

Fraternities Fix Fancy Fantasies

Blue Band Will Play On Sunday

The annual spring concert of the Blue Band will be presented at 3 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

Included in the program are: The National Anthem, The Triumphal March from 'Quo Vadis' (Rozsa), Toccata and Fugue in D Minor (Bach-Leidzen), Bugler's Holiday (Anderson), Emblem of Honor March (Danburg), Loch Lomond (arrangement by Richardson), Kiddie Ballet (Hermann).

The second part of the program includes: Overture to Rienz

James Dunlop
Directs Band

(Wagner), The Rakes of Mallow from the Irish Suite (Anderson), Beguine for Band (Osser), Selection from South Pacific (Rodgers-Leidzen), and the Stars and Stripes Forever (Sousa).

The band will be under the direction of James W. Dunlop, associate professor of music and conductor of University bands.

Dunlop, who has conducted the Blue Band since 1947, was formerly director of music at Mt. Jewett, Emporium, and Farrell high schools. He was graduated with a B.S. degree from Mansfield State Teachers College, and received his Master of Music degree from the University of Michigan.

Dunlop is past president of both the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association and the Pennsylvania Collegiate Band at the Pennsylvania Farm Show in Harrisburg each year.

Co-Edits

New initiates of Sigma Chi are Franklin Billers, Donald Garber, Jan Gouza, Hubert Heinrichs, David Lewis, and David Shantz.

Gamma Phi Beta recently pledged Faith Rohjan and Claire Ganum. Carole Denniston was named model pledge.

Jean Milson was recently awarded a gift certificate in a drawing sponsored by Alpha Gamma Delta for the benefit of the Cerebral Palsy Fund.

Kappa Delta has initiated Patricia Barr, Mary Dorman, Barbara Fluck, Joanne Fulton, Norma Glorr, Mary Hartzell, Adrian Hummel, Patricia Korn, Danise Menza, Carolyn Miller, Mary Rutter, Glenda Rinc, Barbara Shafer, Donna Springer, Sue Sullivan, Betty Wilton, Lillian Wright, Cheryl Davis, Diane Siscus, Dolores Calibab, and Mary Springer. Reila Evans, and Patricia Jack were pledged by Beta Sigma Omicron Wednesday night.

New pledges of Theta Xi are Richard De Luca, Frederick Heath, David Piatak, Bernard Musial, Allan Brent Woolston, Alan Wyand, Charles Mertz, Leonard Siebel, Richard Kohler, Glenn Thibault, Robert Heil, and Guy Rhodes, and Addison Hawk.

Fifty-one fraternities will be going in fantasy anywhere and everywhere from the Gay Nineties to the Fiji Islands to Paris when they hold their parties tomorrow night as a major part of the big weekend.

Acacia will hold its Sweetheart Dance and Alpha Chi Rho will go on an Easter Holiday. There will be bums galore at the Alpha Chi Sigma Hobo Hop and Arabian women will steal around at the Alpha Epsilon Pi Arabic Affair.

Alpha Gamma Rho will hold a Pink Rose Dance. Pirates will invade Alpha Phi Delta for a party and the Alpha Rho Chi's will leave on a Caribbean Cruise.

Alpha Sigma Phi and Beta Sigma Rho will hold a combined Bermuda Holiday with music provided by the Tigertown Five from Princeton University.

Alpha Tau Omega will copy the Philadelphia ball this weekend with its own version of the Artists and Models Ball.

Strains of Hawaii will be heard at Alpha Zeta for an Aloha Party and the Beta Theta Pi's will retreat into their Hacienda with music by the Pittsburgh Romaines.

Chi Phi will hold its formal spring dinner dance but things will be strictly informal at the Delta Chi Ranch Dance.

Pledges will be honored at Delta Sigma Phi and at Delta Tau Delta "academy award winners" will be present at the Hollywood party. Delta Theta Sigma will have a regular dress-up dance.

The Delta Upsilon's will go on their annual Beachcombers' Brawl but things will be quieter at Kappa Delta Rho's Rose formal.

