

'Key' to IC4A Crown Sought by Lion Coach

By HERM WEISKOPF

Rod Perry, Art Pollard, Charlie Blockson, and Rosey Grier hold the "key" to Penn State's hopes for a championship in Saturday's IC4A track and field title meet.

But Lion coach Chick Werner emphasized the point that, since the meet is expected to be so close, it may be up to the lesser-known men on the team to "open the door" to the title.

Perry has been hampered by a bruised heel and will be challenged in the hurdles by Manhattan ace Charlie Pratt and defending titlist Warren Lattof of M.I.T. Earlier in the season Perry equaled the world indoor mark for the 50-yard highs, beating Olympian Harrison Dillard in the process:

Pollard, "The Coatesville Comet," has been improving rapidly of late and is expected to give defending champ Johnny Haines of Penn a rough time in the sprints. One of the finest performances of the entire indoor campaign was Pollard's blistering 30.6 sec. clocking in the 300-yard race at East Lansing, Mich., against Michigan State, Missouri, and Ohio State.

Blockson and Grier, who have taken turns at breaking the Nittany shot put mark for the past two years, will be up against two of the country's best collegiate shot putters when they tangle with California's John Stellern and Yale's Stewart Thompson. Grier currently holds the Lion shot put record of 51' 10 3/4".

Bill Youkers and Gary Seybert will give the Lions added strength in the hurdles. So far this season Youkers and Seybert have competed in only one meet—the quad-rangular battle at East Lansing. Youkers finished third in the 70-yard highs in that meet, not more than a yard behind winner Perry. Seybert did not place, but came within inches of qualifying for the finals.

Jack Morin and Harry Mitchell will give the Lions added depth in the sprints. In the quadrangular tussle Morin led Pollard for the first 200 yards of the record-breaking 300-yard race. This will be Mitchell's first taste of competition this season.

Skip Slocum and Dave Leathem have been listed for action in the 800. Two of the finest middle-distance runners in the collegiate ranks—Charlie Jenkins of Villanova and Tom Courtney of Fordham—are also slated for this event.

In the mile it will be Doug Moorhead. Bill St. Clair and Jim Doulin of Manhattan, Ike Matza of NYU, and Billy Smith of Boston University are among the top runners in this grind.

Ron Johnson and Herb Hollowell will display their wares in the broad jump. Among the top competitors in this event are Joe Shankle of Duke and defending charge Bernard Bruce of Boston University.

Pole vaulter Harry Fuehrer will match his pole vaulting talents against those of defending king Bruce Hescocock of Boston University and Don Bragg, Villanova's sensational sophomore.

Last season the Lions finished in a tie for fourth with Penn. The Nittany thinclads have not won an indoor crown since 1942, but Werner feels he may have the "key" to open the "door" this season. If he does he will be able to unlock the door to one of the most cherished titles in the realm of intercollegiate track and field.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

He figures for the future

It's James Kirchhoff's job to look ahead. As a Plant Engineer with Illinois Bell Telephone Company, he helps estimate telephone equipment needs years in advance.

For example... when a new real estate development is in the planning stage, Jim figures how much telephone equipment it will need when it reaches its full growth. His estimate is based on his knowledge of the equipment's potential plus forecasts provided him of the area's rate of development. He then makes a complete report that becomes the basis of plans for the future.

Jim can take a look at his own future, too. In telephone engineering he can see a great many opportunities opening up in the next five years... ten years. He can pick the one he wants and start working toward it.

Jim graduated from Northwestern University as an E.E., class of 1952. His progress since then is typical of college men who have chosen telephone careers. If you'd be interested in a similar opportunity, see your Placement Officer for full details. There are also openings with other Bell telephone companies, with Bell Telephone Laboratories, or Western Electric and the Sandia Corporation.
