

Panhel Approves Rushing Schedule

Panhellenic Council Wednesday night gave final approval to a tentative formal rushing schedule presented by the Panhel rushing committee.

According to the schedule, the rushing period will be changed from two weeks to a week and two weekends.

The season will be open to all women of third semester and above and will begin with a rushee meeting at 11 a.m. on Sept. 16 in 121 Sparks.

To Register in Atherton.
Rushes will register for rushing on Sept. 16 and 17 in the Atherton Lounge.

The first event, open houses, will be held in all suites except Alpha Epsilon Phi, Phi Sigma Sigma and Sigma Delta Tau from 2 to 5 p.m. Sept. 17.

The open houses will continue from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Sept. 18. Alpha Epsilon Phi, Phi Sigma Sigma and Sigma Delta Tau will hold open houses in the evening hours only.

Coke Date Hours
Invitations to coke dates will be issued Sept. 19 and the rushees will attend them Sept. 19 and 20. The hours Sept. 19 will be from 2 to 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 9:45 p.m. On Sept. 20 the hours will begin at 1 p.m. and remain the same as Monday.

At the meeting the council voted to eliminate the "at homes" in favor of a second round of coke dates which will be held Sept. 21 with the same hours as Sept. 19. Each rushee will be allowed to accept only six invitations, however, compared to an unlimited number for Sept. 19 and 20.

Parties Scheduled
Each sorority will hold two parties on the night of Sept. 22 and 23 and each rushee may accept four as compared with the three on this year's program. The parties will be held from 7 to 8:15 p.m. and 8:30 to 9:45 p.m.

Alpha Epsilon Phi, Phi Sigma Sigma, and Sigma Delta Tau will hold their coffee hours Sept. 23. These three will not rush on Sept. 24, but the program will continue for other sororities which will hold coffee hours from 6:15 to 7:45 p.m. and 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Rushes will sign preference cards from 10 p.m. to midnight Sept. 25 in their dormitories and from 8 a.m. to noon Sept. 26 in the dean of women's office.

Rushes will be ribboned in the suites at 7 p.m. Sept. 28.

Thirteen to Attend 4-H Conference

Thirteen members of the campus 4-H Club will attend the Tri-State 4-H Conference today through Sunday at Pocono Manor, Pocono mountains.

The campus club will present the Sunday morning chapel service at the conference, which will include Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey.

Students interested in attending may contact Elsie Eshleman at 175 Atherton or Charles Ross at AD 7-4835. Expenses for the weekend will be about $20.

Coolidge Dam, on the Gila River in Arizona, is the largest multiple dome dam in the world. It has a height of 249 feet.

Etna, Pa., because of its flaming furnaces, was named for Sicily's volcano.

Home Ec Dean's List Announced

Fifty-five students in the College of Home Economics have been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester. Five of the 55 completed the semester with perfect 3 averages. An average of 2.5 or better is required for the Dean's List.

Seniors are: Miriam Olander, 2.64; Alice Boorman, 2.6; Bettie Caskey, 2.56; Jane Laco, 2.77; Ruth Eshleman, 2.5; Esther Weiss, 2.66; Marianne Herold, 3; Mary Monroe, 2.53; Dorothy Benninger, 2.62; Marian Erdman, 2.53; Ora Dieffenderfer, 2.56; Lucille Dorsey, 2.66; Anna Saylor, 2.78; Donna Sober, 2.58; Judith Koenig, 3; Janice Holm, 2.87.

Juniors are: Joyce Barger, 2.83; Eleanor Batdorf, 2.7; Carolyn Cunningham, 2.63; Shirley Fry, 2.73; Patricia Jack, 2.77; Ellen Judd, 3; Patricia Jobst, 2.66; Marie Jordan, 3; Elizabeth Kraebel, 2.56; Shirley Legrand, 2.55; Leitha Zimmerman, 2.56; Sylvia Pence, 2.55; Marilyn Quigley, 2.7; Patricia Smith, 2.58; Rhone Synnevstedt, 2.68; Faith Watson, 2.76; Doris Wenger, 2.61.

Sophomores are: Elizabeth Beveridge, 2.82; Cassandra Cobb, 2.94; Martha Fleming, 2.87; Ann Forster, 2.78; Margaret Forster, 2.58; Barbara Gilmore, 2.64; Jane Jennings, 2.58; Miriam Jones, 2.94; Elizabeth Manifold, 2.64; Sandra Mayes, 2.76; Mazdalene Russell,

Adult Ed Council Commends Prexy For Contributions

President Milton S. Eisenhower has been cited by the Adult Education Council of Philadelphia for his "distinguished contributions nationally to education, with particular emphasis on adult education."

