

4 Students Involved In Auto Accidents

Four University male students were involved in auto accidents over the weekend. Three students received injuries, and the fourth was fined $100 and 10 days in jail for driving while intoxicated.

Andrew Bias, fifth semester business administration major; and Joseph Schumacher, fifth semester business administration

Terrace Room Hours Extended After Vacation

The Terrace Room in the Hetzel Union Building will be open from 7 to 4 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. starting April 13 as an addition to the Lion's Den, Mildred A. Baker, director of food service, reported yesterday. At present, hours are 11 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.

Frozen custard, sandwiches, and coffee will be served in the Terrace Room during these hours in addition to the service in the Lion's Den. Additional seating room may be found in the Terrace Room to alleviate any rush in the Lion's Den at these times.

Lunches and dinners will continue to be served in the Terrace Room at the same hours as before. Patrons may walk on the terrace during the afternoon and evening as well as sit in the Terrace Room, Miss Baker announced.

Miss Baker said the Terrace Room is the only place where frozen custard will be available.

She said the Lion's Den has been very busy and generally crowded, and that the Terrace Room has been serving the students. She declined to give any figures on sales in either place.

Five O'Clock Theater

"The Guardian Angel," a one-act play by Harry Neubauer, graduate student in liberal arts, and directed by Nancy May, ninth semester art education major, will be presented by the Five O'Clock Theater at 5 p.m. today in the Little Theater of Old Main.

MacGillavry to Speak

Dr. Caroline H. MacGillavry of Municipal University of Amsterdam, Holland, will speak at the Physics Colloquium at 4:10 p.m. today in 117 Osmond.

Dr. MacGillavry's topic will be "Defects in Crystal Lattices."

Meeting Postponed

All-University Cabinet Foods Committee will not meet as scheduled tonight, Robert Sturdevant, committee head, has announced. The next meeting will be held at 7:15 p.m. April 19. Place of meeting will be announced later.

WILBUR JUST WOKE UP TO THE FACT THAT HE'S IN CLASS!

KEEP ALERT FOR A BETTER POINT AVERAGE!

Don't let that "drowsy feeling" cramp your style in class . . . or when you're "hitting the books". Take a NoDoz Awakener! In a few minutes, you'll be your normal best . . . wide awake . . . alert! Your doctor will tell you—NoDoz Awakeners are safe as coffee. Keep a pack handy!

15 TABLETS, 35c

69c

Debaters To Enter Tournament

The Women's Debate Team will participate in the Grand National Debate Tournament and Strawberry Leaf Forensic Festival to be held tomorrow through Saturday at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia, Fredericksburg, Va.

Two hundred debaters will take part in the tournament. Nine rounds of debate with no formal judges will be held. Each team will judge its opponents.

Mary Maum, sixth semester education major; Lucinda Manarin, sixth semester education major; Betsy Sharp, sixth semester arts and letters major; and Ann Leh, eighth semester journalism major, will take the affirmative for the University. The negative will be debated by Vanessa Johnson, sixth semester education major; Harriet Silverman, sixth semester education major; Marjorie Babb, fourth semester arts and letters major; and Ellen Ross, fourth semester journalism major.

Nine women will take part in the forensic rounds. Miss Sharp will speak in dramatic reading and book review. Miss Babb will participate in address reading and response to the occasion. Joanne Montgomery, sixth semester arts and letters major, will take part in declamation, response to the occasion, poetry reading, and dramatic reading.

Miss Ross will speak in extemporaneous and after dinner speaking. Miss Silverman will take part in encomium and dramatic reading. Miss Manarin will participate in oratory, and Miss Leh in poetry. Miss Maum will take part in informative speaking, and Miss Johnson in encomium.

The Women's Team won the tournament in 1952, and was runner-up last year.

Camera Club Meeting

The Camera Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in 212 and 213 Hetzel Union Building.

THE PERFECT PIZZA
SALLY'S
 WE DELIVER AD 7-2373

were injured at 11 p.m. Sunday near Penn Hall when their car swerved to the left of the road and hit a bank.

Bias said he had been blinded by the lights of an approaching car.

The two were treated for injuries at the Centre County Hospital. Bias received multiple lacerations of the face and head, and brush burns of the right hip. He is still recuperating at the hospital.

Schumacher was discharged yesterday, having received a small laceration of his head.

Stanley McInroy, eighth semester petroleum and natural gas major, and three others were injured at 9:10 p.m. Friday on Benner pike, west of the Rockview dairy barns.

McInroy received injuries to his left shoulder and lower lip. The remaining three, all injured, were Ann Lane, student at Penn Hall, Chambersburg; Donald Kassab, Philipsburg; and Edward Navasky, Philipsburg.

Police said that McInroy was traveling toward Bellefonte and was left of the center of the highway. Navasky, driving in the opposite direction, tried to avoid a collision by driving to the left.

The two cars swiped, and Navasky's car swerved to the left and over a bank. Damage to his car was estimated at $1800 and to McInroy's car about $250. Police said both cars were damaged beyond repair.

In the third accident, the car of Edwin Workman, second semester arts and letters major, missed the turn at 7:25 p.m. Saturday at the Boalsburg-Shingletown road on Rt. 545 east of Pine Grove Mills. The car turned over, causing about $600 in damage.

Police charged Workman with driving while intoxicated. Following a plea of guilty, he was ordered by Judge Ivan Walker to serve 10 days in jail and pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Scholarship Blanks

Sophomore women interested in the Cwens Scholarship must turn in their applications to the dean of women's office by tomorrow.

Penn State Club to Present Musical Revue After Vacation

The Penn State Club will present its Musical Revue at 8 p.m. April 15, in Schwab Auditorium.

The artists will be the performers who appeared in the All-University talent show earlier this year.

Marvin Trimas will present his version of "Night Train," which he performed in the last show.

Joan MacKenzie, who has appeared with several bands in the Philadelphia area as well as in USO groups, will give her own interpretation of several blues numbers.

Other performers include:

Frank Fillipp, baritone, who has appeared with the Showcrafters on RCA and the Mar-Bet Capers; Carolyn O'Donnell, vocalist with several Pittsburgh bands, who has appeared on KDKA-TV, Pittsburgh television station; Zigmund Bogucki, accordionist, who has also appeared on TV; James Brown, pantomimist, who had his own TV show for over a year in Erie, and who has made many guest appearances over WICU-TV in Erie and WGR-TV in Buffalo; and Howard Rowlands, who placed third in the talent show with his rendition of "Old Man" (Continued on page eight)

NEW FLIGHTS
WASHINGTON, D.C.
 Connecting at Altoona
Early Bird Flight to PITTSBURGH
 Lv. State College . . . 8:25 a.m.
 Ar. Pittsburgh . . . 9:32 a.m.

Connections to
SAN FRANCISCO
CHICAGO - DETROIT - LOS ANGELES and other points west and south

ALLEGHENY AIRLINES
 Phone Phillipsburg 25

COMING SOON! to Allegheny's System
 40-passenger Martin "Executives"

50 million times a day
 at home, at work or while at play

There's nothing like a
COKE

1. You feel its LIVELINESS.
2. You taste its BRIGHT GOODNESS.
3. You experience PERFECT REFRESHMENT.

DRINK Coca-Cola

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY ALTOONA COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY
 "Coke" is a registered trade-mark. © 1955, THE COCA-COLA COMPANY