Daisy Mae and Little Abner will be visiting Kappa Sigma for a Dog Patch party while the ancient Greeks invade Lambda Chi Alpha and the Bowery Boys go to Phi Delta Theta where Dan Grove and the Sadistic Six will provide musical background.

The dates of Phi Epsilon Pi's will wear their weekend favors to a pajama party. There'll be grass skirts and cocoanuts aplenty when the Fiji Islands are transported again this year to Phi Gamma Delta.

Phi Kappa and Theta Xi will combine for a Moonlight and Roses dance at the Phi Kappa house. The dance will be formal.

The worst side of everyone's personality can be revealed at Phi Kappa Psi's Obnoxious party.

The Romans of old will return in their togas for a Roman party at Phi Kappa Sigma and a Toga party at Phi Kappa Tau.

Guests and members will forget the cares of the world at Phi Mu Delta and drift into Dreamland.

Everyone will be seeing Red at Phi Sigma Delta while those at Phi Sigma Kappa stroll down the Party Line

Phi Sigma Kappa held its annual Founder's Day banquet on March 15, honoring Dr. J. B. Hill. The fraternity entertained Alpha Xi Delta at the chapter house recently.

Sigma Sigma Sigma has recently entertained Theta Delta Chi and Kappa Sigma.

Kappa Delta and Theta Chi recently held a combined party. The Kappa Delta pledge dance was held at Beta Theta Pi. The sorority held a dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn preceding the dance.

Alpha Alpha Theta held its annual Theta Weekend last week. The sorority held a banquet at the Eutaw House followed by a formal dance at Chi Phi.

Pi Beta Phi was recently entertained by Acacia. Acacia pledges provided entertainment.

Kappa Delta Rho entertained Pi Beta Phi with a skit at the chapter house Wednesday night. Refreshments were served.

Champs Elysee in Paris to a sidewalk cafe.

Pi Kappa Alpha will return to its "Hell Week" days but nearby at Pi Kappa Phi the annual form 1 Rose Dance will be held.

Cowboys and Indians gallop out of the old west for a Renegade Reunion at Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The flapper days will return at Sigma Alpha Mu for a Roaring Twenties party.

Tramps will be riding the rails to the Hobo party at Sigma Chi while next door at Sigma Nu everything will be Odd, Strange, and Different.

Pajamas of all sorts will be featured at a combined Pajama Panorama of Sigma Phi Alpha and Beaver House and the French Apache dancers arrive at Sigma Phi Epsilon.

There will be orchids everywhere at Sigma Pi and Tau Kappa Epsilon which will present their annual Orchid Dance and Club Orchard.

Everyone will be in their Sunday best at Tau Phi Delta and everything will be black and white at the Theta Chi's Black and White party.

The fifth annual Prison Riot will run rampage at Theta Kappa Phi while everything is warm and sunny at Triangle with a South Sea Islands party.

Zeta Beta Tau will return to the Roaring Twenties and dungeons will prevail at the Delta Sigma Lambda Spelunker party. Kappa Alpha Psi will hold a party also, but has not announced its title.

And the best thing of all for the coeds is that all parties are approved by the dean of men's office.

Religion

Social Plans Made By Church Groups

Student religious groups have announced their social and religious plans for this weekend.

Wesley Foundation will sponsor an informal record dance from 8:30 to midnight tonight. M.A. Thomas, overseas secretary of an ecumenical student conference on "The Christian Mission in a World of Revolution" from Travancore, India, will speak to the group at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. A coffee hour will follow the program.

United Student Fellowship, Faith Evangelical and Reformed Church, will have a short meeting at the church at 6:20 p.m. Sunday. The group will then attend the lecture by Thomas at Wesley Foundation.

Howard Elkington, a Philadelphia Quaker, will speak to the Young Friends at their meeting Sunday. A supper at 6 p.m. at the Meeting House, 318 S. Atherton street, will precede the program.

Rabbi Benjamin M. Kahn will speak on "An Interpretation of the Passover Haggadah" at the Sabbath eve services at 8 tonight at Hillel Foundation. The dedicatory services for the Hillel building will be held at Hillel tomorrow and Sunday.