The award, one of two granted by the council each year for outstanding service, was accepted by Lawrence Dennis, administrative assistant to the president, on behalf of President Eisenhower, who has been on a tour of University alumni clubs during the past week.

The Philadelphia council expressed its gratitude to President Eisenhower for his support and administration of "The People Act," a nation-wide radio program; his outstanding service as a director of the Fund for Adult Education; and his distinguished service to higher and continuing adult education.

Spotlighting Sigma Delta Tau

By GINGER HANCE

"One Hope of Many People" is the motto of Phi chapter of Sigma Delta Tau. Sigma Delta Tau was established on campus in 1943, twenty-six years after its national founding in March, 1917.

Nationally, SDT has 29 chapters with an approximate membership of 1200.

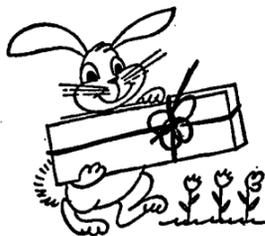

The sorority's project is multiple sclerosis. Last year the members raffled off a cashmere sweater and gave the proceeds to the multiple sclerosis fund. They aid in other projects against heart disease, and give financial support to the Haven School for the mentally retarded. The sorority also contributes to the library at Brandeis University, Mass.

Several cups are awarded in the sorority. One of these, the scholarship improvement cup, is awarded to the member achieving the greatest improvement in her All-University average for the preceding year. A scholarship key is awarded to the senior member graduating with the highest All-University average in the chapter. "Girl of Sigma Delta Tau" is an honor bestowed on the woman who has been most outstanding in both the sorority and campus life. The Best Pledge and the Sigma Delta Tau Girl will be announced at the group's formal dance, April 23.

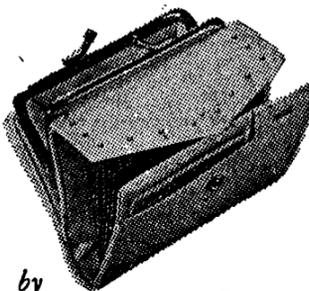

Recently elected officers are Lois Masket, president; Carol Lipton, first vice president; Rheda Berger, second vice president and scholarship chairman; Doris Weinstein, treasurer; Lois Mednick, corresponding secretary; Fran Firestone, recording secretary; Joan Rapoport, rushing chairman.

The suite of the SDT's is located on the first floor of Simmons. Mrs. Morris Mendleson is the sorority adviser.

She'll Love The "Rabbit" Who Gives Her A Persian Princess

by Princess Gardner

High fashion pastels in Gahna Cowhide a gleam with tiny jewels.

Party Line

Alpha Gamma Delta held a pajama party for the sisters in the suite last week. The chapter attended chapel en masse in honor of its new pledges. The group recently entertained Sigma Phi Epsilon at the chapter house. A skit was presented and refreshments were served.

Delta Zeta entertained Chi Phi at the chapter with a skit followed by refreshments.

Members of Alpha Chi Omega were entertained by Pi Kappa Phi at dinner at the fraternity chapter house last week. Sorority members presented a skit after dinner.

2.77; Marilyn Seltzer, 2.52; Francis Wormer, 2.52.

Freshmen are: Diane Barnhart, 2.5; Eleanor Barnes, 2.5; Marilyn Grant, 2.93; Jane Laich, 3; Elsie Rosak, 2.52.

Marriages

Emig-Fromer

Miss Gail Fromer, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Taylor of Camp Hill, and Mr. Charles Emig, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Emig of Camp Hill, were married on March 26 in Camp Hill.

Mrs. Emig was graduated from the University in January. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Mr. Emig also was graduated from the University in January. He is a member of Alpha Chi Rho and is now serving with the U.S. Air Force.

Gift Painting in Irvin Hall

The painting of Malcolm S. Parcell entitled "The Log Splitter," which was given to the University as a Centennial gift, will hang in Irvin Hall.

Vanilla, in its natural state, is a green, elongated bean.

On Campus with Max Shulman

(Author of "Barefoot Boy With Cheek," etc.)

CLOTHES MAKE THE BMOC

A few weeks ago I discussed fashions for coeds. I pointed out then that any girl who really wanted to go places on campus had to be bold and ingenious when it came to clothes. This is no less true for the male student.

Believe me, men, you'll never get anywhere if you keep skulking around in those old plus-fours. What you need is some dash, some verve, some inventiveness in your apparel. Don't be imprisoned by the traditional conservatism of men's clothing. Brighten up your appearance with a single earring, or a cavalry sabre, or a gold derby.

