

Six Appointed To Spring Week Carnival Group

Six students have been named to the Spring Week Carnival Committee, Donald Bell, chairman of the Cabinet Personnel Interviewing Committee, said yesterday.

Bell said the list which was announced at Thursday All-University Cabinet meeting and published in yesterday's Daily Collegian was incorrect, in that it included all those interviewed for the positions.

The correct list is: Daniel Land, Faith Gallagher, Daniel Van Duyne, Eleanor Gwynn, Edward Redfield, and Marilyn Seltzer. The others named yesterday are not on the committee, but may contact Bell for further information.

The list of the coronation committee was correct as released, Bell said.

The committee will meet tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. to interview for other Spring week committees. Applicants will be interviewed as follows: 7:30, applicants with no preference; 7:45, Mad Hatters committee, Nancy Scholfield, chairman; 8:00, Publicity, Diehl McKalip, chairman; 8:15, Arrangements, Otto Hetzel, chairman; 8:30, Parade, William R. Johnson, chairman; and 8:45, He-Man committee, Donald Bell, chairman.

The Parade committee has only two positions open because of previous interviews.

Council to Hold Coffee Hour

The annual fall coffee hour sponsored by the Agriculture Student Council will be held from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. next Wednesday in the Livestock Pavilion.

The coffee hour is held in an attempt to acquaint agriculture students with their county agents in extension. The extension workers of the University will hold their annual meeting from Monday through Dec. 18. The coffee hour has become a standard part of the extension program.

Dr. Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the College of Agriculture; Dr. Russell B. Dickerson, associate dean and director of resident instruction; and Dr. Herbert R. Albrecht, associate dean of director of agriculture and home economics extension, will give short talks after which students will meet county agents.

Foreign Students to Talk On Christmas Customs

Three foreign students will discuss "Christmas Around the World" at the University Christian Association Assembly at 7 tonight in 304 Old Main.

The students are Saleem Shah, graduate student in psychology from India; Ijigu Demmissie, special student in meteorology from Ethiopia; and Worku Tafara, special student in meteorology from Ethiopia.

A weekly devotions period will precede the meeting at 6:45 tonight.

Circulo Espanol Meets At Pine Cottage Tonight

Circulo Espanol, club for Spanish-speaking students, will meet at 8 tonight in Pine Cottage.

The meeting will be held jointly with a Latin-American labor-management group which is visiting the campus. Two films on Mexican life, one a color film on Mexico City, will be shown.

Marburger to Speak

Ausmus S. Marburger, vice president and general manager of the New Holland Machinery Co., will discuss the application of farm machinery to grassland farming at a meeting of the Agricultural Economics Club at 7:30 tonight at Theta Delta Chi.

Sutton to Speak Tonight

The Marketing Club will have as speaker John B. Sutton, president of Sutton Engineering Co., at 7:30 tonight at Beta Sigma Rho. Sutton will speak on industrial selling. Old and new members may attend.

Dean to Take Pajama Game Comedy Role

The dean of women at American University in Washington, D.C. has been granted a leave of absence to play the role of Mabel in "The Pajama Game," currently a Broadway musical hit.

Miss Marguerite Shaw, according to the Associated Press, will tour in the national company of the musical comedy.

Her sister Reta Shaw, who plays Mabel in the Broadway company, but is best known as Aunt Lil' on TV's "Mr. Peepers," told her the producers were having casting troubles for the road company. Marguerite Shaw said she suggested facetiously that she try out. She did, and she won the part.

"I was a little worried about the reaction in the supposedly austere academic circles," Miss Shaw said. "The reaction wasn't at all like that. Everybody wished me well. Academic circles aren't as austere as you'd imagine," she said.

SAM to Hold Dance For IE Department

A department of industrial engineering mixer, sponsored by the Society for the Advancement of Management, will be held at 7 tonight in the Temporary Union Building.

Entertainment will be provided by students and faculty. A combo composed of men in the industrial engineering curriculum will provide music and refreshments will be served.

Mil Ball Tickets

A few Military Ball tickets are still available in Reserve Officer's Training Corps offices. The Army offices are located in Carnegie Hall, the Navy offices in Engineering E, and the Air Force offices in the Armory.

The dance will be held from 9 to 1 Friday night in Recreation Hall.

Fire Conduct

Borough police Saturday night charged Bruce Kempf, third semester electrical engineering major, with driving over a fire hose during the fire at O. W. Houts & Son, Inc. The case will be brought before Borough Justice of the Peace.

French Club Meets Tomorrow

French Club will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow night in the northeast lounge of Atherton Hall.

Keller, Alumnus, Dies in N.J. Home

Dr. Henry Keller, member of the staff of Rutgers University in the department of agricultural economics and a graduate of the University, died at his home in Plainfield, N.J., on Nov. 22. He was 59.

Dr. Keller entered the University in 1917, but his schooling was interrupted by World War I. Several years later he was graduated and later received his master's and doctor's degrees at the University of Wisconsin.

He is survived by his wife and two children.

Prof to Speak to Pre-Vet Club

Dr. Penoyer F. English, professor of wildlife management, will speak on "Wildlife Management" to the Pre-Vet Club at 7 tonight at Alpha Zeta.

Haas Named 'Prof of Year'

Dr. Charles G. Haas, assistant professor of chemistry, was named "Professor of the Year" by the College of Chemistry and Physics at the annual Student Council-Faculty banquet last week.

Haas was given an inscribed scroll. He was elected by students in the college last spring.

During the discussion which followed, Philip Matin, council member, suggested the possibility of having a series of speakers from industry and scientific fields to talk to chem-phys students about fields they might enter upon graduation.

Further discussion on the proposed colloquiums will be at the council meeting Dec. 15.
