

Triple-Header Scheduled Today

Mat Lineups Uncertain In Lehigh Meet

By ROY WILLIAMS

Although the final outcome of the Penn State-Lehigh wrestling match, set for Rec Hall at 7 tonight, is the major topic among the Lions' most avid wrestling fans, there is one major question that needs answering before the match's outcome can be considered.

That question revolves around the men who will be named to "start" by their individual coaches.

Coaches of both Penn State and Lehigh will definitely be relying heavily on the strategy of out-guessing each other as to where what men will weigh in.

Alterations Seen

Speidel definitely will be planning on making alterations in his lineup, but these changes will come only in four weights.

The four weights that will probably remain the same as in the Lions' last two matches are 123, 130, 177, and heavyweight. Penn State's lineup in the other four weights—137, 147, 157, and 187—is a different story.

In the last two meets Larry Fornicola (137), Dave Adams (147), Len McNeal (157), and Joe Humphries (187) have been Speidel's choices.

Lehigh Juggling

Lehigh, however, has made repeated lineup changes in these four weights, particularly at the 137- and 147-pound divisions where Captain Ken Faust and Dave Bates—both undefeated—have switched weights. Also Ed Eichelberger, the third member of Lehigh's undefeated quartet of matmen, has moved in and out of the 147- and 157-pound divisions.

Lehigh will be juggling its lineup at 137, 147, and 157 pounds to capitalize on the Lions' weaknesses, and Bates, Faust, and Eichelberger look like the most logical men to be included in such a maneuver.

Two Weights Uncertain

The 157 and 187 pound divisions are two more brain teasers. Depending on who is chosen for the three lighter weights, Lehigh has a choice of using Eichelberger, Faust, or Don Whited at 157 pounds. Speidel, on the other hand, could call on the services of

(Continued on page seven)

Bill Oberly
In Heavyweight Slot

Frosh Cagers Host Pittsburgh In Final Game

Seeking its finest season in four years, Penn State's freshman basketball team plays host to the Pitt Panthers in the final game of the season at 4 p.m. tomorrow in Rec Hall. The contest will immediately follow the varsity gym meet slated for 2 p.m.

Coach Don Swegan's yearlings, fresh from a 87-87 conquest of Altoona Wednesday night, will be gunning for their fourth win, their only loss coming at the hands of Navy. The frosh also defeated the Junior Varsity twice and Sherry's all-stars once.

On the other side of the slate, Pitt is also enjoying one of its better years. With two 6-4 performers, the Panthers of Coach Pete Peterson, are expected to provide the roughest opposition of the year for the Lions. Pitt has beaten Duquesne twice and Carnegie Tech once in its latest games.

Coach Swegan said his team will make up in hustle what it lacks in height and it is as good now as it has been all year.

Jim Jordy, Tim Moore, Stan Hopkins, Jim Keith, Harold Pelow, Len Bell, and Mike Rohrbach are the players showing the most improvement on the squad and this nucleus forms the strongest bench we've had all season," Swegan said.

Lion Cagers Seek 17th Against Pitt

By DICK McDOWELL

Revenge-minded Penn State takes on the unpredictable Pitt Panthers tonight in the basketball end of a triple-header sports program at Recreation Hall. The game is scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m. following the Penn State-Lehigh wrestling match.

The Lions, beaten by the Panthers in their earlier meeting at Pittsburgh, 76-66, will be looking

Penn State's basketball team will play Memphis State in one of the two NCAA regional basketball playoffs at Lexington, Ky., on March 8, it was announced yesterday.

Memphis State sports a fine 17-3 record. The Tigers lost three of their first four games, and have not been defeated since.

Should the Lions win at Lexington, they will advance to Eastern regional play at Evans-ton, Ill., the following weekend.

for their 47th win in the time-worn series that began back in 1906. The series stands at 46-37.

Coach John Egli's Lions, readying themselves for their entry into the National Collegiate basketball tournament, will be going after their 11th straight Rec Hall victory this year, and 17th of the campaign.

Pitt Record May Go

At least one scoring record threatens to fall tonight although, for a change, it won't in the Penn State books. Pitt forward Ed Pavlik stands just 12 points away from the school's career scoring mark. The 6-4 senior has 998 points collected over a two-season span.

He and the Lions' Jesse Arnelle, who passed the 2000-point mark in the Nittanians' last outing, threaten to kick up a scoring dual in the annual rock-em-sock-em scrap. Pavlik has been hitting the hoops at a 23-point scoring pace and Arnelle is averaging in the 27-plus range.

