

Adams to Talk At Conference

Dr. Clifford R. Adams, professor of psychology, will open the three-day marriage conference with a talk on "Look Before You Leap" at 7:30 tonight in Simmons lounge.

Dr. Adams was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1920 and from North Carolina State College in 1923. He received a B.A. degree from the University of North Carolina in 1928, and an M.A. from the same university in 1936. He studied at the University of Pennsylvania and Temple University, and received his Ph.D. from the University in 1940.

Noted for Guidance Articles

The author or co-author of many personality tests, Dr. Adams is also well-known for numerous professional articles on guidance, testing, and personnel administration.

Dr. Adams is the author of articles on mate selection, marriage, and family relations which have appeared in American Magazine, Reader's Digest, McLean's Magazine, and Coronet. He has done a series of articles for Woman's Home Companion, and another for Ladies' Home Journal.

Included among the books of which Dr. Adams is author or co-author are Proceedings of the Institute on Marriage and Home Adjustment, How to Pick a Mate, and Preparing for Marriage.

Will Discuss Mate Selection

In his talk tonight Dr. Adams will give suggestions for choosing a mate and for overcoming pre-marital problems.

The three-day series of marriage talks are sponsored by the University Christian Association, Women's Student Government Association, Association of Independent Men, and Interfraternity Council.

The talks are open to the public. Coffee hours will be held after each meeting. Members of Androcles, junior men's hat society, and Chimes, junior women's hat society, will act as hosts and hostesses for the conference.

Tomorrow night Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn, director of Hillel Foundation, and the Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger, University Chaplain, will explain the social, cultural, and religious effects of a marriage between faiths. Their topic will be, "If I Marry Outside My Faith." Dr. Winona Morgan, professor of child development, will discuss the effects of such a marriage upon children.

Marriage Conference Speaker

At Thursday's meeting Helen Buchanan, instructor in family relations, will speak on "Is Love Enough?" Miss Buchanan will discuss adjustments after marriage and problems that may arise.

Annual College Queen Contest Open to Coeds

Undergraduate college women between the ages of 17 and 24 are eligible to enter the third annual National College Queen Contest to be held at Convention Hall, Asbury Park, N.J., Sept. 9-11.

Entrants to the contest, sponsored by the city of Asbury Park, must submit an original essay on the subject, "What College Education Means to Me." A photograph or snapshot of the entrant must be sent with the entry blank and essay. Forms can be obtained by writing to College Queen Contest Director, Convention Hall, Asbury Park, N.J.

The winner will receive the National College Queen Trophy Award; a grand tour of Europe with all expenses paid; scholarship awards, and $5000 in prizes including an all-purpose wardrobe of designer's clothes. Each state's finalist will receive round trip transportation to compete at Asbury Park and will be a guest of the city while there for the national grand finals.

Prior to competing in Asbury Park, state and sectional college queen finalists will convene in New York City to participate in a special function observing the city's annual summer festival.

Nancy Van Tries, a January graduate of the University and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was Pennsylvania College Queen last year and competed in the national contest.

UCA Dance Cancelled

The weekly square dance sponsored by the University Christian Association has been canceled tonight so participants may attend the marriage conference. The dances will resume next Tuesday in the Hetzel Union Building.

Players' Workshop to Meet

Players' make-up workshop will meet at 7 tonight in the make-up room, basement of Schwab.

Spotlighting K K G

By JUDY HARRISON

Delta Alpha, the local chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was established at the University, Oct. 3, 1930. As a local group it had been named Sychor. Nationally, Kappa Kappa Gamma was founded in 1870 at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill.

The chapter has forty-eight members at present. The suite is located in 272 McElwain.

Each year Kappa Kappa Gamma honors a "Model Pledge," the woman who was most outstanding in her pledge class and did the most for the sorority. A similar award is also given to a senior sister who has contributed the most to the Kappas.

Sorority Ring

A scholarship ring is presented every semester to the sister with the highest average. The name of the member with the greatest improvement in average is engraved on a sorority plaque.

Last fall Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi together sponsored the "Powder Bowl," a touch football game on Beaver Field. Proceeds were given to Campus Chest.

Another campus activity of the sorority is a formal reception for faculty at Christmas, co-sponsored with Delta Tau Delta.

Miss Penn State

Kappa Kappa Gamma women are active in campus affairs. Nancy Van Tries, journalism major who was graduated in January, reigned as Miss Penn State during the past year.

Joan Hunter, eighth semester education major, was runner-up in the Miss Pennsylvania contest last year.

Ten KKG members are hat women. Jean Yemm, sixth semester education major, is past president of Cwens.

Officers of the sorority are Miss Yemm, president; Judith Burns, sixth semester education major, vice president; Joan Ziegler, sixth semester education major, recording secretary; Lillian Melko, sixth semester education major, corresponding secretary; Katherine Sauer, fourth semester business administration major, treasurer; and Susan Rice, sixth semester business administration major, rushing chairman.

Mrs. William Henszey is adviser.

Co-Edits

Alpha Epsilon Phi has pledged Barbara Cohen, Joan Greenwald, Marilyn Harris, Anne Cravitz, Gloria Segall, and Steffi Barad.

The new pledges of Beta Sigma Rho are Alan Crossman, Jerome Kopleman, Robert Nuvock, Harry Oxman, Alan Rubens, and Joseph Weiss.

The following men have been appointed to house positions for Pi Kappa Phi: Adrien Eschallier, house manager; Donald Ziegler, social chairman; Robert Elmes, alumni chairman; Roy Williams, scholarship; Ted Liebert, music; Eschallier, Interfraternity Council representative; James Baldwin, rooming; Donald Fischer, Spring Week; Elmes, Rose Ball; Walter Imboden, rushing; Theodore Garrett, athletics; and Paul Acone, caterer.
