ningham, Doug Moorhead, Don Mowry, Ted Garrett, and John Chillrud. Werner will take Pastorius, Woodrow, Moorhead, Mowry, Garrett, and Chillrud, and either Mohler or Roberts.

Lions Set for IC4A's

Seven Penn State cross-country runners will join a star-studded field of some 200 harriers in Monday's 46th Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America title race at Van Cortlandt Park, N.Y.

Jim Pastorius, Doug Moorhead, Don Mowry, Don Woodrow, John Chillrud, and Ted Garrett have been selected by Nittany Coach Chick Werner to take part in the event. Werner said yesterday that he will also take either Dick Mohler or Paul Roberts — both sophomores — to bolster the Lions' chances of winning their seventh IC4A crown.

Norm Shoup of Ambridge will be the lone Lion yearling in the freshman championship race.

Werner said yesterday he felt the race for the team title would resolve itself into a battle between Pitt and Manhattan, with the Panthers being the better choice.

Spartans' Won Last Year

Michigan State, title winner in 1952 and 1953, was hit hard by graduation and will have a rough time holding onto its crown.

Cornell, St. Joseph's, and Maryland were rated behind Pitt and Manhattan by Werner, with Georgetown, Syracuse, and Villanova behind the top five.

Pitt has won 17 consecutive regular-season meets. Carl Olson's Panthers finished second last in the IC4A run and are still after their first championship. Pitt, Manhattan, and Cornell all defeated Penn State this year in regular competition.

In the race for the individual crown, Werner pointed to six harriers as outstanding threats. George King of New York University, Arnie Sowell of Pitt, Don Townsend of St. John's, Bob Sbarra of Manhattan, Steve Armstrong of Syracuse, and Bob Lippemiere of Georgetown were listed by Werner as the top individual stars.

Frosh Booters End Campaign Today

Penn State's freshman booters will close out their 1954 season this afternoon when they angle with "Klein's Homers"—an aggregation composed mainly of graduate students and led by Hubie Kline, former varsity baseball and soccer player.

Game time is 12:15. At present, the yearling eleven has a season's log of one win and two reversals; however, both losses were by the narrow margin of one goal. Their lone victory was at the expense of the Cosmopolitans, 6-3.