The Student Fellowship, St. John's Evangelical United Brethren Church, will hear a lecture on "Hinduism" by Ranan B. Banerji, visiting assistant professor of engineering research, at its meeting Sunday. A supper at 5 p.m. will precede the program.

The Rev. Arthur L. Ruths, Lutheran campus minister, will lead the Lenten discussion on Lutheranism at the meeting of the Lutheran Student Association at 7 p.m. tonight. The group will play volleyball at 8 p.m. following the discussion. A special Palm Sunday communion service for students will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

The Canterbury Club will meet for supper at 5:30 p.m. Sunday in the Parish House. A discussion and review of available summer work in the Episcopal church and of jobs through the Student Christian Movement will be held at 6:15 p.m. Robert Hare, sixth semester agricultural education major, will speak on the SCM's Camp Michaux in Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Lehman Strauss, of the Calvary Baptist Church, Bristol, will speak to the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship at its meeting at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

Westminster Foundation will hold a Palm Sunday Worship program at 6:20 p.m. Sunday.

Coeds May Apply For WSGA Posts

Applications for membership on Judicial and Freshman Regulations Board are still available in the dean of women's office, 105 Old Main. Applications are due by Wednesday.

Fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh semester women are eligible for positions on Judicial and not only sixth and seventh semester as reported in yesterday's Daily Collegian. Applicants should plan to serve until their eighth semester. Second semester freshman women may apply for Freshman Regulations Board.

Applicants must have a 1.5 All-University average and no major judicial record. They will be interviewed by a screening board before appointments are made.

University students, working their way through college, earned at least $162,656 last year through jobs arranged by the Student Employment Service.

Lutheran Student Association
Announces

A Student double quartet will sing	PALM SUNDAY	A brief meditation will be given by Pastor Ruths
HOLY COMMUNION
Grace Lutheran Church . . 7:30 p.m.

Hillel to Hold Dedication Services

Dedicatory exercises at 1:15 p.m. Sunday at the Hillel Foundation will honor three B'nai B'rith leaders and three anniversaries.

The Hillel building will be rededicated and named in memory of William M. Gerber, of Philadelphia, late vice president of the Supreme Lodge of B'nai B'rith and of the National Hillel commission. The building was erected and furnished by the B'nai B'rith and cost about $300,000. Joseph L. Kun, of Philadelphia, will give the dedicatory remarks in memory of Mr. Gerber. The Hillel building will then be known as the William M. Gerber House of the B'nai B'rith Foundation at Pennsylvania State University.

The synagogue in the Hillel building will be named in memory of Bella Fox, of Philadelphia, the late "Miss Hillel" of the district and past president of the Women's District Grand Lodge. Mrs. George J. Block, past president of the Women's Grand Lodge District 3 and chairman of the Bella Fox memorial fund will make formal dedication. Mrs. Joseph Korn, District 3 Women's Grand Lodge Hillel chairman, will dedicate the pews.

Milton Berger, vice president of the District Grand Lodge, will dedicate the Hillel Auditorium to Albert M. Cohen, past president of the district and president of the B'nai B'rith building fund of Pennsylvania which was responsible for raising the funds for the building.

The rededication exercises will also recognize the Centennial year of the University, the 20th year of the foundation's existence on the campus, and the 15th year of Rabbi and Mrs. Benjamin M. Kahn's presence at the local Hillel.

The main speaker for the exercises will be Rabbi Arthur J. Lelyveld, national director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel foundations. Budd L. Moser, president of the district, will preside over the exercises and will call for greetings which will be extended by William Ginsburg, past president of the district; Mrs. Albert Bazrod, president of the Women's District Grand Lodge 3; Mrs. Leo Lipner of the local B'nai B'rith chapter; and Grace Bassel, of Windber, president of Hillel Foundation.

Greetings will also be given by Ben Euwema, dean of the College of the Liberal Arts, and Rabbi Kahn, director of the foundation.

B'nai B'rith women of the community will entertain with an open house at 8 p.m. tomorrow for the guests who arrive Saturday. Guided tours of the campus will be conducted by the B'nai B'rith men Sunday. The tours will leave the Hillel building, 224 Locust Lane, at 10 a.m.