

Trustees Laud Five Alumni

By NANCY SHOWALTER

Each year the executive committee of the University Board of Trustees selects five alumni through "personal lives, professional achievements, and community service best exemplifying the objectives of the Pennsylvania State University" to receive the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

The alums are chosen by the Board from a panel of candidates recommended by the president of the University.

Past Queens Invited for May Day

Campus May Queens and Women's Student Government Association presidents of the past 43 years will be honored at the annual May Day ceremony, it was announced, by the WSGA House of Representatives last night.

The guests will be seated in a reserved section. Approximately 800 invitations have been sent to members of the administration, WSGA Senate, House and Judicial, and parents of the May Day participants.

The deadline for 5x7 photographs of queen candidates has been extended to March 10. The pictures will be displayed in the window of the Athletic Store during the week of March 14-18.

Kay Kingsley, speaker of the House, asked representatives to give their May Day committee reports to Jeanne Lindaman, assistant dean of women, in the dean of women's office today. They may be picked up Tuesday.

Miss Kingsley asked the secretary-treasurers of women's dormitory units to obtain copies of the WSGA Senate minutes every Wednesday in Old Main.

Sheed to Give Religion Lecture

Frank J. Sheed, author, lecturer, and publisher from New York City, will give the first in a series of Centennial lectures on religion at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Hillel Foundation.

His topic will be "The Catholic Intellectual Revival."

The lectures, sponsored by the Committee of 13, organized to revamp Religion-in-Life Week, will be held this semester and during the fall semester. They will feature speakers from the three traditions, Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish.

Dr. A. T. Mollegen, professor of Christian Ethics at the Protestant Episcopal Theological seminary in Alexandria, Va., will speak on "Christology in the Light of Historical Criticism" on March 21. "Three Hundred Years in America—Three Thousand Years in the World" will be the topic of the lecture by Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, Rabbi of the Temple in Cleveland, Ohio, on April 25.

Concert Date Set By Phi Mu Alpha

The annual concert of Phi Mu Alpha, men's honorary and professional music fraternity, assisted by the Louise Homer Club, women's music honorary group, will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

Included in the program will be brass ensemble, flute duet, organ, trumpet quartet, harp, French horn quartet, and renditions and selections by the men's Glee Club. The concert will be open to the public.

Party Line

Pi Beta Phi was entertained by Phi Kappa Sigma recently. Dinner was followed by entertainment and dancing.

Skits were presented by members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon when the fraternity recently entertained Alpha Omicron Pi at the chapter house. Following dinner, skits were presented by members of both groups. The fraternity also entertained Pi Beta Phi recently.

Chi Omega was recently entertained by Pi Kappa Alpha at the chapter house.

Leonides Elections

Due to difficulties in obtaining photographs of candidates, the Leonides election has been postponed from March 8 until March 15, according to Joan Packard, Leonides president.

UJA Drive Will Begin On Sunday

The annual United Jewish Appeal campaign for overseas relief and rehabilitation, sponsored by Hillel Foundation, will begin with a Lox and Bagel kickoff brunch at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. The campaign will end Thursday.

Sheila Preven and Harold Friedman, co-chairmen of the 1955 campaign, invite students who wish to work as captains and volunteers for the campaign to attend the brunch. United Jewish Appeal workers will be guests. Assignments will be given to workers then.

Goal Is $3000

The 1955 goal is $3000. Funds will be used for integration of new immigrants into Israel, the provision of housing, medical care and food supplies in Israel and other countries. The appeal also seeks to build up Jewish community life in North Africa and to facilitate the immigration of Jews to Israel and other countries from behind the Iron Curtain.

Captains Selected

Eight captains have been chosen to supervise and coordinate solicitations of students for the campaign.

The captains are Marvin Shapiro, fraternities; Carole Knigin, Thompson; Phyllis Toiv, Atherton; Michael Lipschutz, West Dorm area; Janice Karp, Simmons and McElwain; Herbert Telles, Nittany and Pollock; William Mackler, town; and Katherine Oswald, McAllister.

Spotlighting Alpha Chi Omega

By GINGER HANCE

Alpha Chi Omega was established on campus in 1932. The local chapter, Beta Mu, is located on the second floor of Grange dormitory. Nationally, Alpha Chi Omega was founded in 1885 at De Pauw University, De Pauw, Ind.

Extra-curricular activities of the A Chi O's include the support of a twelve year old French war orphan. The sorority presently is hoping to offer its assistance in sponsoring a Korean child. Cerebral Palsy is the Alpha Chi Omega project. The coeds repair toys and help to address envelopes.

Won Cup

Last year Alpha Chi Omega and Lambda Chi Alpha won the Ugly Man Cup. This year a new custom was started within the sorority to award an A Chi O scholarship cup to the class in the sorority having the highest scholastic average. The cup will be passed on from class to class in the years to come. The senior class has the cup now.

Another interesting way the A Chi O's recognize individual scholarship is awarding the scholarship bracelet to the member achieving the highest average. The bracelet is passed down year after year, and each year a new link with the girl's name engraved is added to the bracelet.

Outstanding Pledge

This year's outstanding pledge of Alpha Chi Omega is Elli Frank. There are also four A Chi O's in hat societies.

Recently elected officers of Alpha Chi Omega are: Ruth Kronenwetter, president; Judith Scott, vice president; Audrey Futer, second vice president and pledge mistress; Constance Weitknecht, corresponding secretary; Barbara Everitt, recording secretary; Nancy Lewis, scholarship chairman; Elli Frank, social chairman; Peggy Troxell, treasurer; and Susan Loux, activities.

Home Ec Club Elects Officers

Newly elected officers of the Home Economics Club are Ann Sterner, president; Francis Hottinger, vice president; Mary Catherine Craig, recording secretary; Joan Reitz, corresponding secretary; and Barbara Serfass, treasurer.

This semester the Home Economics Club will sponsor interest groups. The four groups will be jewelry making, fancy clothing, fancy food, and scouting.

All four will hold organizational meetings at 7 p.m. Tuesday, with jewelry making meeting in 224 Home Economics, fancy clothing in 117 Home Economics, fancy foods in 209 Home Economics, and scouting in 223 Home Economics.

The interest groups are an experiment, and if they prove successful there will be more groups started next year, Miss Sterner said. Home Economics Club members and other women interested in becoming members of the Home Economics Club may attend.

Pershing Rifles Names Coed Honorary Captain

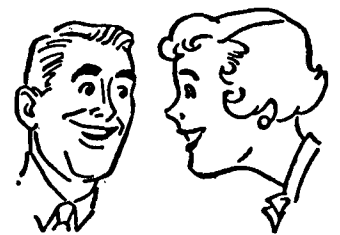

Nancy Marshall, fourth semester business education major, was selected honorary captain of Pershing Rifles at its annual dance Saturday. She will represent Pershing Rifles in queen contests throughout the semester.

Following the dinner a dance was held in the Armory.

Skull and Bones Society

William Devers, eighth semester arts and letters major, was initiated into Skull and Bones, senior men's hat society, Wednesday night to fill the vacancy left by John Sherry who was graduated in January.
