Judith Pendleton
Leonides President

Pendleton Wins Election

Judith Pendleton, sixth semester physical education major, was elected president of Leonides last night.

Miss Pendleton defeated Joy Oram, present vice president of the organization, by 357 to 266 votes.

Norma Talarico, fourth semester education major, was elected vice president. She was opposed by Elaine Capelli, sixth semester education major.

Gwendolyn Pardo, second semester home economics major, defeated Helen Cummings, second semester recreation education major, for the recording secretary post. Annie Campbell, sixth semester education major, was elected corresponding secretary. She was opposed by Suzanne Pink, fourth semester psychology major.

Thompson Hall, with approximately 57 percent voting, had the highest percentage of votes, according to Joan Packard, present Leonides president.

The new officers will be installed and will take office sometime in April, Miss Packard said.
