Campus Facilities To Remain Open

By NANCY SHOWALTER

Contrary to what most students would believe, many campus organizations and facilities continue to function during finals and registration just the same as they have been.

One which will continue through finals is campus radio station WDFM. Students who are fortunate enough to have FM radios may hear "Music to Study By" from Friday to Jan. 27. The station will go off the air Jan. 27; and resume broadcasting Feb. 7.

Those students who are really ambitious and want to get rid of this semester's books as soon as possible may take them to the Used Book Agency in the Temporary Union Building from 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesday to Jan. 28.

Attending chapel services Sunday morning will make a good break for students who are usually "bogged down" at this time anyway.

Dr. John Dillenberger, professor of historical theology at Harvard University Divinity School, will speak on the topic "The Church in Life and Life in the Church" at this last chapel service of the semester.

Senate Committee

The number of students promoting organizations or soliciting memberships to these organizations outside Recreation Hall during registration will be fewer this year. The Senate Committee on Student Affairs has taken action on the matter and decided that special permission must be granted by the Committee to students who want to solicit at Rec Hall.

The material handed out there is often thrown away by students and the walks in front of Rec Hall become littered with paper.

The University infirmary, ready for all casualties, will be open 24 hours a day during finals and between semesters. The Dispensary will also be open for students use.

The University library has a complicated schedule for Jan. 28 to Feb. 6. It will be open from 7:50 a.m. to 5 p.m. Jan. 28, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Jan. 29, and closed on Jan. 30. From Jan. 31 to Feb. 4 it will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and will be open from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Feb. 5. It will be closed Feb. 6 and will resume its regular schedule Feb. 7.

This is the last issue of the Daily Collegian to be published until Feb. 8.

SU Desk

The Student Union desk will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. throughout finals and between semesters.

No students will be allowed to remain in residence halls between noon Jan. 29, and 1 p.m., Feb. 1. After that time students may move back again.

The last meal served in the dormitories will be dinner on Jan. 28.

Sophomore, junior, and senior women may be out of the dormitories until 11 p.m. during the final exam period. Freshmen women will get 10 p.m. permissions. The weekend permissions will be as usual on Friday and Saturday night; for all women.

The skating rink, which has been very popular since its opening this month, will remain open throughout the final exam and registration period from 1 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 10 p.m.

Alumni Fund Final 1954 Total Is $135,303

The Alumni Fund has been enriched by $135,303.91, according to the final total for 1954 released by Ray S. Tannehill, general chairman of the Fund.

Tannehill reported that the 1954 total brought to $322,511, the amount contributed since the Alumni Fund program was started in 1953.

The Alumni Fund was established to encourage contributions from graduates of the University. The money goes to projects for which appropriated funds and income are not available.

Among the projects for which the money will be spent are the proposed All-Faith Chapel, the Pattee Library collection, the new Hetzel Union Building, and special scholarships.

Plans are now in progress for the Centennial Fund for 1955, according to Tannehill.

Ground-breaking Plans Not Yet Made—Glenn

No plans have been made for the ground breaking ceremony for the proposed infirmary wing, Dr. Herbert R. Glenn, director of the University health service, said yesterday.

He said he didn't know whether the University would have an ambulance but stated that there is space allotted in the plans for the infirmary wing for one.

Outing Club Trip Set for Tuesday

Approximately 38 students will leave State College Tuesday for a week's outing at Red House in Allegheny State Park, N.Y.

The trip is being sponsored and planned by the winter sports division of the Penn State Outing Club. The club has rented cabins for the outing. The group will do its own cooking.

Besides the skiing, skating, and other winter sports available in the park, the club has planned special group activities for the evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black will accompany the group. Mrs. Black is a graduate assistant in recreation.

Persons planning to attend the outing will meet in the basement of Recreation Hall Sunday to prepare their skis and other equipment for the trip.

380 Students Withdraw During Fall Semester

Three hundred and eighty University students have dropped out of school this semester as compared to 401 at this time last year.

Of the total number 62 were women students and 318 were men.
