Canterbury Club of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will hold a supper at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow at the parish house. Following the supper, the Rev. Jones B. Shannon, rector of St. Andrew's, will speak on "A Christian View of Marriage."

Thirty-three Are Initiated By Ed Society

Thirty undergraduate students, two graduate students and a faculty member have been initiated to Pi Lambda Theta, women's education honorary society.

Mildred A. Lucey, associate professor of physical education, and Clemence Flenner and Charlotte Patrick, graduate students in education, were among those named as initiates.

Undergraduate initiates are Peggy Byrnes, Elaine Cohen, Alice Conrad, Ann Cunningham, Barbara Ehrenfeld, Joan Fishburn, Joan Freyler, Theresa Guinard, Sarah Henry, Mary Hudcovich, Loretta Hunter, Janet Hurlbert, Vanessa Johnson, Christine Kauffman.

Virginia Latshaw, Beverly Masters, Peggy Morris, Joan McKinley, Barbara Olson, Barbara Patton, Eleanor Rose, Roberta Sankey, Ruth Schnell, Joan Smith, Ann Spiese, Dorothy Swanson, Constance Weitknecht, Doris Wenger, and Nancy Woodward.

Ag Job Exams To Be Given

Agriculture undergraduates interested in job opportunities as junior agricultural assistants may take a civil service examination. Students who pass the test will complete four years for their bachelor's degree and start immediately after graduation as a GS-5 with beginning salary of $3410.

Interested students may get applications from Dr. Russell B. Dickerson, associate dean of agriculture and director of resident instruction, 112 Agriculture, or from Vance G. Sprague, recruitment representative at the University for the U.S. Civil Service Commission, U.S. Regional Pasture Research Laboratory.

Applications must be filed with the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners at either the department of agriculture or the Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of Interior by Nov. 9. Tests will be arranged after the applications are made.

Co-Edits

Seven women were ribboned last week by sororities. Ribboned were Barbara Nichols and Judith Mitchell, Alpha Gamma Delta; Sally Ostrom, Nancy Seiler and Bessie Zazanis, Zeta Tau Alpha; Maria DeToma and Harlean Benec, Theta Phi Alpha.

Initiated recently were Judith Corfield, Lorraine Chaban and Caroline Bauer, Kappa Delta; Harry Fuehrer, Richard Olson, Herbert Hollowell, James Keisker and Harry Criswell, Delta Tau Delta; Samuel Carnell and Francis Nemeth, Theta Kappa Phi.

Members of the fall pledge class of Theta Kappa Phi are Richard Daum, Thomas DeCarlo, Ronald Ferris, Raymond Flint, Carl Giardini, Joseph McCartney, Edward Patrick, Donald Rance, Donald Ritz, and Richard Surovchak.

Pledge class officers of Kappa Alpha Theta are Susan Walker, president; Barbara Hill, vice president; and Janice Brenner, secretary. Officers of Kappa Delta are Donna Springer, president; Patricia Barr, vice president; Norma Gloor, secretary; and Carol McDougal, treasurer.

James Williams has been elected president of Alpha Chi Rho.

Co-Edits

Phi Kappa

Phi Kappa recently entertained Alpha Gamma Delta at the chapter house.

Delta Chi

Delta Chi recently entertained Alpha Omicron Pi at the chapter house.

Phi Sigma Kappa

New initiates of Phi Sigma Kappa are William Hartman, Allen Davies, Charles Jenner, Joel Gamble, Paul Gale, and Robert Baughman.

FOR REFRESHMENTS

after the football game

THE

VICTORY DINER

Your Favorite Beverages

North on Route 322