However, guard against gaudiness. If, for instance, you are wearing a gold derby, do not also wear a cavalry sabre. This is too much. Wear a dagger instead, or, for informal occasions, a Bowie knife.

(Speaking of Bowie knives, I wonder how many of you know what a great debt this country—indeed, the whole world—owes to the West Point class of 1836? You all know, of course, that Colonel James Bowie of the Class of 1836 invented the Bowie knife, but do you know of the many other important contributions to cutlery that were made by classmates of Colonel Bowie's? Are you aware, for example, that Colonel Harry Clasp invented the Clasp knife? Or that Colonel Harry Jack invented the Jack knife? Or that Colonel Harry Putty invented the Putty knife? Or that Colonel Harry Cannon invented the towel?

By a curious coincidence, every member of the graduating class at the U. S. Military Academy in 1836 was named Harry, save for Colonel James Bowie. This coincidence is believed unique in the history of American education, though, of course, quite common in Europe.)

But I digress. We were talking about men's campus fashions. Let us turn now to a persistent rumor that a garment called the "suit" is on the verge of making a comeback. Some of you older students may remember the "suit." It was an ensemble consisting of a jacket and trousers, both of which—this'll kill you—both of which were made out of the same material!

The last "suit" ever seen on an American campus was in 1941—and I ought to know, because I was wearing it. Ah, 1941! Well do I remember that melancholy year. I was an undergraduate then and in love—hopelessly in love, caught in the riptide of a reckless romance with a beautiful statistics major named Harry Sigafos. (She is one of the two girls I have ever known named Harry. The other one is her sister.)

I loved Harry though she was far too expensive a girl for me. She liked to eat at fancy restaurants and dance at costly ballrooms and ride in high priced cars. But worst of all, she was mad for wishing wells. It was not unusual for her to drop coins into a wishing well for two or three hours on end. My coins.

Bit by bit I sold off my belongings to pursue this insane courtship—first my books, then my clothes, until finally I was left with nothing to wear but a "suit." One night I came calling for her in this garment.

"What is that?" she gasped, her lip curling in horror.

"That is a 'suit' I mumbled, averting my eyes.

"Well, I can't be seen around campus with you in that," said she.

"Please, Harry," I begged. "It's all I've got."

"I'm sorry," she said firmly and slammed the door.

I slunk home and lit a Philip Morris and sat down to think. I always light a Philip Morris when I sit down to think, for their mild vintage tobacco is a great aid to cerebration. I always light Philip Morris when I don't sit down to think too, because Philip Morris is my favorite cigarette, and I know it will be yours too once you try that crazy vintage tobacco.

Well sir, smoking and thinking thus, my eye happened to fall on an ad in the campus newspaper. "WIN A COMPLETE WARDROBE" said the ad. "Touhy's Toggery, the campus's leading men's store, announces a contest to pick the best dressed man on campus. The winner of the contest will receive, absolutely free, a blue hound's tooth jacket, a yellow button-down shirt, a black knit tie, a tattersall vest, gray flannel trousers, argyle socks, and white buck shoes with two inch crepe soles."

My mouth watered at the thought of such a splendid wardrobe, but how could anybody possibly pick me as the best dressed man on campus—me in my "suit"? Suddenly an inspiration struck me. I seized pen in hand and wrote a letter to the editor of the campus newspaper:

"Dear Sir, I see by the paper that Touhy's Toggery is going to give a complete wardrobe to the student picked as the best dressed man on campus. What a ridiculous idea!

"Obviously, to be the best dressed man on campus, you must first have a lot of clothes. And if you have a lot of clothes, what do you need with another wardrobe?

"Touhy's Toggery should give a new wardrobe to the worst dressed man on campus. Me, for instance. I am an eyesore. There isn't a crow in town that will come near me. Three times this month the Salvation Army salvage truck has picked me up. Esquire has cancelled my subscription.

"I submit that a vote for me is a vote for reason, a vote for equity, in short, a vote for the American way."

With a flourish, I signed the letter and sent it off, somehow feeling certain that very soon I would be wearing a complete new wardrobe. And I was right—because two weeks later I was drafted.

©Max Shulman, 1954

This column is brought to you by the makers of PHILIP MORRIS who think you would enjoy their cigarette.

EASTER'S COMING!

Pick your cards from a really fine selection.

SO IS VACATION!

Whether you're going home or for a visit, you'll find the perfect gift for Mother or Hostess

at the TREASURE HOUSE