Key Figures

Those two men figure to be the key performers in the game, one which has become as unpredictable as any Penn State-Pitt athletic contest can get.

However, the Nittanians have been incomparable at home where they have topped the 100 point mark three times. In addition, no Rec Hall opponent has come within 15 points of the Lions' Carnegie Tech got the closest, 91-75. However, that was the story last year when Pitt visited the Nittany stronghold and the Jungle Cats chased Elmer Gross' club for three overtime periods before succumbing, 91-85.

Temple Provides Final Rec Hall Gym Opposition

By RON GATEHOUSE

Penn State's gymnasts will make their final home appearance of the season and three Lions will perform on the Rec Hall apparatus for the last time when Gene Wettstone's acrobats go against Temple at 2 p.m. today.

Nittany captain Karl Schwenzfeier, rope climber Skeets Haag, and Don Rehm on the parallel bars, are the three senior gymnasts, all of whom will have a lot to do with the Lions' chances of picking up their fifth win of the season and fourth in the EIGA.

The Owls—although a threat to the title-hungry Lions' EIGA hopes—can't be considered one of the stronger opponents the Lions have faced in comprising their present 4-1 slate.

To date, Wettstone's performers have upset Army and Navy, and turned back West Virginia and Pitt. Illinois' NCAA runners-up gave them their lone loss.

Although no major lineup changes are seen for this afternoon's contest, Wettstone has announced two slight alterations.

Rehm's sophomore brother, Dick, will make his first varsity

(Continued on page seven)

Skeets Haag
East's Best on Rope

Freshman Lacrosse

John McHugh, freshman lacrosse coach, has requested that all frosh interested in the sport should report to him between 4 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday in the water tower.

Experience is not needed. McHugh said.

TODAY'S THE LAST DAY

to pick up money and unsold books at the

USED BOOK AGENCY in the TUB

OPEN TODAY 9 to 12

PENN STATE BOOK EXCHANGE

8 Win Handball Openers

Eight matches were held Thursday night at Rec Hall as the intramural fraternity handball singles tournament went into its second night of play.

Vern Sones, Acacia, edged Ken Bowan, Beaver House, in two straight games, 21-16, 21-15; Ron Grapsy, Theta Kappa Phi, eliminated Bob Ott, Delta Chi, 21-20, 21-10; Ed Barreird, Delta Upsilon, took two out of three games from Lloyd Eddings, Theta Xi, 21-14, 10-21, 21-18.

Ed Ritter, Sigma Nu, trounced Don Olexa, Alpha Chi Sigma, 21-3, 21-4; Dave Bedford, Acacia, after losing the first game to Gary Lindstrom, Sigma Pi, 4-21, rallied to take the next two games, 21-12, 21-9; Henry Hemsing, Phi Kappa Psi, stopped John Eiser, Alpha Chi Rho, 21-0, 21-17.

Don Snyder, Alpha Zeta, defeated Dick Hayes, Phi Kappa Tau, 21-13, 21-10; and in the last match of the night, John Hawk, Sigma Chi, nipped Dick Morgan, Tau Kappa Epsilon, 21-10, 21-14.

What are "MOLECULAR SIEVES"?

It's not surprising if you haven't heard of these new absorbents yet, since they are of the very latest developments of the LINDE LABORATORIES.

If you are getting a degree in ENGINEERING* or CHEMISTRY, you should learn more about our work on INDUSTRIAL CASES, SILICONES, JET-PIERCING, SYNTHETIC CRYSTALS, WELDING, FLAME PLATING, etc.

*Especially mechanical or chemical.

We have interesting job openings in

RESEARCH-DEVELOPMENT - GAS PLANT OPERATION
MANUFACTURING - SILICONE PRODUCTION
SALES AND ENGINEERING SERVICE

Plan to talk with our representatives on

FEB. 28 - MARCH 1

Your placement office can give you details.

LINDE AIR PRODUCTS CO.

A Division of Union Carbide & Carbon Corporation
UCC

New
COLLEGE DINER
ALWAYS OPEN
Good Food
Between the Movies

SALE
SLACK EVENT

2 Pair for the Price of One
Reg. $8.95 ea. Now 2 for	Reg. 10.95 ea. Now 2 for	Reg. 12.95 ea. Now 2 for
$9	$11	$13
Crease Resistant Gabardines Sharkskins	Twists or Splash With Any Gabardine or Sharkskin.	All-Wool Flannels with Any Gab. or 2 pr. Twist or Splash.

Sat. and Mon. - Feb. 26 and 28

FACTORY TO YOU
PENNSHIRE CLOTHES
QUALITY