

Forfeits Mar Boxing Opener

The intramural boxing program got off to a poor start last night when only three of the 15 scheduled bouts were fought. The other 12 bouts were forfeited because some of the contestants failed to reach the proper weights.

In the first bout, a 135-pound class attraction, Andy Bergeesen of Sigma Nu copped the decision from Gary Gehrig of Delta Sigma Phi.

In the 145-pound class all three bouts were forfeits. Al McChesney of Phi Kappa Sigma, who has copped the laurels in two other divisions in previous years, got off to a good start in his quest for a grand slam when he was awarded a forfeit over Eric Omholt of Kappa Sigma.

Charles Terssier of Delta Chi and Joe Erickson of Chi Phi were also awarded wins when their opponents—Joe Vilseck of Phi Sigma Kappa and Bill Stappenbeck of Alpha Tau Omega were unable to make the weight limit.

In the 155-pound division Jack Sadler, Alpha Tau Omega, closed fast to gain the official's nod over Bob Grove of Delta Sigma Phi. In other bouts Jim Musser, Sigma

Alpha Epsilon, won on a forfeit over Bob Misko of Phi Kappa; Sheldon Chaiken, Beta Sigma Rho, was awarded a forfeit over Dick Packer of Phi Gamma Delta and Bob Lash of Alpha Zeta took a forfeit win over Joe Hayes, Phi Kappa Psi.

The 165-pound division produced the most exciting tussle on the abbreviated program. Aggressive Bob Springer of Phi Kappa Sigma swarmed all over his opponent Frank McFadden, Phi Gamma Delta, to take the verdict when the bout was stopped midway in the second round. Two boxers also won the easy way in this division. Dave Myerson, Alpha Zeta, and Earl Cairns, Theta Xi, were given forfeit wins over Gary Lindstrom, Sigma Pi, and Mario D'Alessio, Pi Kappa Alpha.

The 175-pound class bouts were both forfeited. Herb Hallowell, Delta Tau Delta, over John Lawrence, Chi Phi, and Sid Grobman, Alpha Epsilon Pi, over Ken Mack, Theta Xi, each chalked up forfeit wins.

Cagers Will Battle St. Francis Tonight

Penn State and St. Francis meet tonight in an exhibition basketball game at Recreation Hall—final warmup contest for the Lions before they open their regular season schedule with Dickinson Saturday night. Game time is 7 p.m.

The game is the second pre-season tilt the two teams have played. The Lions lost the first game against the Frankies but played without the services of high-scoring Jesse Arnette.

Baylor, Auburn In Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 30 (AP)—The Gator Bowl made the best football match of its 10-year history when Baylor and Auburn agreed to play in the Dec. 31 game.

The Auburn Tigers of the Southeastern Conference won their last six games and were rated No. 13 in the final Associated Press poll.

The Baylor Bears, first Southwest Conference team to come to the Gator Bowl, rated No. 18 after a final game loss to Rice knocked them out of a tie for the conference title.

The selection committee, headed by Jim McGregor, completed arrangements with officials of Auburn and Baylor by telephone this afternoon.

Defending Champs Lose In Intramural Basketball

By JOHN LAWRENCE

A 20-point second half rally proved to be the deciding factor when Theta Xi edged Phi Sigma Delta, last year's IM champions, 26-25, and shared the winners' spotlight with three fraternity quintets and six independent fives in Monday night's intramural basketball action.

Trailing by four points at halftime, 10-6, Theta Xi, sparked by Milt Linjal's 13 points, turned loose a second half attack that produced 20-points and an eventual "last ditch" victory.

Zeke Radokovich burned the cords for a game-high 20 points and Don Sommerly threw in 12 more when the "Chug-a-lugs" increased their 18-12 halftime margin over the Four F's with a staggering 53-26 final score.

Dorm 31 limited rival Dorm 44 to a second half total of four points and managed to account for 12 counters themselves as they piled up a 23-13 victory.

Pi Kappa Alpha, sparked by the 13 point production of John Williams, managed to stay in front of Tau Phi Delta and finished with a 27-17 margin.

Trailing by 16-12 at the half-way mark, the Greensmokers came up with 25 points in the second half to produce a surprising 37-27 victory over Dorm 11. Bob Greer and Joe Pekarek each dumped in 10 points for the winners.

The Cave Men kept their head above water and finished ahead of the Trompers, 24-18, and the Gnats squeezed by the Renegades in a close one, 15-14.

Behind Bill Wehmer's 13 counters, the Lions roared to a 38-21 victory over the Sixty-Niners.

Delta Chi overpowered a Pi Kappa Phi five, 47-27, as the winners' John Evans dented the cords for 15 points. Harry Holm accounted for 14 points for the Pi Kapps', in a losing cause.

Looking ahead with General Electric

How do you measure up in leadership qualities?

A young man who can lead has always had a good chance of success, but his prospects were never better than now. There's a steadily growing demand in industry for men to fill top professional and management jobs... fellows with a special ability to work well with other people and inspire their best work. At General Electric, we're constantly on the lookout for them.

Ten traits we look for, above, add up to a pretty good indication of potential success in business. Not everyone has them all to a top degree, but the basic characteristics are always present and can be developed in the men we pick to help lead General Electric. We hope you can rate yourself very high on the list and find it helpful.
