

May Queen, Court Candidates Named

Candidates for May Queen and her attendants have been announced by Diane Edelman, co-chairman of the Women's Student Government Association May Queen elections committee.

The date of elections for the May Queen and her court will be announced next week. Candidates are required to submit a five by seven inch picture today to Miss Edelman or Anne Beebe, elections committee co-chairmen. The pictures will be put on display in the

Panhel Votes On 3 Changes In Constitution

Panhellenic Council last night voted on three articles of its revised constitution.

An article concerning the method of electing the president was passed. The president will be chosen from a sorority according to a rotation system among the sororities according to their founding date on campus.

An article limiting each sorority to 50 members was disapproved. The council decided that with two formal rushing periods next year further discussion of a different policy should be held.

An article fining a sorority for non-attendance at Panhel meetings was disapproved. Discussion of a new motion will be held at the next meeting on March 15.

The council decided to look into the purchase of a silver tea service to be kept in the Dean of Women's office which might be borrowed by "competent" campus groups.

The date for the installation of officers banquet was set for April 19. The banquet will be held at the Eutaw House, as it has been in previous years.

Miss Jeanne Lindaman, new assistant to the dean of women in charge of activities and Panhellenic Council, was introduced to the group.

The rushing booklet committee will meet Friday afternoon in the rear lounge of McElwain, Louise Morman, president, announced.

Athletic Store window March 14. Three senior and three freshman candidates will be selected in primary elections. In the final elections, the senior candidate receiving the most votes will be May Queen and the runners-up will be senior attendants. The top freshman candidate in the final elections will be Maid of Honor, and the runners-up will be attendants.

To Elect Attendants

Juniors and sophomores will elect two attendants for each class in the primary election.

Miss Edelman announced last night that senior women may sign up for the Hemlock Chain at the polls.

Senior candidates are Celeste McDermott, Rosemary Short, Nancy Scofield, Isabelle Capuano, Ruth Rapp, Marie Jacko, Faith Gallagher, Suzanne Helm, and Harriet Barlow.

Juniors chosen are Susan Light, Cecilia Yarnall, Elizabeth Kraabel, Mary Spangler, Nita Messinger, Susan Lefdig, Barbara Richards, Susan Schenzel, and Helene Slaboski.

Sophomore Candidates

Sophomore candidates are Anne Cain, Naomi Miller, Darlene Rumbaugh, Elizabeth Elliot, Faith Hecht, Geraldine McKenna, Susan Mercereau, Betty Lou Adams, Barbara Shipman, Ann Elder, Patricia Courtney, and Sandra Stover.

Freshman candidates are Nancy Seaman, Avis Dunkelberger, Eleanor Woodward, Katherine Woodward, Katherine Dixon, and Donna Garson.

A freshman candidate will be chosen in McAllister Hall this week.

WSGA, WRA Nominations Due Saturday

Self-nomination blanks for Women's Student Government Association and Women's Recreation Association are due at the dean of women's office, 105 Old Main, by Saturday.

Nominees must have a 1.5 All-University average and may not have a major judicial record.

A screening board will interview nominees after all blanks have been returned. Candidates selected by the screening board will be introduced at dormitory meetings.

Primary elections will be held March 22 and final elections March 24. The two candidates receiving the highest number of votes in the primaries will run in the final elections.

Qualifications for WSGA positions are president, sixth semester woman who has served for one year on WSGA; vice president, fourth semester; senior senator, sixth semester; junior senator, fourth semester; and sophomore senator and treasurer, second or third semester.

Runner-up for WSGA president will become secretary and runner-up for vice president will be junior senator. Town senator nominees may be any semester.

Candidates for WRA president must be sixth semester with one year on the WRA Board. Qualifications for other officers are vice president, fourth semester; secretary-treasurer, second semester; sophomore representative, second semester; intramural chairman, fourth semester; and assistant intramural chairman, second semester.

Leonides, AIM to Meet

Plans for Independent Week and the Leonides-Association of Independent Men dance to be held March 18 will be discussed at a joint meeting of the executive boards of the two groups at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the McElwain study lounge.

WRA 'Sports Day' Set for Saturday

Bucknell University and Juniata and Lycoming Colleges will participate in the 16th annual intercollegiate Sports Day to be sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association on Saturday.

Events scheduled for team and individual participation will include volleyball, bowling, modern dance, basketball, swimming, and badminton.

Registration for the participating colleges will begin at 12:30 p.m. Following the events, WRA will serve dinner to the members of the team.

Patricia Farrell, committee chairman, has appointed the following committee: Lois Piemme, equipment; Kathryn Greytok, refreshments; Noreen Meyer, registration; and Kathleen Queensberry, publicity.

