

Asian Promise Made by Dulles

CHICAGO, Nov. 29 (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles declared tonight the United States will "react vigorously" against Communist provocation in Asia but he ruled out for the present any "war action such as a naval and air blockade of Red China."

The secretary said that, in contrast to soft talk from Moscow, the Chinese Communists "have talked and acted with increasing violence."

"They break their armistice agreements and they outrage the elemental decencies of international conduct," Dulles said.

He spoke out after Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California, called for a tight blockade on the Chinese Communist coast in retaliation for the Peiping regime's imprisonment of 13 Americans on what the State Department has called trumped up spy charges.

Dulles said America's greatest contribution to peace "is to be ready to fight, if need be."

His prepared text did not specify that he was here talking of the imprisonment of the 13 Americans, but he had used similar language in notes to the Chinese Communists on the subject.

His speech continued: "Perhaps international communism is trying by a new way to divide the free nations. They seek to be soothing in Europe. They are provocative in Asia . . ."

"What has happened is a challenge to us, and indeed to all who want peace, to find ways, consistent with peace, to sustain international rights and those of our citizens, rather than now resorting to war action such as a naval and air blockade of Red China." President Eisenhower talked over the speech with Dulles before the President went to Augusta, Ga., for the Thanksgiving weekend. Eisenhower has promised to do everything he can by peaceful means, and may speak out in more detail later this week.

U.S. Will Organize Executive Reserve

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (AP)—An organized "executive reserve" of industry and labor union leaders trained for government duty in wartime will be created Wednesday by the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Officials who disclosed this today said it is expected to develop into a government-wide reserve of executives pledged to drop their private affairs and report to Washington immediately on receiving notice of full mobilization.

Some 30 or more industry men, almost all of whom served in emergency control agencies during World War II or the Korean crisis, have been invited by ODM Director Arthur S. Flemming to Wednesday's initial meeting here.

Before being appointed, the businessmen reservists must volunteer to stand by for a call to full-time government duty in an emergency, and to report to Washington periodically for brief terms of refresher training.

Each will be tabbed in advance for his wartime post in ODM or the successor agencies which would sprout out of ODM in wartime-defense production, price administration, wage control, rationing and so on.

Flemming thus hopes to avoid the delay and confusion encountered in each previous emergency, when vital agencies possessing vast war powers were organized on what in government language is called a crash basis. That means get it going in a hurry at any cost.

B-25 Plane Crash Kills Five Airmen

BALTIMORE, Nov. 29 (AP)—The bodies of five men were found today in the wreckage of an Air Force B-25 which crashed last night against a wooded hillside about two miles from Friendship International Airport where it was attempting to make an emergency landing.

A sixth man, found alive by rescuers nearly 12 hours after the crash, is in critical condition but expected to live.

The two-engine plane, on a routine training mission returning from Tulsa, Okla., to Andrews Air Force Base near Washington, crashed about 10:30 p.m. shortly after it contacted the Friendship tower that it was running short of gas.

Optical authorities estimate that there are 11,132,544 lens combinations possible for eyeglasses.

Churchill Reaches Birthday Threshold With World Plans

LONDON, Nov. 29 (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill tonight reached the threshold of his 80th birthday immersed in plans for the future of Britain and the world.

Tomorrow Churchill will be 80 and a new session of Parliament will be opened by Queen Elizabeth II. The two events—one looking back and the other forward—are entwined in a program that provides Churchill a strenuous day even by his standards.

Elsewhere in London, in a small, three-room office, 50 volunteer workers struggled to keep ahead of an avalanche of checks, letters and telegrams pouring in for Churchill's 80th birthday Presentation fund. The fund has now reached more than $280,000.

Senate Agreement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) won Senate agreement tonight to wind up debate and start voting Wednesday on the question of censuring him.

Sen. William Langer (R-ND) blocked the move for a while, but withdrew his objection after earnest appeals on the Senate floor by Republican and Democratic leaders—as well as by McCarthy and his supporters.

At the same time the Wisconsin senator refused to back down an inch from the views and actions reflected in those words of his.

McCarthy tried at one point to get in proviso that he could file some censure charges of his own against his accusers. Under the rules, this would give those accused—McCarthy named Sens. Ralph Flanders (R-Vt), J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) and Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore) as likely targets—only 30 minutes to defend themselves.

Sen. Everett Dirksen (R-Ill) announced he will have ready a complete substitute for the censure resolution submitted by the Watkins committee and lately broadened to rebuke McCarthy for attacking the Watkins committee itself. This is the special bipartisan committee appointed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), appointed to investigate charges of unbecoming conduct against McCarthy.

'Merry Widow' Uses Poison on 4 Husbands

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 29 (AP)—The smile that wreathed Mr. Nannie Doss' plump face through cheerful confessions that she poisoned four of her five husbands vanished today at her arraignment on a murder charge.

Interrogators, who have said at least four other persons once closely associated with the defendant died strange deaths, quoted the gum-chewing Mrs. Doss after her last confession as saying:

"You can dig up all the other graves in the world but you won't find anything else on me."
