

Wurfl to Conduct Christmas Sing

The 25th annual German Sing will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab Auditorium.

George J. Wurfl, professor emeritus of German, who founded the program and has presided at each of the previous sings, will conduct the program.

Wurfl will also read the story of the Nativity, as recorded by St. Luke, and will deliver in English his traditional talk.

Simmons Coeds Present Sing; Moran Guest

The women students in Simmons Hall and a guest, John Moran, fifth semester arts and letters major, presented a musicale Sunday evening in the main lounge of Simmons.

The program consisted of selections by soloists, a string ensemble, a harpist, and a sextet.

The Simmons chorus sang "Wind Through the Olive Tree" and "Mid Winter" (Traditional) to begin the program.

Betty Horton, seventh semester arts and letters major, sang "Gesù Bambino" (Pietro A. Yon). The chorus made its final appearance singing "Sleigh Ride" (Arderson). Three Christmas carols were rendered by the string ensemble. They were "O Little Town of Bethlehem" (Redner), "Silent Night" (Gruber) and a Danish carol.

The harpist, Anne Hosfeld, fifth semester arts and letters major, continued the program, playing "Ariso" (Bach) and "Cavalleria Rusticana" (Mascagni).

The Simmons sextet sang "Twas the Night Before Christmas" (Darby). It was followed on the program by Moran who sang selected numbers.

The carol "O Holy Night" (Adams) sung by Georgiana Eckroth, fifth semester arts and letters major, concluded the program.

Home Ec Council Plans Freshman-Faculty Tea

Plans were made for the Freshman-Faculty Tea, to be held January 16 in Simmons Lounge, at a recent meeting of the Home Economics Council.

Council also discussed student evaluation of courses and suggested setting up a suggestion box in which the students can place their criticisms. They would like to encourage the faculty to ask for criticism, both favorable and unfavorable, in order for improvements to be made.

17 Entertain Luncheon Club With Caroling

Seventeen members of the Chapel Choir, under the direction of Willa C. Taylor, professor of music education, entertained the Faculty Luncheon Club yesterday at the State College Hotel.

The appearance of the choir members was part of the surprise program Mrs. Taylor had planned for the club.

It had been assumed she would deliver an address, but as she made her opening remarks singing was heard in the background and the choir members entered the dining room.

They sang: "O Little One Sweet, O Little One Mild," "Covenant Carol," "What Child is This?" "Lo! How a Rose Ere Blooming," "Psallite," "The Holly and the Ivy," and "Bring A Torch."

Then the singers dispersed themselves among the audience to lead faculty members in singing: "The First Noel," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Joy to the World," and "Deck the Hall."

The faculty luncheon club will elect a new steering committee at its next meeting.

UCA Calendar Sales to Continue

The sale of the University Christian Association centennial calendar will continue throughout this week, Mary Jane Wyland, acting executive secretary, said yesterday.

The calendar contains a page for each week of 1955, each accompanied by a full-page illustration of some phase of campus life in the past century.

The cost of the calendar is $1. Copies will be mailed to families and friends for an additional ten cents for postage.

The calendar is on sale at the student union desk in Old Main, the UCA office in 304 Old Main, and at Keeler's bookstore.

UCA Square Dance

Jerome Kleisath and Paul Kleisath, third semester students, will call for the University Christian Association square dance from 7 to 9 tonight in the Temporary Union Building.

'Theater' to Present Grad Student's Play

"The First Day of Summer," by Bert States, graduate student in English, will be seen for the first time at 8 tonight in the Little Theater in Old Main.

The original three-act play is being presented by the Experimental Theater, under the direction of Kelly Yeaton, associate professor of dramatics. The play tells about the unsuccessful marriage of an older couple. The wife, realizing their mistakes, tries to save the marriage of their young, next-door neighbors from heading in the same direction.

Richard Land, graduate student in physics, will be seen as Walt Bell, and Deborah Peek, seventh semester arts and letters major, will play Emily Bell.

Nancy Shiffler, fifth semester education major, and John Joyce, fifth semester labor-management relations major, will play Gwen and Bud Barclay. Eleven-year-old Walter Ebaugh, of State College, will play their son George.

Mrs. Joetta Laing, third semester arts and letters major, will be seen as Mary Kennedy. Paul Talley, graduate student in dramatics, will play both Fred Bell and Walt Brothi. Robert A. Cox, eighth semester arts and letters major, will be seen as Smokey Thompson.

Gerald Denisof, third semester arts and letters major, will play the station master; Richard Higgins, graduate student in dramatics, will be seen as the watchman; Jay Broad, seventh semester arts and letters major, will play Dr. Frank; and Ronald Taylor, third semester student, and Carl Held, fourth semester arts and letters major, will be seen as the rug men.

Stage manager for the production is Jay Broad. Carl Held is assistant stage manager.

The play will also be presented at 8 tomorrow night and Thursday. Tickets may be obtained at the dramatics department office, second floor of Schwab.

The Experimental Theater is under the direction of Warren S. Smith, associate professor of dramatics, and is an outgrowth of a program to present original one-act plays.

Jazz Club Will Meet

The Jazz Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in 105 White Hall to nominate officers and discuss further organization. Dave Brubeck tapes will be played at the meeting. Faculty members and interested students may attend.

PAT FLECK

Okay, Joe?

Jim Moyer's the culprit. This Theta Chi pinned her in October . . . that takes the rest of you fellows out of the running!

Nineteen-year-old Pat is from Star Lake (I never heard of it either) N.Y. Pledging Gamma Phi Beta, this beauty is a soc. major and makes horseback riding her hobby.

I told you the standards were going to be high this year.

There's a Zafis fellow over at Sigma Phi Epsilon you might like to hear about. After 5 years of photographing fraternity parties, he's the only social chairman I've ever seen who's really been on the ball. It's an amazing sight to walk into a fraternity house and find the group completely arranged, seated, and waiting to be photographed.

Thanks a million, George. Have a happy vacation. Sincerely, B.C.
