

Garrity Wins Starting Nod In Sr. Bowl

Jim Garrity, end on the Penn State football team for the past three years, will start at an offensive end post for the North in today's annual Senior Bowl game at Mobile, Ala.

Garrity achieved nation-wide fame over the Christmas holidays by making good on one of two extra points to give the East a 13-12 win over the West in the annual Shrine game at San Francisco.

The Lion griddler, hampered by injuries during the latter part of the past season, was on the receiving end of nine passes.

During his junior year, probably his best, he received 30 passes and converted successfully on 17 of 19 PAT attempts.

In both seasons he gained numerous post-season honors, being named to several all-Pennsylvania, all-East, and national teams.

A massive and swift line, consisting of several all-Americans, makes the South a one-touch-down favorite in this year's senior classic.

With both squads loaded with sharp-shooting passers and explosive runners, the difference in the 25-man clubs could well be decided by the defense thrown up by North coach Paul Brown and his opponent Steve Owen.

Met AAU Meet Will Start Season

NEW YORK, Jan. 7 (AP)—The indoor track season opens tomorrow with the Metropolitan AAU championships in which a field of 350 athletes will compete in 15 events.

Four field events will be held in the morning at Columbia's South Field and the balance of the program at the 102nd Engineers Armory at night.

Horace Ashenfelter, Olympic steeplechase champion who set a new meet record by running three miles in 14:02.9, is expected to challenge that mark with strong competition from Gordon McKenzie of the Pioneer Club, national 10,000-meter cross country champ.

McKenzie also will run the mile in which Fred Wilt, an FBI agent like Ashenfelter, will compete.

Chicago Blackhawks Add Bisons to Farm System

BUFFALO, N.Y., Jan. 7 (AP)—The Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey League today purchased the Buffalo Bisons of the American League in a move to strengthen their farm system.

The sale was announced here by a spokesman for the Bisons' owner, Louis M. Jacobs of Sportservice, Inc., a stadium and arena concession firm.

William D. Joseph, Jacobs' assistant, said the club would remain in Buffalo and in the American Hockey League.

He said the Buffalo interests would have first option to repurchase in the event the club is ever resold by Chicago.

No purchase price was announced, but the sum was reported to be about $150,000.

For two years (1946 and 1947) Ted Williams of the Red Sox failed to steal a single base.

Columbus Rejoins Triple A League Again

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 7 (AP)—After being without a team for only 25 days, Columbus today again took its place among the nation's Triple A minor league baseball cities.

The combined efforts of nine Columbus businessmen who put up a half-million dollars were announced today as bringing the Ottawa, Canada, franchise of the International League to this former American Assn. city.

Frederick E. Jones, spokesman for the purchasing group to be known as the Columbus Baseball Co., disclosed the syndicate had paid the Kansas City Athletics $50,000 for the Ottawa franchise.

Hayes Denies Reprimand

CHICAGO, Jan. 7 (AP)—Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State today denied a report he had been reprimanded by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., for his comments after the Rose Bowl game.

Hayes had said four other Big Ten teams besides Ohio State were better than Southern California, defeated by the Buckeyes 20-7 New Year's Day.

Ring Probe Proposed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 (AP)—Rep. Magnuson (D.-Wash.) said today he will lay proposals for an investigation of boxing before the Senate Commerce Committee. But he indicated he didn't think the senators would get into a full-scale hearing "at this time."
