

'Underdog' Gymnasts Prep for Title Battle

By RON GATEHOUSE

Penn State's gymnasts began the 1938 season minus what Lion mentor Gene Wettstone described as three-fourths of their NCAA championship team of last year. And pre-season forecasters followed through by gracing the Lions with an over-sized underdog role in Eastern competition.

But the Nittanians, even though riddled with injuries, turned the other way, and assumed come-from-behind tactics in nearly every dual-outing to fool all and sweep their third straight Eastern title.

Now, with a bigger and better goal in sight, a third straight NCAA gym title, the Nittanians again are set to disrupt the forecasts.

Although the three individual Lion winners in last year's NCAA rout have left Penn State, a host of Nittany runners-up are still around to take on the man-sized challenge—to bring the national crown to the Vale again.

The leading veteran from last year's classic, pint-sized Karl Schwenzfeiler who pulled meet-after-meet out of the proverbial fire, will have the biggest Penn State load to bear when the Nittanians go against the nation's best over the weekend.

Lions Count on Schwenzfeiler. Although he'll be backed by a host of other potential scorers, Schwenzfeiler will have to be true to form if the Nittanians are to have even an outside chance of retaining their title.

The form is the way he stole the show in each of the Penn State outings, always bringing home two individual event wins, sometimes three. And in the Eastern individual tourney at Annapolis last week, he established a new all-time point total in winning the difficult all-around title.

Schwenzfeiler will be facing several mid-west and Pacific coast performers who equal him with two years of NCAA experience, and some who hold a year edge.

Strong Opposition. From all angles the way the Lions fare over the weekend seems to rest a great deal on the versatile captain's capacity, and as Wettstone puts it, "UCLA, Illinois, and a lot of others are going to have powerhouses—we have Schwenzfeiler."

Elsewhere on the Penn State scene, such hopefuls as Skeets Haag, Skip Helm, Bill Paxton, Dion Weissend, Chuck Fegaley, Chuck Marshall, and Leroy Fritch will be joining Schwenzfeiler in quest of the third straight top national ranking for the Penn State gym team.

Winger Takes Lead. PALM BEACH, Fla., March 21 (AP)—Bo Winner of Oklahoma City led pro golfers with a 69 in opening play of the two-day $10,000 Seminole pro-amateur tournament today. Ben Hogan and Sam Snead returned to competition for the first time this year in the tournament.

broach. George Bickelhaupt, Kappa Sigma, received a point for riding time and thereby captured a close win over Norm Schue of Alpha Zeta, 3-2, in a 145 match.

Ron Corio, Pi Kappa Phi, displayed too much mat savvy and collected a fall over Bernie Ross of Phi Kappa in 4:10 with a cradle hold. Paul Brown, Delta Upsilon, rode to a very decisive win over Ken Lanan of Delta Theta Sigma. Brown missed a pin on four occasions and had to settle for the decision.

Dick Shillinger, Tau Kappa Epsilon, captured a 4-0 decision over Jim Eismont of Delta Upsilon, and Norman Paul, Alpha Gamma Rho, pinned Frank McFadden of Phi Gamma Delta in 3:15 with a cradle.

The assault on the Rec Hall lights continued as a pair of Delta Sigma Phi's—Gary Gehrig and Paul Hood—both registered pins and Dave Hubert, Phi Delta Theta and Nick Rodriguez also checking in with falls.

ODE TO CORRASABLE BOND

A big feather in our Eaton cap

On the left is the Eaton Paper factory, or a reasonable facsimile of same

By an artist of the Italian School, Olivetti or some such name.

This big, busy plant is the birthplace of Eaton's CORRASABLE,

The typewriter paper that exploded the theory that nothing is irreplaceable.

And if you're using another brand of paper, Basil (or Hazel)

It's time you gave your affection for it an "agonizing reappraisal".

You'll agree that most typewriter papers, when erased, look like a child's conception of a monsoon.

But CORRASABLE erasures show 'bout like a June moon at noon.

Errors flick off with a pencil eraser, there's no evidence of your faux pas.

Makes typewriter papers that smudge seem more than a little below par.

And while omnia Gallia may be divisa in partes tres,

CORRASABLE comes in FOUR weights, in your favorite place.

So don't go to pieces over typing your thesis!

Get CORRASABLE, the typewriter paper that pleases.

P. S. Comes in 100-sheet packets and 500-sheet reams.
