

Runners to Enter NCAA Title Run

Lion cross-country coach Chick Werner will rely on the same six runners who led the team to a fourth-place finish in the IC4A's when the harriers compete in the national championships on Monday.

Like the housewife, who has come to depend a great deal on brand name products, Werner has decided that these six harriers have established themselves and that they can be relied upon. Two sophomores—Don Mowry and Don Woodrow—two juniors—Jim Pastorius and Doug Moorhead—and two seniors—Ted Garrett and John Chillrud—are the half dozen harriers Werner will be counting on.

But, like brand name products, this sextet had to prove itself before being fully accepted.

During regular-season competition Penn State dropped three of four dual meets plus one triangular encounter. One consolation is that the Lions were defeated by the best in the East. Navy and Villanova tripped Penn State in the opening meet, a triangular battle at Annapolis. Villanova placed third in the IC4A title race held Monday at Van Cortlandt Park, N.Y. Navy did not enter the title run.

Cornell was the next team to defeat the Lions. The Ithacans finished sixth in the championship meet. In the following meet the Nittany harriers came up with their lone win. Werner's squad defeated Michigan State, but then lost to Pitt and Manhattan in the final two meets. Carl Olson's Panthers came in second and George Eastment's Jaspers first in the IC4A championship race.

Last year the Lions placed fourth in the National Collegiate Athletic Association title run. This year the race will once again be held at East Lansing, Mich.

Garrett, Chillrud, and Moorhead ran for the Lions in last year's NCAA meet. Garrett finished 53rd with a 21:19 clocking for the four-mile course. Chillrud was 84th at 22:42, and Moorhead's 20:57 clocking was good enough for 30th.

Wes Santee covered the layout in 19:43.5, just seven seconds off the record, to lead Kansas to the title. Indiana came in second, Syracuse third, Pitt fifth, and Michigan State sixth.

Some 200 hill-and-dalers from about 40 teams will take part in the 16th national championship race.

Bell Ruled Eligible

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—The executive council of the Eastern College Athletic Conference decided today that Army halfback Tommy Bell is eligible to play against Navy, Nov. 27.

At the same time it ruled that in the future "turnback" plebes, such as Bell was in his first varsity season, will not be eligible for varsity competition.

Bell's eligibility had been questioned because he had played varsity football in 1951, his second plebe year, after having played on the Army plebe, or freshman, team the previous season.

Yankees Trade Woodling, Byrd

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—The New York Yankees and the Baltimore Orioles have completed one of the biggest baseball deals in years with pitchers Bob Turley and Don Larsen going to the Yankees and veteran outfielder Gene Woodling and pitcher Harry Byrd to the Orioles, it was learned today from an authoritative baseball source.

The trade, which also involves a number of other players, is scheduled to be announced tomorrow.

In addition to Woodling and Byrd, the Yankees will send two young catchers, believed to be Gus Triandos and Hal Smith, and three or four other players to the Orioles. At least two and possibly three others will come to the Yankees along with Baltimore's two outstanding pitchers.

"Part of it is sheer speculation," said Oriole President Clarence Miles in Baltimore. He added there would be no announcement tonight and that when it did come it would be from General Manager Paul Richards. Richards was not immediately available for comment. Neither were any of the Yankee officials in New York.

STATE COLLEGE

'Gift' Goal —

In seven games in 1935 the Lions did not allow their opponents to score. In 1937 the opponents scored only once on the Lions in seven games. The Lions presently have allowed only five goals to slip past their defense, and have posted three shutouts. In the past, particularly during the early years when soccer was just getting started at the University, only three or four games comprised the entire season.

Penn State also has wins posted over the Cosmopolitan Club, 4-2, and Sampson Air Force Base,
