

22 Sororities Begin Informal Rushing

Upperclasswomen with a 1.0 All-University average or better are eligible for informal rushing this semester. Rushing began for the 22 sororities on campus yesterday.

Upperclasswomen who are interested in rushing can register at the Dean of Women's office in 105 Old Main. A list of rushees who have registered will be sent to all sororities.

Under the Panhellenic rushing code, coe dates may be held from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday in the sorority suites. Rushing is not allowed in coeds' rooms.

There is no planned entertainment and no refreshments may be served during informal rushing.

Semi-Strict Period
According to the recent rushing revisions passed by Panhellenic Council, there will be a semi-strict silence period between the rushee and the sorority from the time a bid is issued until it is answered. The rule previously provided for a strict silence period.

Sororities may not issue bids to the rushees until one week after informal rushing begins. Bids must be returned unsealed to the Dean of Women's office by the rushees. Rushees have one week to answer their bids. All bids must be stamped with the Panhellenic seal.

Rushing Violations
Violations of the rushing code will be heard by the judicial committee of Panhellenic Council. In reporting violations two copies of the complaint should be given to the committee by the sorority reporting the violation.

Coeds Can Apply For Scholarships

Women may still apply for the Delta Delta Delta general scholarship. Applications will be due Feb. 25.

Applicants do not have to be sorority members to be eligible. Each scholarship awarded will be $200.

Those receiving scholarships will be notified by May 1. Scholarships will be forwarded to the coeds at the beginning of the term for which the awards are granted.

MISS BETH RANZ, Alpha Diaper Xi Okay, Joe?

Don't titter! If someone snatched your bottle, you'd probably look a lot worse.

Beth is one of the few Okay, Joe girls whose pin serves a real function. You see, she's as practical as she is beautiful. Doesn't even use pancake!

Asked about her lovely wavy hair, Beth casually mentioned something about using a corrugated washboard as a pillow.

I thought I detected a note of hesitancy from Beth upon being offered the use of a sultry low cut shoulder drape. But perhaps, understandably. As you can see, she is somewhat "chesty".

Well, back to work. It looks like the lovely Kappa Deltas are on our schedule for this week.

Just what records would you enjoy listening to during your sitting—you name it—we've got it!

Sincerely,
b c

Five Coeds Named To College Board

Five women students have been named to represent the University on Mademoiselle magazine's annual College Board. They are Dorothea Ebert, eighth semester home economics major, Elaine Giltman, sixth semester home economics major, Judith Harkinson, second semester journalism major, Mary Loubris, eighth semester arts and letters major, and Nancy Snyder, sixth semester journalism major.

The College Board is composed of 700 students selected from colleges and universities throughout the nation. As members of the board, they will represent their campuses and report to the magazine on the activities of the colleges.

Each member will complete three major assignments in competition for the 20 guest editorships awarded each May by Mademoiselle. These assignments will be in the fields of writing, editing, fashion, advertising or art.

Successful competitors for guest editorships will spend four weeks in New York working on the magazine staff. They will help write, edit and illustrate the August issue of the magazine.

In addition to their magazine work the guest editors will interview outstanding men and women in their chosen fields, will visit fashion showrooms, publishing houses and advertising agencies. They will be paid a regular salary for their work.

Joan Packard, a board member representing the University last year, was awarded one of the 20 guest editorships.

The Harmony Shop Presents The Kenton Era

The Harmony Shop at 135 South Frazier Street is now taking orders for the famous Album—THE KENTON ERA. This is a limited editions album and will sell for $24.95 on either 33 or 45RPM speeds.

Mr. Vespa, owner of the Harmony Shop, believes that this great set is the personification of one of the most fascinating jazz personalities of our age.

The set is a comprehensive biography and description of the man KENTON. It is presented in a complete form that covers each of the distinctive periods in "THE KENTON ERA." All of the selections in the set are previously unreleased. The music is divided into the periods which best represent the growth and progress of KENTON'S music.

Included in this beautiful set of metallic acetate, strikingly printed in black and red, is a 50-page book which tells something of the reasons for the direction of the music, something of the events and personalities which influences it, and identifies in complete discography form each selection. Accompanying the records and story of STAN KENTON, his orchestra, and his music, is a wealth of photographic material illustrating "THE KENTON ERA" with great dramatic impact.

No KENTON fan, jazz collector, jazz historian or music lover can afford to overlook this tremendous set. Because of this, Mr. Vespa of the Harmony Shop, on South Frazier St., has done his utmost to get as many sets as possible of this limited issue of "THE KENTON ERA" so that none of the hundreds of his fans on our Campus will go without. If for any reason you can't come to the Harmony Shop call at once AD 7-2130 and have your copy reserved for you.
