

Queen Candidates Deadline March 3

The deadline for the names of candidates for May Queen from women's dormitory units was announced as March 3 by the Women's Student Government Association House of Representatives last night.

Nominees are required to submit a five by seven inch picture to be displayed in one of the store windows of State College. Pictures may be given to Anne Beebe or Diane Edelman, co-chairmen of the elections committee.

Hemlock Queen Workers
Margaret Fisher, chairman of the May Day decorations committee, asked for women volunteers to help make the Hemlock Chain. The work will begin one week prior to May Day and will take only one evening for each woman.

May Day teas will be held in the individual buildings.

Three Appointed
Judy Sedor, Jane Cameron, and Miss Fisher were appointed to act as hostesses at a freshman tea to be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the dean of women's office.

Miss Beebe, acting speaker of the House, announced that WSGA primary elections will be held March 22. Final elections will take place March 24.

Bring Cards to Date
House urged women students to fill out their activity cards to date in the dean of women's office.

The University Christian Association-WSGA Marriage Conference will be held at 7:30 p.m. March 8, 9, and 10 in Simmons Lounge. Inter-faith speakers will address the programs.

Miss Jeanne Lindaman, new assistant to the dean of women in charge of activities, has been named adviser to the House.

Club to Hear Brewster
Dr. R. Wallace Brewster, professor of political science, will speak on "Professors in Harrisburg" at the Faculty Luncheon Club meeting at noon Monday in the State College Hotel.

Social Gazette
Center Stage, "Children of Darkness," 8 tonight, Temporary Union Building.

Religious Groups Plan Activities

Four student religious groups have made plans for tonight.

Wesley Foundation has planned a "he versus she" basketball game at 7:30 tonight. Round dancing will follow the game.

Stations of the Cross service will be held at 7 tonight in Our Lady of Victory Church. Newman Club will hold open house at the student center following the service.

The Sabbath Eve service of Hillel Foundation will commemorate the University Centennial. Rabbi Benjamin Kahn, director of the foundation, will officiate at the service at 8 tonight. The Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger, University chaplain, will speak.

The Rev. Eric Eife, field representative of the North Africa Mission, will speak at the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship meeting at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

Chairmen Named For Freshman Tea

Committee chairmen for the Women's Student Government Association Freshman Tea for Coeds have been named.

The tea will be held from 2:30 to 5 p.m. March 20 in the Atherton lounge.

Patricia Lehr and Joyce Herbst, freshman senators of WSGA, are co-chairmen of the tea. Committee chairmen are:

Rochelle Nathan, entertainment; Gail Gilman, publicity; Sally Barnes, refreshments; Katherine Dickson, hostesses; Gail Rolle, clean-up; Rita Brown, invitations; and Myrna Paynter and Jananne Andrews, service.

Spotlighting Tri-Delt

By JUDY HARKISON

This is the first in a series of articles on the histories of sororities at the University.

The Alpha Phi chapter of Delta Delta Delta was founded at the University in January, 1947. The first national chapter was established at Boston State University by Sarah Ida Shaw, Thanksgiving eve, 1888.

The Tri Delt suite is located on the ground floor of McElwain Hall. Mrs. Harold Read is adviser to the 48 members, 14 of them pledges. National membership of the sorority at the present time is 52,500.

Offers Scholarship
Tri Delt gives two annual scholarships, open to anyone; one local and one national, amounting to $100 each.

The local chapter presents a scholarship cup annually to the graduating senior member with the highest All-University average, and an award to the student in each class who has shown the greatest improvement in average from the spring semester to the fall.

Auction, Fashion Show
The sorority is sponsoring a combined auction, fashion show, and bridge games from 1 to 5 p.m. March 26 in the Hetzel Union Building for the purpose of raising money for the local scholarship fund.

The group has won the Women's Recreation Association cup for outstanding intramural participation the past two semesters. Tri Delt claims five members of hat societies at present. Joanne Caruso, sixth semester education major, is vice president of Panhellenic council and will be president next year.

Present Officers
President of Tri Delt is Marie Wagner, eighth semester home economics major; first vice president, Doris Humphrey, eighth semester arts and letters major; second vice president, Barbara Gooding, eighth semester journalism major; recording secretary, Suzanne Morgan, eighth semester home economics major; and treasurer, Joan Rowland, eighth semester home economics major.