The first WRA Sports Day originated in 1939, one year after White Hall was built. At that time the physical education staff was increased and WRA was organized.

Invitations are sent to the schools before each Sports Day. The athletic contests stress friendly competition and no awards are given. The purpose of Sports Day is to enjoy sports and establish amiable relations between individuals and schools.

Mary Conrad, second semester recreation education major, was appointed to the University committee to plan the 12th annual Pan American Day celebration.

Sammons to Give Talk On Christian Science

John S. Sammons, a member of the Christian Science board of lectureship, will speak on Christian Science at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Mineral Science Auditorium.

The lecture is sponsored by the members of the Christian Science Organization at the University. Sammons will speak on the subject: "Christian Science and the Quest for Security." The lecture will be open to the public.

Hillel to Show Films On Israel Tonight

Two films on Modern Israel, "So You Want to See Israel" and "The House on a Hill," will be shown at 8 tonight in the lounge of Hillel Foundation under the sponsorship of the Modern Israel discussion group.

Amnon Fouz, graduate student in mechanical engineering, will introduce the films.

WSGA Senate to Meet

Women's Student Government Association Senate will meet at 8:30 tonight in the WSGA room in White Hall.

Dating Rule Repeal Voted

Freshman Council voted last night to repeal the 5:30 dating rule on the condition that further discussion would follow on a substitution for the rule.

As it is now, the rule forbids any first semester freshman dating after 5:30 p.m. during the week. A possible substitution will be discussed at WSGA Senate and in the separate units.

Newly elected members of Freshman Council are: Mary Weber, second semester pre-medical major; Gertrude Kill, second semester civil engineering major; Mary Shower, second semester applied arts major; Priscilla Kepner, second semester education major; Myrna Paynter, second semester education major; and Grace Entes, Beau Barnes, second semester home economics major, was elected secretary of the council.

UCA to Hold Panel Assembly

A panel, "Summer Projects," with slides and discussion will be held by the University Christian Association assembly at 7 tonight in 304 Old Main.

Rosalyn Sammons, fifth semester home economics major, will lead the discussion on work camps in Tennessee; Edward Schmetz, seventh semester forestry major, on work camps in England; Betsy Sharpe, fifth semester arts and letters major, on migrant work in California; Robert Hare, fifth semester agricultural education major, on the leadership training seminar of Eagles Mere; Donald McIlwain, program director of Westminster Foundation, on Cleveland, Ohio, summer service projects; and the Rev. Henry Leiper, UCA program associate, on possible projects in Potter County.

Hare will be moderator.

Leonides Nominations

Application for self-nominations for Leonides offices are due at the Student Union desk in Old Main by 5 p.m. today. Applications may be obtained from the unit representatives or at the Student Union desk.

Party Line

Alpha Chi Omega celebrated its Alpha Chi Weekend Friday and Saturday with a dinner at the Eutaw House and a dance at Theta Chi. The sorority was entertained by Tau Kappa Epsilon Thursday at the chapter house.

Phi Mu was recently entertained by Theta Chi. Refreshments were served and entertainment was provided by the fraternity. The fraternity entertained Chi Omega at the chapter house last week.

A combined roller skating party was held by Sigma Delta Tau and Alpha Epsilon Pi Friday. Members of Sigma Delta Tau were entertained at dinner by Zeta Beta Tau Sunday evening.

Gamma Phi Beta recently entertained Kappa Sigma at the fraternity house. A skit was presented by members of the sorority and refreshments were served.

Zeta Tau Alpha was recently entertained by Triangle with a dinner and group singing. A skit was presented by members of the sorority after which members of Triangle participated in a jam session. Phi Kappa Sigma recently entertained the sorority.

Kappa Delta Rho entertained Alpha Chi Omega recently. A combined skit by pledges of both groups was presented.

The pledges of Sigma Pi presented a skit when the fraternity entertained Delta Gamma at the chapter house. The sorority also was recently entertained by Kappa Sigma.

Delta Chi recently entertained Kappa Delta.

Delta Sigma Phi entertained members of Kappa Alpha Theta with a skit presented by the pledges. Refreshments and dancing followed.

If You Don't Like "Chilly" Weather --

warm up to a big steaming Bowl of our delicious MEXICAN CHILI. After one taste, it'll be your favorite meal or snacktime dish. And when you are downtown during that 5:00-7:00 supper hour, remember a "hot tip" and make it "Chili-time!"

only 25c a bowl!

Vic's
145 S. Allen St.

Free Lecture Entitled CHRISTIAN SCIENCE and the Quest for Security

by John S. Sammons, C.S. of Chicago, Illinois

Member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church The First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts

Thursday, Mar. 3 8 p.m.

MINERAL SCIENCE AUDITORIUM