

Women's Primaries Are Today

Primary voting for Women's Student Government Association and Women's Recreation Association offices, and May Day Queen and her court will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. today, and from 6:15 to 7 tonight.

Voting polls will be set up in Thompson, McAllister, Atherton, Simmons, and McElwain Halls. Town women and residents of Woman's Building, McAllister and Grange, will vote in McAllister Hall.

In the WSGA and WRA elections, the two women receiving the highest number of votes for each office today will run in the final elections on Thursday. Finalists for May Queen, freshman Maid of Honor, and freshman attendant for the May Court will be chosen today. Final elections for these positions will also be held Thursday. Junior and sophomore May Queen attendants will be elected today.

Voting for WSGA president will be held on Thursday only. Runner-up for WSGA vice president will become one of two junior senators.

Forty-one candidates will compete for the offices of WSGA president, vice president, treasurer, senior senator, junior senator, sophomore senator, and town senator. WRA officers to be elected are president, vice president, secretary-treasurer, sophomore representative, intramurals chairman, and assistant intramurals chairman.

May court positions include May Queen, junior, sophomore, and freshman attendants, and freshman Maid of Honor. Runners-up for queen will be senior attendants.

All women students are eligible to vote in the elections. Voting lists will be used to check off voters.

House Hears 'Vending' Plan

Vending machines for soft drinks or cigarettes may not be placed in residence halls, Women's Student Government Association House of Representatives learned last week.

Diane Edelman, appointed to look into the idea of vending machines in the residence halls, reported that other types of machines, such as for milk or coffee, may be possible.

Fay Hilberg was appointed to look into the question of ironing boards in sorority suites.

House will meet at 6:30 p.m. March 31 in the Grange playroom.

Panhel Postponed

The meeting of Panhellenic Council scheduled for tonight has been postponed until March 30. The council will elect officers at that meeting which will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the initiation room of McElwain hall.

Six Will Vie For Quill Girl

Women students will elect Quill Girl, woman leader to be honored at the annual Matrix Dinner, from six candidates during Women's Student Government Association and Women's Recreation Association Elections today.

Eligibility for the title, which formerly was restricted to the presidents of WSGA, WRA, and Mortar Board, has been extended to include the presidents of Leonides, Panhellenic Council, and Scrolls.

The Matrix Dinner, sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, women's national professional journalism fraternity, will be held at 6:30 p.m., April 26 at the Nittany Lion Inn. Invitations to the dinner will be sent to outstanding women on campus, dormitory hostesses, and other women connected with the University. Tickets will be priced at $3.

Other awards to be presented at the dinner are Matrix Girl and Cap Girl. Matrix Girl, chosen by the members of Theta Sigma Phi, is an award for the outstanding senior woman who has not received recognition by membership in a hat society. Cap Girl,

Been away in a "never never" land, skiing and haven't had time to select and make up any OK Joe ads. But in the past week with the A.O.P.'s and others, I've seen at least seven who could easily qualify with no trouble at all. For example, Gerry McKenna, Grace DeMartino, Linda Gerber, Barbara Gross, Jean Scegliano, Belva Syryga and sparking Elly Ross.

If you can't afford Europe this summer, don't fret. Exactly 485 miles from this boro lies a remarkable city, continental down to its scrambled eggs. It's almost unfair for one city to have so many beautiful women, such superb restaurants and such warm, friendly people. Why, when I think of it, it's even nicer than State College. If you haven't guessed by now, it's Montreal. And if you're a skier, some of the finest skiing you'll ever find can be had in the Laurentians at Mt. Tremblant, a mere hundred miles north of Montreal.

It's not unusual to ski there until May 15th—an ideal spot for your Easter vacation. You can ski all day long, enjoy excellent cuisine and stay at a first class motel for about nine dollars a day. If you scoot down to Montreal for the evening, add a few more dollars on to it, contingent of course, on your appetite for entertainment... Fine Scotch and English wearing apparel are just some of the things you can bring back at relatively low prices. Don't miss it.

Best parties of the week were the Miami Triad, Gamma Phi Beta and Pi Beta Phi.

An opening for one more sorority or fraternity composite this semester. First call gets it.

Sincerely,
b.c.

I'VE GOT NEWS FOR YOU

It is my earnest hope that an occasional column of mine has pleased you enough to make you want to clip it out and keep it. But I'm sure that being preoccupied with more important things — like getting down to breakfast before your room-mate eats all the marmalade — the impulse has passed and been forgotten.

So I am pleased now to report that the makers of Philip Morris Cigarettes, bless their corporate hearts, have published a booklet called MAX SHULMAN REVISITED, which contains six of my favorite columns, along with some brand new material, all of this profusely illustrated—all of this available to you gratis when you buy a couple of packs of Philip Morris at your favorite tobacco counter on or near your campus.

But this is not the only news I've got for you today. Following you will find a roundup of news highlights from campuses the country over.

Southern Reserve University

Dr. Willard Hale Sigafos, head of the department of anthropology at Southern Reserve University and internationally known as an authority on primitive peoples, returned yesterday from a four year scientific expedition to the headwaters of the Amazon River. Among the many interesting mementos of his journey is his own head, shrunk to the size of a kumquat. He refused to reveal how his head shrinking was accomplished. "That's for me to know and you to find out," he said with a tiny, but saucy grin.

Northern Reserve University

Dr. Mandrill Gibbon, head of the department of zoology at Northern Reserve University and known to young and old for his work on primates, announced yesterday that he had received a grant of $80,000,000 for a twelve year study to determine precisely how much fun there is in a barrel of monkeys.

Whatever the results of Dr. Gibbon's researches, this much is already known: what's more fun than a barrel of monkeys is a pack of Philip Morris. There's zest and cheer in every puff, delight in every draw, content and well-being in every fleecy, flavorful cloudlet. And, what's more, this merriest of cigarettes, king-size and regular, comes in the exclusive Philip Morris Snap-Open pack. A gentle tug on the tab and the package pops obligingly open. A gentle push on the open pack and it silently folds itself back, sealing in the savory vintage tobacco until you are ready to smoke again.

Eastern Reserve University

The annual meeting of the American Philological Institute held last week at Eastern Reserve University, was enlivened by the reading of two divergent monographs concerning the origins of early Gothic "runes," as letters of primitive alphabets are called.

Dr. Tristram Lathrop Spleen, famed far and wide as the discoverer of the High German Consonant Shift, read a paper in which he traced the origins of the Old Wendish rune "pt" (pronounced "krahtz") to the middle Lettic rune "gr" (pronounced "albert"). On the other hand, Dr. Richard Cumberbund Twonkey, who, as the whole world knows, translated The Pajama Game into Middle High Bactrian, contended in his paper that the Old Wendish rune "pt" derives from the Low Erse rune "mf" (pronounced "gr").

Well, sir, the discussion grew so heated that Dr. Twonkey finally asked Dr. Spleen if he would like to step into the gymnasium and put on the gloves. Dr. Spleen accepted the challenge promptly, but the contest was never held because there were no gloves in the gymnasium that would fit Dr. Twonkey.

(The reader is doubtless finding this hard to believe as Eastern Reserve University is celebrated the length and breadth of the land for the size of its glove collection. However, the reader is asked to remember that Dr. Twonkey has extraordinarily small hands and arms. In fact, he spent the last war working in a small arms plant, where he received two Navy "E" Awards and was widely hailed as a "manly little chap.")

The makers of PHILIP MORRIS, sponsors of this column, urge you to get to your tobacco store soon for your copy of MAX SHULMAN REVISITED. The supply is limited.
