

Army Mat, Gym Teams Visit Lions Tomorrow

Army draws a double-barreled bead on Rec Hall tomorrow night when its wrestling and gymnastic teams visit the Lions to offer local fans a three-hour twin bill which promises to be packed with explosive sports action.

Cadet mat coach Lloyd Appleton, whose squad owns a 2-3 record, will open the sports double-header at 7 p.m. when his squad springs into action against Penn State which sports a 3-1 card. The Army-Lion gym contest has been tagged to start at 8:45 p.m.

Penn State wrestling coach Charlie Spedel has announced he will stick with the same lineup that netted the Lions a 22-8 victory against Syracuse last week.

Following is Spedel's starting lineup with each man's record and weight division:

Sid Nodland (123), 3-0-1; captain Sid Nodland (123), 3-0-1; captain Bob Homan (130), 4-0; Larry Fornicola (137), 3-0; Dave Adams (147), 4-0; Len McNeal (157), 0-1; Joe Humphries (167), 0-1; Joe Krufka (177), 3-1; and Bill Oberly (heavyweight), 3-1.

Gene Wettstone's Lion gymnasts will be out to gain undisputed possession of first place in EIGA competition, when they go against the Cadet gym team in the evening's nightcap.

The West Point performers, holders of a 4-0 slate, will be counting on a host of veterans to stop the Nittanians from continuing their two-year dominance in the East.

Penn State captain Karl Schwenzfeier will continue in his iron-man role, appearing in three events—side horse, parallel bars, and flying rings.

Skeets Haag will lead a list of Lion rope climbers, Bill Paxton will be number one on the mats, and Skip Heim will be shooting for top honors on the horse.

Wettstone will have Dion Weisend, Tony Cline, and Al Poydock on the horizontal bar, Don Rehm and Harry Calley on the parallels, Dave Kennedy and Dud Potter on the mats, and Leroy Fritch and Bill Marshall behind Haag on the rope.

The Cadets thus far own wins over Syracuse, North Carolina, Georgia Tech and Temple.

LUCKY DROODLES! WE'VE GOT 'EM!

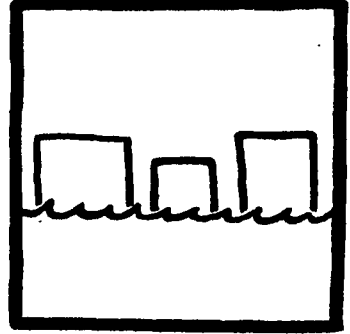

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.

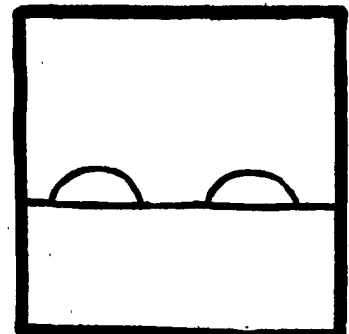

IT'S EASY TO SEE that the Doodle above is titled: Tired anthropologist relaxing with better-tasting Lucky behind freshly dug-up fossil. No bones about it, Luckies taste better to all sorts of people. College smokers, for instance, prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the latest, greatest coast-to-coastest college survey. Again, the No. 1 reason for Luckies' wide lead: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.
